Case Summary

On May 8, 2024, § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB and filed this complaint.

On May 3, 2024, at 5:12 PM, § 87(2)(b) entered the 168th Street A/C/1 Subway Station in Manhattan. § 87(2)(b) entered through the turnstiles without paying his fare and was subsequently stopped by Police Officers Jeffrey Mota and Ariana Matos of Transit District 3. PO Mota drew his taser and pointed it at § 87(2)(b) (Allegation A: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated). PO Mota then threw § 87(2)(b) to the ground (Allegation B: Force, Substantiated). When § 87(2)(b) got back on his feet, PO Mota utilized a chokehold against him and pulled him back to the ground (Allegation C: Force, Substantiated). While on the ground, PO Mota said to § 87(2)(b) “Give me your fucking ID” (Allegation D: Discourtesy, Within NYPD Guidelines). Officers handcuffed § 87(2)(b) stood him up, and placed him against a wall. PO Mota then pushed § 87(2)(b) face into a metal gate, causing him to fall to the ground (Allegation E: Force, Substantiated). § 87(2)(b) was then escorted out of the subway station and ultimately arrested for fare evasion. § 87(2)(b) [§ 87(2)(b)] [§ 86(1)(3)&(4)&(1)&(6)]

On September 10, 2024, PO Mota provided a false official statement to the CCRB (Allegation F: Untruthful Statement, Substantiated).

Body Worn Camera (BWC) footage was obtained by the NYPD for PO Matos, PO Liam Miller, PO Mota, PO Ira Jones, PO Iesha Middleton, PO Md Haquealamin, PO Tomas Pacheco, PO Gary Sanchez, PO Marco Celemin, PO Lowell Tapia, PO Joseph Oshea, Lieutenant Fernando Santos, PO Julio Nunezcompres, PO Sheng Sun, PO Philip Robinson, PO Kelsey Garcia, PO Shredene Stewart, PO Christopher Santiago, Lieutenant Jenique Scottcooper, PO Damieon Frey, PO Esteban Castillo, Lieutenant James Fagan, PO Tekoa Moore, PO Amanda Lopez, PO Marcin Mosio, Lieutenant Vincent Caprino, PO Michael Quackenbush, PO Zendel Spivey, PO Alejandro Pontier, PO Jasmely Romero, PO Daniel Benavides, PO Damien Nieves, and Sergeant James Valentino. Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A – Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Jeffrey Mota threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

Allegation B – Force: Police Officer Jeffrey Mota used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation C – Force: Police Officer Jeffrey Mota used a chokehold against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation D – Discourtesy: Police Officer Jeffrey Mota spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation E – Force: Police Officer Jeffrey Mota used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) did not allege that PO Mota used profanity towards him, used a chokehold against him, or threw him to the ground a second time. These allegations were instead captured on BWC.

BWC from PO Matos shows, beginning at 00:00, she and PO Mota approach § 87(2)(b) who can be seen holding the emergency exit door open for several individuals who enter the station without paying. Although there is no audio until the 01:00-mark, § 87(2)(b) and PO Mota immediately begin arguing. At 01:00, PO Mota and PO Matos order § 87(2)(b) several times to produce his identification. § 87(2)(b) tells PO Mota to “back the fuck up” as they are standing approximately one foot from each other. § 87(2)(b) then asks PO Mota what he is going to do, then quickly takes off his backpack and jacket, seemingly preparing for a physical altercation. In response, PO Mota draws his taser and points it at § 87(2)(b). PO Mota lowers the taser and continues to order § 87(2)(b) to provide his ID, which he refuses to do. § 87(2)(b) instead turns away from PO Mota and tells the officers to "suck a dick." At 01:55, PO Mota, who is standing directly behind § 87(2)(b) puts his right arm over § 87(2)(b) and across his chest, then throws § 87(2)(b) to the ground. PO Matos tells PO Mota in Spanish to relax. Prior to the forcible takedown, neither PO Mota nor PO Matos order § 87(2)(b) to put his hands behind his back, nor do they attempt to handcuff him. PO Mota, PO Matos, and two additional officers attempt to gain control of § 87(2)(b) hands while he is laying on his side on the ground. While doing so, PO Mota continues to tell § 87(2)(b) to give him his ID. § 87(2)(b) appears to be pulling his hands away from the officers.

