VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff CHAZ RODRIGUEZ, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the laws of the State of New York. On September 5, 2013, at approximately 1:00 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully inside the subway station located at 14th Street and 7th Avenue, New York, New York when the individually named New York City police officer defendants, unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, falsely imprisoned, unlawfully seized, and falsely arrested plaintiff. Thereafter, the officers maliciously prosecuted plaintiff and denied plaintiff a right to a fair trial by initiating a prosecution against him, without probable cause by falsifying evidence, providing false, misleading and/or incomplete information to the DA's Office and by signing a Criminal Court complaint which contained false information about plaintiff. Those officers that did not physically touch plaintiff are liable for failing to intervene and stop the unlawful conduct against claimant that was being committed by their fellow officers. All criminal charges against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on or about February 27, 2014. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, falsely arrested, maliciously prosecuted, and denied plaintiff the right to a fair trial, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the laws of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

19. On September 5, 2013, at approximately 1:00 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully inside of a subway station located at 14th Street and 7th Avenue, New York, New York, when the individually named New York City police officer defendants proceeded to unlawfully stop, question, frisk, seize and detain plaintiff without his consent, and without reasonable suspicion, probable cause, or any legal justification.

20. At no time prior to stopping plaintiff did the defendant police officers have any objective factual basis to believe plaintiff had committed a crime, was about to commit a crime, or was in the process of committing a crime.

21. At no time was plaintiff in possession of any illegal drugs, weapons, or contraband of any kind on September 5, 2013, nor did the defendant police officers have an objective reason to believe plaintiff possessed illegal drugs, weapons, or contraband of any kind.

22. Nevertheless, the defendant police officers unlawfully handcuffed plaintiff and falsely arrested him without legal justification or probable cause.

23. The individually named police officers unlawfully searched plaintiff's person without probable cause or any legal justification and did not locate any illegal drugs, weapons or contraband as a result of the search.

24. Plaintiff was unlawfully transported to the Transit District #2 precinct by the defendant police officers.

25. Upon arrival at Transit District #2, the defendant police officers photographed, fingerprinted and placed plaintiff in a holding cell.

26. At no time did plaintiff resist being fingerprinted or photographed.

27. Thereafter, without probable cause or legal justification, the defendant police officers decided to transport plaintiff to Bellevue Hospital against his will.

28. Defendants had no objective reason to believe plaintiff was emotionally disturbed.

29. Defendants had no objective reason to believe plaintiff was a danger to himself or others.

30. Upon arriving at Bellevue Hospital and being forced to speak with medical personnel at the hospital, plaintiff told the doctors and medical staff exactly what happened to him.

31. The medical staff at Bellevue Hospital did not treat plaintiff for any ailments and determined that plaintiff was not a danger to himself or anyone else and that they did not have a legal right to force plaintiff to remain at the hospital against his will.

32. In fact, at no point in time did the defendant police officers or any medical personnel possess any objective evidence or knowledge that would lead a reasonable person to believe that plaintiff was a danger to himself or others.

33. While plaintiff was at Bellevue Hospital, the individual defendants, including but not limited to defendant Thomas, unlawfully attempted to shackle plaintiff's legs together.

34. At no point in time did plaintiff resist being unlawfully shackled.

35. At point in time did plaintiff commit any crime while at Bellevue Hospital, nor did the defendant police officers have probable cause to believe that plaintiff committed any crime.

36. After being held against his will for several hours at Bellevue Hospital, plaintiff was discharged from the hospital, and the defendant police officers eventually transported plaintiff to Manhattan Central Booking.

37. Based upon the false, misleading, and incomplete information provided to the District Attorney's Office by the defendant police officers and sworn to by the defendants in the criminal court complaint, defendants maliciously initiated a prosecution against plaintiff without probable cause, and was falsely charged with Assault in the 2nd Degree.

38. Specifically, defendant police officer Thomas falsely stated to the Manhattan District Attorney's Office that plaintiff assaulted her while she was at Bellevue Hospital, which caused her to suffer serious physical injuries.

39. Notably, at no point in time did plaintiff assault defendant Thomas or cause her to suffer serious physical injuries.

40. After approximately 24 hours, on or about September 5, 2016 at 11:30 p.m, plaintiff was arraigned in Manhattan Criminal Court.

41. At arraignment plaintiff's bail was set, which he was unable to post, and therefore he was remanded to the custody of the Department of Correction.

42. Thereafter, defendant Thomas provided false information and testimony to the Assistant District Attorney and the Grand Jury.

43. On or about September 10, 2013, plaintiff was indicted by a grand jury based upon the fabricated testimony and/or false information documented in reports and paperwork of defendant Thomas.

44. The presumption of probable cause created by the Grand Jury indictment is rebuttable in this case because the indictment was based upon false statements told to the grand jury and/or false information documented in reports and paperwork by defendant Thomas.

45. Thereafter, after appearing approximately 4 times in Court, on or about February 27, 2014, the Court dismissed the indictment against plaintiff and all charges were dismissed and sealed.

46. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, and denial of fair trial and due process rights to plaintiff.

47. The unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, denial of due process, denial of a fair trial, against plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.
