

CCRB INVESTIGATIVE RECOMMENDATION

Investigator: Minsuk Kim	Team: Team # 1	CCRB Case #: 201016064	☒ Force	☒ Discourt.	☐ U.S.
			☒ Abuse	☐ O.L.	☐ Injury
Incident Date(s) Wednesday, 11/17/2010 1:15 AM	Location of Incident: [REDACTED]	Precinct: 69	18 Mo. SOL 5/17/2012	EO SOL 5/17/2012
Date/Time CV Reported Wed, 11/17/2010 1:30 AM	CV Reported At: IAB	How CV Reported: Phone	Date/Time Received at CCRB Tue, 11/23/2010 10:00 AM

Complainant/Victim	Type	Home Address
[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]

Subject Officer(s)	Shield	TaxID	Command
1. POM Paul Oconnor	05759	942285	069 PCT
2. POM Forrest Hirsch	05029	941905	069 PCT

Officer(s)	Allegation	Investigator Recommendation
A.POM Paul Oconnor	Abuse: PO Paul O'Connor stopped § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]	[REDACTED]
B.POM Forrest Hirsch	Abuse: PO Forrest Hirsch stopped § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]	[REDACTED]
C.POM Paul Oconnor	Force: PO Paul O'Connor used physical force against § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]	[REDACTED]
D.POM Paul Oconnor	Abuse: PO Paul O'Connor threatened § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] with the use of force.	[REDACTED]
E.POM Paul Oconnor	Abuse: PO Paul O'Connor frisked § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]	[REDACTED]
F.POM Forrest Hirsch	Abuse: PO Forrest Hirsch frisked § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]	[REDACTED]
G.POM Forrest Hirsch	Abuse: PO Forrest Hirsch searched § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]	[REDACTED]
H.POM Paul Oconnor	Discourtesy: PO Paul O'Connor spoke and acted rudely toward § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]	[REDACTED]

Case Summary

§ 87(2)(b) filed a complaint with IAB on November 17, 2010. It was received by the CCRB by log number 10-57597 on November 23, 2010. On November 17, 2010, at approximately 1:15am, § 87(2)(b) was waiting for an elevator in the lobby of § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn when he was approached by two officers. The following allegations resulted:

Allegation A – Abuse of Authority: PO Paul O’Connor stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation B – Abuse of Authority: PO Forrest Hirsch stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation E – Abuse of Authority: PO Paul O’Connor frisked § 87(2)(b)

Allegation F – Abuse of Authority: PO Forrest Hirsch frisked § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation C – Force: PO Paul O’Connor used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation D – Abuse of Authority: PO Paul O’Connor threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

Allegation G – Abuse of Authority: PO Forrest Hirsch searched § 87(2)(b)

Allegation H – Discourtesy: PO Paul O’Connor spoke and acted rudely toward § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g)

Mediation was offered to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) declined to mediate his complaint § 87(2)(b)

Results of Investigation

Civilian Statements

Complainant/Victim: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b) is a § 87(2)(b) black male. He is 5’7” tall, weighs 240 pounds, and has black hair and brown eyes.

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) provided an account of the incident to IAB when he filed his complaint [encl 4]. The undersigned investigator obtained a phone statement from § 87(2)(b) on November 29, 2010 [encl. 6A]. § 87(2)(b) appeared at the CCRB to provide a sworn statement on December 16, 2010 [encl. 6B-6G]. § 87(2)(g)

On November 17, 2010, § 87(2)(b) returned home to § 87(2)(b) (NYCHA’s § 87(2)(b) development) in Brooklyn after spending time at his mother’s residence and meeting with his uncle, with whom he drank an alcoholic beverage and smoked a marijuana cigarette. He wore a blue “Dodgers” jacket, a white hooded sweatshirt, blue jeans, and blue sneakers. § 87(2)(b) exited the B42 bus on § 87(2)(b) midway between § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) walked northeast, towards § 87(2)(b), and called his cousin on his cell phone. As he walked, he noticed a dark blue or black unmarked Chevrolet Impala with tinted windows driving through the development. § 87(2)(b) could not see into the windows due to dim light conditions and the vehicle’s tinted windows.

