Case Summary

On December 28, 2014 at approximately 11:30 pm, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) his friend § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and his brother § 87(2)(b) were on the Staten Island Ferry, which had just docked at the Staten Island Terminal, when § 87(2)(b) saw a red dot moving around on his friends' backs. § 87(2)(b) had allegedly been making a disturbance on the ferry. § 87(2)(b) and his friends turned around and saw PO Shane Mathai pointing a taser at them (Allegation A). PO Mathai holstered the taser and told § 87(2)(b) and his friends to leave the ferry. They refused multiple requests to leave so PO Mathai pushed § 87(2)(b) to make him leave the ferry boat (Allegation B). PO Mathai and his partner, PO Robert Kilduff, allegedly told § 87(2)(b) and his friends to "get the fuck out of the ferry terminal" and to "go the fuck home" (Allegation C and Allegation D). § 87(2)(b) allegedly told PO Mathai that he wanted to speak with a sergeant and report PO Mathai for pointing a taser, but was ultimately unable to file a complaint (Allegation E). PO Kilduff was also present at the police room and said "what does this fat asshole want?" to § 87(2)(b) when he said that he wanted to speak to a supervisor (also Allegation D). PO Kilduff then said "fuck you, you fat motherfucker" and "if I caught you on the street, I'd beat the shit out of you" (also Allegation D and Allegation F).

PO Mathai eventually issued a summons to § 87(2)(b) for § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were instructed to leave the terminal. The § 87(2)(b) brothers left without incident while § 87(2)(b) refused. Department of Transportation workers and additional police officers responded. One of those officers, PO Peter Furtaw, pushed § 87(2)(b) and grabbed him by the back of the collar (Allegation G). Every officer allegedly said "I'm gonna beat the shit out of you" to § 87(2)(b) (Allegation H). PO Furtaw allegedly slammed § 87(2)(b) to the ground by sweeping out his leg (Allegation I) and handcuffed him.

An officer approached § 87(2)(b) and allegedly pushed him into a railing while he was waiting for the officers to release or detain § 87(2)(b) (Allegation J). An officer also allegedly grabbed him by the hoodie and told him "get the fuck out of here or you'll end up in cuffs too" (Allegation K and Allegation L).

After extensive efforts to eject § 87(2)(b) from the terminal, officers handcuffed him and called an ambulance to transport him to the hospital § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) walked out on their own and were not issued summonses.

There is surveillance video footage of the incident captured by cameras inside the Staten Island Ferry Terminal, but not on the ferry itself. The four full videos are embedded below (Board Reviews 18, 19, 20, and 21):

Finding and Recommendations

Explanation of Subject Officer Identification

[§ 87(2)(b)] identified the officer who pointed the taser at him and pushed him as the same officer who gave him the summons. PO Mathai's name was on the summons and he acknowledged pointing a taser at [§ 87(2)(b)] [§ 87(2)(g)] [redacted].

[§ 87(2)(b)] stated that the two officers on the ferry said "get the fuck out of the ferry terminal" and to "go the fuck home" to him and his friends. [§ 87(2)(g)] [redacted].

[§ 87(2)(b)] alleged that he told PO Mathai that he wanted to report him for pointing a taser, [§ 87(2)(g)] [redacted].

[§ 87(2)(b)] said that the officer on the ferry who did not give him the summons said "what does this fat asshole want?" "fuck you, you fat motherfucker" and "if I caught you on the street, I'd beat the shit out of you." [§ 87(2)(g)] [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted].

[§ 87(2)(b)] stated that the subject of Allegation G was a 5'9" 210 pound white male about 40 years old who had brown hair, was wearing a uniform, and was not on the ferry. [§ 87(2)(g)] [redacted]
[redacted].

[§ 87(2)(b)] stated that he went down a stairway and heard every officer present say "I'm gonna beat the shit out of you" to [§ 87(2)(b)] [§ 87(2)(g)] [redacted].

[§ 87(2)(b)] stated that the subject officer of Allegation G pushed him, [§ 87(2)(g)] [redacted]
[redacted].

§ 87(2)(b) stated that a 5'11" 180 pound white male officer pushed him into a railing, cursed at him, and threatened to arrest him § 87(2)(g)

Recommendations

Allegations Not Pleaded

- § 87(2)(g)

201500031Video #4.mp4

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) was the only complainant to allege that § 87(2)(b) was hit with a nightstick or baton before being handcuffed and he was unsure about his own allegation (Board Review 07).

§ 87(2)(b) did not allege this on his own behalf and there was no video evidence that any officer hit § 87(2)(b) with a nightstick or baton. § 87(2)(a) PHL § 18(6)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation A – PO Shane Mathai threatened § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

This allegation was not captured on video. § 87(2)(b) stated that he was on his way towards the exit of the Staten Island Ferry boat when he saw the red laser dot of a taser's sight on his friends' backs. He turned to look and saw PO Mathai jump behind a wall (Board Review 05).

