VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff ADRIAN NAPIER, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On July 19, 2021, at approximately 8:00 p.m., Plaintiff Andrien Napier, while lawfully in the vicinity of Ocean Avenue and Church Street, County of Kings, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, assault, battery and excessive use of force by defendant Police Officers. In doing so, defendant Police Officers injured Plaintiff's forehead and back of head, causing serious physical injury necessitating hospital treatment. Plaintiff was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Adrian Napier is a resident of the state of New York.

2. NYPD Police Officer Robert Eysel, Shield No. 3057 is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.
3. NYPD Police Officer Robert Eysel, Shield No. 3057 is being sued in their individual and official capacity.
4. Currently and at all times relevant herein, NYPD Police Officer Robert Eysel, Shield No. 3057 was assigned to the 1st Police Precinct of the NYPD.
5. NYPD Police Officer Samuel Castro, Shield No. 2294 is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.
6. NYPD Police Officer Samuel Castro, Shield No. 2294 is being sued in their individual and official capacity.
7. Currently and at all times relevant herein, NYPD Police Officer Samuel Castro, Shield No. 2294 was assigned to the 1st Police Precinct of the NYPD.
8. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
9. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
10. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
11. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
12. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
13. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on April 22, 2022.

14. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.
15. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.
16. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

17. On July 19, 2021, at approximately 8:00 p.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of Ocean Avenue and Church Street, County of Kings, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested and assaulted Plaintiff without legal justification.
18. Plaintiff was walking from his friend's home located at 141 East 21st Street, Brooklyn to his grandmother's home located at 1911 Albemarle Road, Brooklyn.
19. While in transit, Defendant Officer bumped into Plaintiff.
20. Plaintiff stated "hey sir, you just bumped into me" and kept walking.
21. Defendant Police stopped Plaintiff and asked for identification.
22. Plaintiff explained he was not in possession of his identification but would provide Defendant Officer with his name.
23. Plaintiff, without warning or reason, was suddenly grabbed by Defendant Officer.
24. Defendant Officer dragged Plaintiff over to a black gate and searched Plaintiff and his bag.
25. Another Defendant Officer grabbed Plaintiff's wrist and called for backup.
26. Despite Plaintiff's pleas for information, none of his assailants told him that he was being arrested, what he was being arrested for, or where he was being taken.
27. In response to Plaintiff's plea, Plaintiff was surrounded by multiple Defendant Officers who proceeded to punch, kick, and spit on him.
28. Defendant Officers continued to beat Plaintiff after he was handcuffed.
29. Plaintiff was dragged and roughly thrown into the back of a vehicle.
30. Defendant Officers from the 1st Precinct arrived on scene and took custody of Plaintiff.

31. While in transit, Plaintiff was taken to a hospital after blacking out in the back of the police vehicle.
32. Plaintiff received four sutures over his right eyebrow, three staples to the lower back of his head, and treatment for lacerations on his left knee, left elbow, left upper inner arm, left upper outer aspect arm, and right trunk.
33. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the New York County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.
34. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the New York County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff committed a Robbery.
35. The information for this belief comes from Defendant Police Officer Samuel Castro, who falsely stated that he saw Plaintiff in video surveillance committing a Robbery.
36. Plaintiff was not put in a lineup, nor did he give a confession.
37. Plaintiff appeared before the Judge, and based on the Officers false allegations, bail was set.
38. Plaintiff remained at Rikers Island unable to post bail for fourteen days.
39. While at Rikers, Plaintiff begged for medication to manage the pain and intense migranes caused by his injuries. No medical treatment was given.
40. After fourteen days in unlawful custody, and further investigation by the New York County District Attorneys Office, on August 2, 2021, they agreed to release Plaintiff with no bail.
41. As a result of his arrest, Plaintiff lost his public housing.
42. As a result of this arrest, the injury caused therein, and the collateral consequences, Plaintiff became depressed and attempted to commit suicide after his release from Rikers.
43. Plaintiff voluntarily checked himself into in-patient psychiatric care at Woodhull Medical Center.
44. Plaintiff's criminal case was dismissed and sealed on November 30, 2021.
45. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
46. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

47. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.
48. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
49. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

50. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
51. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
52. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
53. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
54. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
55. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

56. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
57. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

58. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

59. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

60. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

61. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

62. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

63. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

64. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

65. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

66. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, roughly handcuffing, punching, kicking, and spitting on Plaintiff constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

67. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

68. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

69. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.

70. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

71. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

72. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

73. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

74. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

75. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner roughly handcuffed, punched, kicked, spitted on Plaintiff, and brutally effecting an arrest without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.

76. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

77. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
78. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
79. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

80. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
81. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
82. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
83. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
84. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
85. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
86. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

87. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

88. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

89. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

90. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

91. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

92. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

93. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's suffered serious and debilitating injury, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, his injuries worsened, he did not receive necessary medical treatment, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

94. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

95. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

96. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

97. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights:

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

98. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

99. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's Office.
100. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's Office.
101. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's Office.
102. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
103. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
104. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
105. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
106. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional and psychological injuries.