§ 87(2)(b) entered § 87(2)(b) at approximately 1:20am. He let himself into the building with a key and pressed the elevator call button. As he waited for the elevator, he saw two officers whom he assumed had been in the Impala, identified by the investigation as PO Paul O’Connor and PO Forrest Hirsch of the 69th Precinct, standing by the building’s rear entrance. PO O’Connor was described as a white male, 6’2” tall, medium build, with short black hair or a bald head, wearing plainclothes, in his early 30s, and with shield number 5759. PO Hirsch was described as a white or Hispanic male, 5’6” tall, stocky build, wearing plainclothes, and in his 30s. § 87(2)(b) continued to speak with his cousin on the phone as he waited for the elevator.

PO Hirsch approached § 87(2)(b). PO O’Connor followed close-by and told § 87(2)(b) to end his phone conversation. In his phone statement, § 87(2)(b) alleged that PO O’Connor told him to, “hang up [his] fucking phone.” However, § 87(2)(b) remained on the phone. PO O’Connor “snatched” the phone from § 87(2)(b)’s hand and placed the phone on a windowsill. § 87(2)(b) reached for his phone in an attempt to retrieve it, but PO O’Connor pushed § 87(2)(b) backward with his right hand, clenched into a fist, toward a bank of mailboxes. § 87(2)(b) made another attempt to retrieve his phone. This time, PO O’Connor punched § 87(2)(b) in the chest with his right hand, sending § 87(2)(b) back toward the mailboxes. § 87(2)(b) made a third attempt to retrieve his phone. PO O’Connor pushed § 87(2)(b) against the mailboxes with left forearm and positioned his right hand, still in a fist, above § 87(2)(b)’s face. As he did this, PO O’Connor said to § 87(2)(b) “I should punch you in your face.” § 87(2)(b) challenged PO O’Connor to do so, but the officer refused, saying that § 87(2)(b) wanted him to do it so that he would be able to sue him and “get his ticket out of the ‘hood.” § 87(2)(b) was yelling throughout this verbal exchange.

PO O’Connor asked § 87(2)(b) if he lived in the building. § 87(2)(b) responded that he did. PO O’Connor then asked § 87(2)(b) for identification and § 87(2)(b) provided it to the officer. PO O’Connor saw that the address on § 87(2)(b)’s identification was not § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) explained to PO O’Connor that the address on the identification was his mother’s.

§ 87(2)(b) was then instructed to extend his arms to his sides. PO O’Connor frisked the top half of § 87(2)(b)’s body, patting around his chest and arms, and PO Hirsch searched the bottom half of § 87(2)(b)’s body, entering all of the pockets of § 87(2)(b)’s jacket, sweatshirt, and pants. PO Hirsch also frisked § 87(2)(b)’s waistband, legs, groin, and buttocks. § 87(2)(b) had nothing in his pockets except for identification, a MetroCard, and loose cash. PO O’Connor handed § 87(2)(b)’s identification over to PO Hirsch, who made a phone call to check for open warrants. In his phone statement, § 87(2)(b) alleged that both PO O’Connor and PO Hirsch entered his pockets; PO O’Connor entered his front pockets and PO Hirsch entered his rear pockets. However, § 87(2)(b) did not reiterate a search conducted by PO O’Connor in his sworn statement.