§ 87(2)(b) stated that as they were leaving the boat, he saw a red light on the back of § 87(2)(b)'s head and saw PO Mathai trying to put a yellow taser back into its holster when § 87(2)(b) turned around (Board Review 06). § 87(2)(b) stated that they were exiting the boat and talking about the Eric Garner incident when he saw PO Mathai with a taser pointed at him and his friends (Board Review 07). § 87(2)(a) PHL § 18(6)

PO Mathai stated that he was carrying a taser which was issued to him by Sgt. Arabella (Board Review 08). According to PO Mathai, he had been riding on the ferry and watching § 87(2)(b) and his friends because he was familiar with their past behavior on the boat. § 87(2)(b) yelled "fuck you" at a Department of Transportation worker, who told everyone on the boat to leave, and banged on the boat's walls. PO Mathai admitted that he pointed the taser at § 87(2)(b) but said that he subsequently holstered it after having second thoughts. He did not give any instructions when he pointed the taser. PO Mathai stated that he pulled out the taser because of § 87(2)(b)'s behavior although no civilian expressed annoyance about it. PO Mathai told § 87(2)(b) to leave the ferry over 10 times but he refused. PO Kilduff, the only other officer on the ferry also observed § 87(2)(b) banging on walls and chairs while cursing loudly and added that some of the passengers complained to the officers about the males being loud (Board Review 09).

According to Patrol Guide Section 212-117, a taser “should only be used against persons who are actively physically resisting, exhibiting active physical aggression or to prevent individuals from physically injuring themselves or other person(s) actually present” (Board Review 10). § 87(2)(g)

Allegation B – PO Shane Mathai used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

This allegation was not captured on video. § 87(2)(b) stated that after PO Mathai pointed a taser at him, PO Mathai told him and his friends to leave and pushed him on the back to make him leave the ferry. § 87(2)(b) stated that he did not push back and that he was not pushed to the point of injury (Board Review 05). § 87(2)(b) stated that after PO Mathai pointed the taser at them, he told § 87(2)(b) to keep walking. § 87(2)(b) did not mention anything about PO Mathai pushing § 87(2)(b) on the boat. § 87(2)(b) stated that after PO Mathai pointed his taser at them, he pushed § 87(2)(b) through the door to the terminal.

PO Mathai and PO Kilduff both said that they told § 87(2)(b) to leave the ferry and that he refused so they grabbed § 87(2)(b) by each arm and escorted him out through the exit doors. PO Mathai denied pushing § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g) it is undisputed that the force was applied in order to guide § 87(2)(b) towards the exit. It is also undisputed that this force did not cause injury to § 87(2)(b). Video from inside the terminal from a later portion of the incident (see Allegation F) shows that § 87(2)(b) dug his feet in and pushed backward against the officers when they tried to escort him out of the terminal. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b)
§ 87(2)(b)
Therefore, it is recommended that Allegation B be closed as exonerated.

Allegation C – PO Mathai spoke rudely to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)

Allegation D – PO Kilduff spoke rudely to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)

Allegation F – PO Kilduff threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

As the video surveillance was not equipped with audio, these allegations were not captured on the video. § 87(2)(b) alleged that after PO Mathai pointed a taser at him, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) PO Mathai and PO Kilduff said “get the fuck out of the ferry terminal” and to “go the fuck home” to them. § 87(2)(b) alleged that when they went to the police room to make a complaint, PO Kilduff said “what does this fat asshole want?” to § 87(2)(b) when he said that he wanted to speak to a supervisor. § 87(2)(b) also said that PO Kilduff and § 87(2)(b) pushed each other and PO Kilduff said “fuck you, you fat motherfucker” and “if I caught you on the street I’d beat the shit out of you.” Although § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) alleged that the officers used discourteous language, they did not allege any of the same statements. Furthermore, § 87(2)(b) did not allege that any of these discourtesies were said to him.

PO Mathai denied the alleged statements and said that no profanity was used. He also denied that any officer made any statement about beating up § 87(2)(b). PO Kilduff did not recall any profanity being used or that any officer said “get the fuck out of the terminal,” “go the fuck home,” or “if I caught you on the street, I’d beat the shit out of you.”

§ 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegations C, D, and F be closed as unfounded.

Allegation E – PO Shane Mathai did not process § 87(2)(b) s complaint regarding an officer.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that PO Mathai pointed a taser at him, told him to disembark, and then pushed him off of the ferry. § 87(2)(b) stated that he told PO Mathai that he was going to make a police report. § 87(2)(b) then approached the police room and told PO Mathai that he wanted to speak with sergeant and report PO Mathai for pointing the taser. PO Mathai entered the police room and returned saying that the sergeant did not want to speak with § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) did not speak with Sgt. Arabella.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that while they were going to speak to the desk sergeant to make a complaint, § 87(2)(b) simply stated that he wanted to speak with a supervisor when PO Kilduff asked what he wanted. He confirmed that they were not allowed to speak with a sergeant. § 87(2)(b) did not allege that § 87(2)(b) tried to speak with a sergeant or file a complaint.