§ 87(2)(b) told the officers that they were harassing him. An argument ensued between § 87(2)(b) and the officers. The officers contemplated aloud about issuing § 87(2)(b) a summons for disorderly conduct. § 87(2)(b) stated that he had done nothing wrong and told the officers that he would “report” them. PO O’Connor said to § 87(2)(b) “Someone should fucking shoot you.” PO Hirsch added, “If you get shot, don’t call us.” § 87(2)(b) responded, “Fuck you.” In his phone statement, § 87(2)(b) stated only that PO O’Connor stated, “You should get shot in your fucking face in your lobby.” PO O’Connor threw § 87(2)(b) s identification on the floor and the two officers walked out of the building. After the officers left, § 87(2)(b) called 911 to report the incident. 911 transferred § 87(2)(b) to IAB. § 87(2)(b) spoke to IAB while he was still in the lobby. The incident with the officers lasted between five to ten minutes. No one was present in the lobby to witness the incident.

In his phone statement, § 87(2)(b) stated he was frisked and searched by the officers before he was pushed, punched, and threatened with force.

NYPD Statements:

Subject Officer: PO PAUL O’CONNOR

- PO Paul O’Connor is a § 87(2)(b)-old white male. He is 6’3” tall, weighs 245 pounds, and has brown hair and blue eyes.
- PO O’Connor was assigned to Anti-Crime with PO Forrest Hirsch from 5:30pm on November 16, 2010, to 2:05am on November 17, 2010. He was in plainclothes and assigned to an unmarked silver Impala, auto § 87(2)(e), § 87(2)(f)

Memobook

PO O’Connor prepared the following incident-related memobook entries [encl. 7A]. At 1:15am, one male was stopped inside of § 87(2)(b) in regards to Criminal Trespass: § 87(2)(b) 5’10”, approximately 240 pounds, date of birth § 87(2)(b), and the identification that he provided listed an address at § 87(2)(b). At 1:25am a UF-250 report was prepared regarding the incident.

Stop, Question and Frisk Report Worksheet

PO O’Connor prepared a UF-250 to document his encounter with § 87(2)(b) [encl. 7B]. The worksheet indicates that at 1:15am, § 87(2)(b) was stopped in the lobby of § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) was suspected of Criminal Trespass after he was observed for two minutes prior to the stop “hanging out in the lobby” and making “furtive movements.” Physical force was used against § 87(2)(b) in the form of “hands on suspect” and “suspect against wall/car.” Additionally, § 87(2)(b) was frisked based on “verbal threats of violence” and “furtive movements” with other listed factors including high incidence of criminal trespass in the area, the time of the encounter, and evasive, false or inconsistent responses to the officers’ questions.

CCRB Testimony

PO O’Connor was interviewed at the CCRB on January 25, 2011 [encl. 7C-7D].

On November 17, 2010, at approximately 1:15am, PO O’Connor and PO Hirsch were driving around the § 87(2)(b) NYCHA Housing Development when they observed § 87(2)(b) standing in the lobby of § 87(2)(b). The officers continued to patrol the development for approximately five minutes when they saw that § 87(2)(b) was still standing in the lobby from their vantage point 30 to 40 feet away as they sat in their patrol car. The officers conferred briefly and decided to enter the building.

The officers entered the building through the rear entrance. As the officers approached § 87(2)(b) they identified themselves and PO O'Connor asked § 87(2)(b) what his business was in the building. § 87(2)(b) was talking on his cell phone with his back facing the officers and did not answer PO O'Connor. PO O'Connor again asked § 87(2)(b) why he was in the building and asked him to provide identification, but § 87(2)(b) continued to speak on his cell phone and ignore the officers. The officers stepped in front of § 87(2)(b) who then became "belligerent"; he said things to the effect of "leave me the fuck alone" and "get the fuck out of my face." § 87(2)(b) appeared to be intoxicated because he "swayed back and forth."

The officers repeatedly asked § 87(2)(b) to put his phone down and § 87(2)(b) eventually placed the phone on a nearby ledge to his right. After placing his phone on the ledge, § 87(2)(b) made a "furtive movement"; he grabbed the "center area" of his waistband, by his belt buckle. When asked to describe the movement, PO O'Connor stated, "Maybe he was pulling his pants up, at the time I didn't perceive it as that." PO O'Connor added that he was watching § 87(2)(b)'s hands and did not notice a bulge. PO O'Connor then frisked § 87(2)(b) around his waistband. PO Hirsch may have conducted an additional frisk. The officers again asked § 87(2)(b) for his identification and § 87(2)(b) provided it. The officers noted that the address on his identification was different from the address of the building. The officers asked § 87(2)(b) for more details regarding his reason for being inside of the building. PO Hirsch ran a warrant check on § 87(2)(b) which came back negative.