PO Mathai and PO Kilduff consistently testified that § 87(2)(b) spoke with Sgt. Arabella and complained about being kicked off of the ferry boat. Sgt. Arabella explained that once the ferry docks, everyone has to disembark and leave. Sgt. Arabella had no further conversation with § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) was then issued a summons for § 87(2)(b) and instructed to leave the terminal.

DOT employee, § 87(2)(b) testified that a sergeant personally issued § 87(2)(b) a desk appearance ticket.

Sgt. Arabella did not recall any part of the incident and did not have any related entry in his memo book about the incident. Additionally, there is no video inside the police room or showing the door to verify whether § 87(2)(b) spoke with Sgt. Arabella.

§ 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegation E be closed as unsubstantiated.

Allegation G – PO Peter Furtaw used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated that after he was given a summons by PO Mathai, additional police officers, including PO Furtaw, and Department of Transportation workers responded. § 87(2)(b) alleged that PO Furtaw then pushed § 87(2)(b) and grabbed § 87(2)(b) by the collar, pulling him towards an elevator. § 87(2)(b) stated that it was actually PO Kilduff who grabbed § 87(2)(b) by the collar and pushed him while § 87(2)(b) was unsure which officer pushed him and grabbed him by the collar.

§ 87(2)(b) a Department of Transportation worker, said that § 87(2)(b) was issued a summons and that he threw it on the ground. § 87(2)(b) believed that § 87(2)(b) was not acting normal and that he was trying to provoke a reaction from the officers. A crowd of ten to thirty people began to gather and three more officers arrived and asked § 87(2)(b) to leave. § 87(2)(b) refused and was escorted away. He referenced the Eric Garner incident by saying that he could not breathe even though, when he made the reference, no one was touching him. § 87(2)(b) a Department of Transportation inspector, said that § 87(2)(b) was issued a summons and told to leave. He refused to leave and the officers escorted him out physically. Each of three officers, according to § 87(2)(b) grabbed § 87(2)(b) by the shoulders and pushed him backwards. The officers did not push him hard and § 87(2)(b) did not believe that the force used was excessive.

PO Mathai stated that two officers had their hands on § 87(2)(b) arms to lead him out but did not recall who those officers were. He denied that any officer put his hands on § 87(2)(b) collar. PO Malandrucolo stated that he came upon § 87(2)(b) after he had been issued a summons. He said that § 87(2)(b) was screaming and that he asked § 87(2)(b) to leave. § 87(2)(b) refused and said he wished that the officers were dead. The officers escorted § 87(2)(b) out by walking behind him. He did not recall any officer becoming physically involved with § 87(2)(b). PO Kilduff stated that after § 87(2)(b) was given the § 87(2)(b) summons, Sgt. Arabella told § 87(2)(b) that he had to leave. § 87(2)(b) and his friends cursed expressing discontentment with the sergeant's decision. Two Department of Transportation workers then arrived and told § 87(2)(b) that he had to leave. § 87(2)(b) again refused and PO Kilduff and another officer who PO Kilduff did not recall grabbed § 87(2)(b) by the upper arms and escorted him out. According to PO Furtaw, an officer informed him that § 87(2)(b) was issued a summons and that he refused to leave. PO Furtaw then asked § 87(2)(b) to leave but he refused. PO Furtaw escorted § 87(2)(b) out physically with other officers by pushed § 87(2)(b) forward on his back and arms. § 87(2)(b) resisted by flailing his arms and acting as deadweight.

Video #2 (Board Review 19) shows PO Furtaw and PO Kilduff grabbing § 87(2)(b) by the arms and the back of his shirt and escorting him down a corridor. He resists intermittently by planting his feet firmly on the ground, leaning back into the officers, and by standing still as the officers try to move him toward the door.

Allegation H – Officers threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

This allegation was not captured on video. According to § 87(2)(b) after § 87(2)(b) was issued a § 87(2)(b) summons and pushed down a corridor, every officer said “I’m going to beat the shit out of you” to § 87(2)(b). No other civilian present alleged that an officer said this statement (Board Review 06).

§ 87(2)(b) a DOT inspector who was present at the terminal, stated that no officer threatened to “beat the shit out of” § 87(2)(b) or used any other profanity in dealing with him (Board Review 12).

PO Mathai denied that he or any other officer used any profanity or threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force (Board Review 08). PO Malandrucolo, PO Kilduff, and PO Furtaw did not recall whether any officer used profanity or threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force (Board Review 09, 13, 14).