As PO Hirsch ran the warrant check, § 87(2)(b) attempted to get past the officers, to leave the scene. PO O'Connor prevented § 87(2)(b) from leaving by placing his left forearm against § 87(2)(b)'s chest. PO O'Connor's hand was clenched into a fist as he raised his forearm. § 87(2)(b) was contained as there was a wall behind him. PO O'Connor explained to § 87(2)(b) that he had to stay as the officers conducted their investigation. § 87(2)(b) explained after approximately a minute that his mother lived in the building. The officers accepted § 87(2)(b)'s explanation, recorded his information to prepare a Stop, Question, and Frisk Report, and released him.

PO O'Connor denied searching § 87(2)(b) punching or gesturing as though he would punch § 87(2)(b) throwing § 87(2)(b)'s identification to the floor, or telling § 87(2)(b) "I should punch you in your face" and "Someone should fucking shoot you." PO O'Connor was presented with a copy of the Stop, Question, and Frisk Report he prepared for § 87(2)(b) following the stop and explained that "Hands on suspect" referred to his forearm against § 87(2)(b)'s chest and "Suspect on wall" referred to the same action of containing § 87(2)(b). "Furtive movements" referred to § 87(2)(b) reaching toward his waistband, and "Verbal threats of violence by suspect" referred to § 87(2)(b)'s "belligerent" statements (e.g. "Get the fuck away from me") and his attempts to pass through the officers.

Subject Officer: PO FORREST HIRSCH

- PO Forrest Hirsch is a § 87(2)(b)-old white male. He is 5'9" tall, weighs 175 pounds, and has brown hair and green eyes.
- PO Hirsch was assigned to Anti-Crime with PO Paul O'Connor from 6:00pm on November 16, 2010, to 2:05am on November 17, 2010. He was in plainclothes and assigned to an unmarked silver Impala, auto § 87(2)(e), § 87(2)(f)

Memobook

PO Hirsch had no entries in his memobook related to the incident [encl. 8A-8B], but he noted on his flysheet [encl. 8C] that he and PO O'Connor stopped § 87(2)(b) at 1:15am. He recorded § 87(2)(b)'s name, date of birth, and address. He also noted that PO O'Connor prepared a Stop, Question, and Frisk Report.

CCRB Testimony

PO Hirsch was interviewed at the CCRB on January 24, 2011 [encl. 8D-8E]. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)

Through the windows of the lobby of § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) saw PO Hirsch and PO O'Connor in their vehicle approximately ten feet away from the building. At this point, § 87(2)(b) made a "furtive movement"; he turned his back toward the officers while simultaneously reaching toward his waist area. The officers did not see if § 87(2)(b)'s hands were inside of his pants or remained outside of them.

The officers decided to approach § 87(2)(b) because they had observed § 87(2)(b) standing in the lobby five minutes prior and the furtive movements that he appeared to make. Upon entering the building, the officers saw § 87(2)(b) standing in the lobby with a cellular phone in one hand and the other hand at his side. PO O'Connor asked § 87(2)(b) if he lived in the building and for his identification. § 87(2)(b) replied that he did live in the building but refused to provide the identification. PO Hirsch frisked § 87(2)(b) around his waist, the outside of his jacket, and down his legs based solely on the "furtive movements" he had observed earlier while inside of the patrol car. PO O'Connor may have effected an additional frisk.