§ 87(2)(g)

it is recommended that Allegation H be closed as unfounded.

Allegation I – PO Peter Furtaw used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated that after being physically led away by officers and without precipitation, PO Furtaw grabbed § 87(2)(b) by the back of the collar. PO Furtaw put a handcuff on one of § 87(2)(b)'s wrists and slammed him to the ground by sweeping out his leg. PO Furtaw and other officers who assisted him twisted § 87(2)(b)'s arm behind his back and the other handcuff was placed on him (Board Review 05). § 87(2)(b) went down a flight of stairs when § 87(2)(b) had this interaction with the officers and did not see some of what was going on although he stated that he did see an officer with his knee on § 87(2)(b)'s neck (Board Review 06). § 87(2)(b) stated that an officer grabbed § 87(2)(b) by the collar of his jacket and threw him against a wall. § 87(2)(b) stated that the officer knocked him to the ground, threw him forward and pushed him (Board Review 07).

According to § 87(2)(b) a DOT worker who was present for the incident, § 87(2)(b) was “not acting normal” and refused to leave despite officers’ orders. As § 87(2)(b) was escorted out, he flailed his arms around and the officers tried to grab his wrists to get him into handcuffs. No one punched or pushed § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) was irate throughout the incident and was eventually restrained (Board Review 15). § 87(2)(b) similarly said that § 87(2)(b) flailed his arms when the officers tried to handcuff him. § 87(2)(b) was taken to the ground by the officers and handcuffed in a few minutes. § 87(2)(b) did not see which officer handcuffed § 87(2)(b) or who handcuffed him but he could see that no officer punched, kicked, or slammed § 87(2)(b) into a wall (Board Review 12).

PO Mathai stated that § 87(2)(b) threw himself against a wall as they approached passenger pickup and refused to leave the terminal. While he was against the wall, § 87(2)(b) was held there with his stomach against it. Each officer had his hands on § 87(2)(b)'s back while he was against the wall. The officers tried to handcuff him but he refused to give his hands. The officers then tried to move § 87(2)(b) sideways but he landed on the ground on his shoulder. § 87(2)(b) rolled over on his stomach and pulled his hands under him. The officers tried to get § 87(2)(b)'s hands out from under him. No officer pushed him or struck him (Board Review 08).

PO Malandrucolo stated that as they approached the elevator, § 87(2)(b) put his back up against a wall. PO Malandrucolo did not recall whether § 87(2)(b) fell to the ground on his own but did recall that he was on the ground at one point and hid his hands under his stomach. PO Malandrucolo did not touch § 87(2)(b) and could not recall any officer pushing him (Board Review 14).

PO Kilduff said that § 87(2)(b) said “why don’t you throw me down the stairs” as they approached the elevator. § 87(2)(b) then went limp, fell to the ground, and laid on top of his arms to hide them from the officers. They rolled § 87(2)(b) onto one side and put one hand in a handcuff. § 87(2)(b) tried to stay on top of his other arm but he was rolled over and the officer managed to pry it out from under him. § 87(2)(b) was never pushed against a wall, struck, punched, or kicked by any officer (Board Review 09).

PO Furtaw stated that as § 87(2)(b) was escorted to the elevator he became more irate. Because of § 87(2)(b)'s demeanor, PO Furtaw decided to handcuff him. PO Furtaw took out his handcuffs but § 87(2)(b) pulled his hands away. § 87(2)(b) moved around and hid his hands from the officers. He was then taken to the ground and handcuffed. PO Furtaw did not recall if § 87(2)(b) went up against a wall but said definitively that no one punched or kicked him. PO Furtaw did not recall whether § 87(2)(b) was pushed into the ground or into a wall by any officer (Board Review 13).

Video #3 (Board Review 20) from the Staten Island Ferry Terminal depicts the officers physically escorting § 87(2)(b) out of the terminal and then by the door, some kind of struggle occurs between him and the officers and when the people clear § 87(2)(b) is sitting on the floor in handcuffs. However, because the camera is far away and several officers, DOT employees and civilians walk between § 87(2)(b) and the camera, it is unclear what precipitated the struggle or what specific actions the officers took in apprehending § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 04).

On April 7, 2015, § 87(2)(b) was interviewed by phone and on April 9, 2015, a verification form was mailed to him with instructions. The verification form was not returned so § 87(2)(b) was called again on May 11, 2015. § 87(2)(b) called back the same day and said that he did not return the verification form. I offered to send the field team to meet him but § 87(2)(b) said that his schedule was unpredictable. I told him that I would send another verification form and a verification form with instructions was mailed to him. Again, the verification form was not returned and on June 17, 2015, § 87(2)(b) was called. He said that he did not want to send in the verification form. § 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegations J, K, and L be closed as victim uncooperative.