§ 87(2)(b) with his phone still in his hand, told the officers that he would be calling someone. § 87(2)(b) placed his phone on a nearby ledge after the officers issued multiple verbal commands to put his phone down. § 87(2)(b) then tried to push his way between the officers, who stood side-by-side in front of him, in order to leave. PO O'Connor and PO Hirsch prevented § 87(2)(b) from leaving by holding their hands up. § 87(2)(b) "ran into" the officers' outstretched arms. Both PO O'Connor and PO Hirsch again asked § 87(2)(b) to produce his identification. § 87(2)(b) complied.

The identification given by § 87(2)(b) indicated that he did not live in the building. PO O'Connor made a call over the radio to check if § 87(2)(b) had any open warrants. The warrant check was conducted because § 87(2)(b) had been "loitering" in the building, an "arrestable offense." The officers left shortly thereafter.

PO Hirsch denied saying to § 87(2)(b) "If you ever get shot, don't call us." Additionally, PO Hirsch denied searching § 87(2)(b) or observing PO O'Connor search § 87(2)(b)

Status of Civil Proceedings

- As of March 2, 2011, § 87(2)(b) has not filed a Notice of Claim with the City of New York with regard to the incident.

[§ 87(2)(b)] [§§ 86(1)(3)&(4)] [§ 87(2)(c)]

■ [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
■ [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
■ [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Civilian CCRB History

- § 87(2)(b) was involved as a victim in one previous case filed with the CCRB. § 87(2)(b), 5

Subject Officer CCRB History

- PO O'Connor has been a member of the service for four years and there are no substantiated CCRB allegations against him [encl. 2A].
- PO Hirsch has been a member of the service for four years and there are no substantiated CCRB allegations against him [encl. 2B].

Conclusion

Identification of Subject Officer

PO O'Connor and PO Hirsch admitted to interacting with § 87(2)(b)

Investigative Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A – Abuse of Authority: PO Paul O'Connor stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation B – Abuse of Authority: PO Forrest Hirsch stopped § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated that he had ignored PO O'Connor's orders to hang up his phone, and PO O'Connor "snatched" the phone out of § 87(2)(b)'s hand, thereby forcibly stopping him.

§ 87(2)(g) [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The officers made a shared decision to approach § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] PO O'Connor stated that he and his partner made the decision solely because they had observed § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] standing in the lobby of § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] for approximately five minutes. PO Hirsch added that while he was in the patrol car, he observed § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] make a "furtive movement" – he simultaneously turned away from the officers and reached toward his waistband. PO O'Connor also stated that § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] had made a furtive movement, but stated that the movement was made after the officers approached § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] inside the lobby. Both officers stated that upon their approach, § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] had a cell phone in his hand. PO O'Connor stated the phone was at his side while PO Hirsch stated that he was speaking on the phone. PO O'Connor and § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] both stated that § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] ignored the officers' questions upon their initial approach, whereas PO Hirsch stated that § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] said that he lived in the building but refused to provide identification. The officers subsequently forcibly stopped § 87(2)(b) contemporaneous with frisking him.

According to the NYPD memo book insert, “Street Encounters – Legal Issues,” [encl. 1A] an officer may make a level one approach if he or she has an articulable reason to do so which is “beyond mere whim or caprice”; the officer may question a civilian regarding his or her identity or presence at a location. However, the civilian is not obligated to cooperate with an officer’s level one approach, and may walk away from the officer without answering the officer’s questions. The same insert states that a civilian may be stopped if the inquiring officer has “a reasonable suspicion that the civilian is committing, has committed or is about to commit a felony or Penal Law misdemeanor.” A stop allows the officer to ask for the civilian’s name and address and an explanation of his conduct, and to detain the civilian as a means of conducting an investigation to determine if there is probable cause to arrest the subject. People v. Holland established that a person’s mere presence in a public housing building does not provide an objective, credible reason to approach, let alone to stop, an individual. 913 N.Y.S.2d 543 (S. Ct. NY Cty. 2010) [encl. 1B-1E]. In People v. Robbins, the court held that officers did not have a reasonable suspicion to pursue (and effectively stop) a defendant whom they witnessed grabbing at his waistband and fleeing from the back seat of a stopped livery cab. 638 N.E.2d 955 (1994) [encl. 1F-1G]. Furthermore, the court in People v. Miller held that “behavior which is susceptible of innocent as well as guilty interpretation cannot constitute probable cause and innocuous behavior alone will not generate a founded or reasonable suspicion that a crime is at hand.” The court found that a frisk had been wrongfully conducted; the frisk was predicated entirely on the observation of the defendant “removing his hand from inside the front waistband area of his pants” although the defendant “could have been doing anything, including tucking in his shirt.” 504 N.Y.S.2d 407 (1st Dept. 1986) [encl. 1K-1L]

§ 87(2)(g)

[REDACTED]

Allegation C – Force: PO Paul O’Connor used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) alleged that PO O’Connor punched him as he attempted to retrieve his phone from a ledge where the officer had placed it. PO O’Connor stated that he clenched his fist and held up his forearm as a means of forcibly detaining § 87(2)(b) when he attempted to walk away from the officers. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation D – Abuse of Authority: PO Paul O’Connor threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

§ 87(2)(b) alleged that PO O’Connor said, “I should punch you in your face.” PO O’Connor denied issuing such a threat to § 87(2)(b) and PO Hirsch denied hearing PO O’Connor make such a remark. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation E – Abuse of Authority: PO Paul O’Connor frisked § 87(2)(b)

Allegation F – Abuse of Authority: PO Forrest Hirsch frisked § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that PO O’Connor and PO Hirsch both frisked § 87(2)(b)

PO O’Connor stated that as he questioned § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) grabbed the front of his pants. PO O’Connor did not recall seeing any bulge in the area that § 87(2)(b) grabbed. § 87(2)(b)s gesture toward his waistband was the only reason given by PO O’Connor for conducting the frisk. In the Stop, Question, and Frisk Report that he prepared following the incident, PO O’Connor also listed a “verbal threat of violence” issued by § 87(2)(b) as a reason for frisking him. In his CCRB interview, PO O’Connor explained that he interpreted “Get the fuck away from me” and other, similar, “belligerent” statements made by § 87(2)(b) as threats of violence.

PO Hirsch also described frisking § 87(2)(b) based on a movement he had made toward his waistband. While PO Hirsch was in his vehicle, he observed § 87(2)(b) turning away from the officers and simultaneously reaching toward his waistband. The officers approached § 87(2)(b) inside of the building and saw that § 87(2)(b) was speaking on his cell phone. PO Hirsch frisked § 87(2)(b) after he refused to provide his identification based on the hand gesture he had seen him make earlier.

According to Criminal Procedure Law, Section 140.50, if an officer possesses reasonable suspicion both that a person has committed a crime and that he is in danger of physical injury, “he may search such person for a deadly weapon or any instrument, article or substance readily capable of causing serious physical injury...” [encl. 1L]. However, as noted above, an innocuous gesture such as adjusting a waistband or standing alone cannot constitute reasonable suspicion.

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED].

Allegation G – Abuse of Authority: PO Forrest Hirsch searched § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) alleged that PO Hirsch searched the bottom half of his body, entering all of the pockets of § 87(2)(b)'s jacket, sweatshirt, and pants. PO Hirsch denied searching § 87(2)(b) and PO O'Connor denied observing his partner perform such a search. § 87(2)(g)
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Allegation H – Discourtesy: PO Paul O'Connor spoke and acted rudely toward § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)
§ 87(2)(b) alleged that before PO O'Connor exited the building, he said, "someone should fucking shoot you" and then threw § 87(2)(b)'s identification to the ground rather than handing it to him. PO O'Connor denied making the remark. Additionally, PO O'Connor confirmed that he returned § 87(2)(b)'s identification, but denied throwing it. § 87(2)(g)
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Team: _____

:

Investigator: _____
Signature Print Date

Supervisor: _____
Title/Signature Print Date

Reviewer: _____
Title/Signature Print Date

Reviewer: _____
Title/Signature Print Date