At 02:06, The officers lift § 87(2)(b) by his arms back to a standing position. As soon as § 87(2)(b) is back on his feet, PO Mota, who is standing behind § 87(2)(b) wraps his right forearm around § 87(2)(b) neck, pulling him backwards and taking him back to the ground. Officers repeatedly order § 87(2)(b) to give them his hands, though it is unclear what he is doing on the ground as the view is obstructed. At 02:55, § 87(2)(b) is ultimately handcuffed. A large crowd begins to form around the officers and several individuals attempt to get close but are ordered to back up by the officers. § 87(2)(b) tells officers to stand him up, continues cursing, and kicking his legs. The officers turn § 87(2)(b) onto his stomach and restrain his legs. At 06:55, PO Mota and other officers lift § 87(2)(b) to his feet, then hold him face first against a security gate. At 07:25, PO Matos repeatedly says "Mota" while § 87(2)(b) shouts out in pain before he can be seen falling to the ground. PO Matos appears to try to pull PO Mota away from § 87(2)(b) and tells him to slow down. PO Mota states, "I'm not going to let him spit on me." PO Matos asks PO Mota in Spanish if § 87(2)(b) spit at him and he replies, "nope," then states, "He was going to." At no point does § 87(2)(b) spit on PO Matos or PO Mota (BR 02).

BWC footage from PO Miller captures a separate angle of the events after officers lift § 87(2)(b) back to his feet. At 02:21, PO Miller, PO Mota, and additional officers hold § 87(2)(b) face first against a metal security gate. § 87(2)(b) states, "Pussy ass. I'll spit in your face." It is unclear who this threat is directed towards. § 87(2)(b) then turns to PO Mota and asks him to loosen the handcuffs because they are cutting off his circulation. PO Mota tells § 87(2)(b) to relax. § 87(2)(b) then states, "Shut the fuck up, nigga." PO Mota then puts his hand on the side of § 87(2)(b) face, pushes his head into the gate, and pushes § 87(2)(b) to the ground (BR 03).

§ 87(2)(b) was somewhat consistent with the BWC footage. On May 3, 2024, at approximately 5:12 PM, § 87(2)(b) and his brother, § 87(2)(b) entered the 168th Street A/C/1 Subway Station in Manhattan. § 87(2)(b) hopped the turnstile and then opened the emergency gate for his brother. PO Mota and PO Matos immediately approached § 87(2)(b) and PO Mota ordered him to provide his identification. § 87(2)(b) stated that he did not have his ID with him. PO Mota then asked for § 87(2)(b) name, which he also refused to provide. PO Mota ordered § 87(2)(b) to produce his ID or provide his name approximately 10 times, and each time, § 87(2)(b) refused. § 87(2)(b) told the officers that they were not going to get any information from him so they could "go ahead and take the next step." The officers did not ask § 87(2)(b) any other questions. During this time, § 87(2)(b) was "expressing" himself, which he described as being loud and shouting profane remarks at the officers. After § 87(2)(b) repeatedly refused to provide the officers with any information, PO Mota drew his taser and pointed it at § 87(2)(b) did not believe that officers gave him any commands prior to PO Mota drawing his taser. § 87(2)(b) denied that he verbally threatened the officers in any way. He denied making any movements with his body which could indicate he was a physical threat. PO Mota kept his taser pointed at § 87(2)(b) for approximately 10 seconds. He believed that PO Mota was speaking to him but did not know what he was saying as he was more focused on the taser.

After PO Mota holstered his taser, § 87(2)(b) allowed PO Mota to handcuff him. He denied resisting PO Mota in any way. PO Mota then ordered § 87(2)(b) to get on the ground and attempted to throw him on the ground. § 87(2)(b) did not know why PO Mota wanted him on the ground as he was already handcuffed. § 87(2)(b) did not let PO Mota take him to the ground. When asked what he was doing with his body, § 87(2)(b) stated that he was “just standing there” while PO Mota was attempting to get him on the ground. When PO Mota could not get § 87(2)(b) on the ground, PO Matos grabbed § 87(2)(b) and both officers tried to wrestle him to the ground but were unable to do so. Approximately 10 additional officers arrived on scene and ultimately brought § 87(2)(b) to the ground. § 87(2)(b) was unable to describe any of the additional officers who arrived on scene. During the physical altercation, officers had ordered § 87(2)(b) to stop resisting and to get to the ground. § 87(2)(b) stated that he was not resisting. Once on the ground, multiple officers attempted to hold § 87(2)(b) down while he attempted to stand back up. § 87(2)(b) was able to force his way back to his feet despite multiple officers trying to hold him down. Once on his feet, PO Mota shoved § 87(2)(b) against a wall, causing him to hit his forehead and fall to the ground. Officers then carried § 87(2)(b) out of the subway station. § 87(2)(b) maintained that he did not resist officers throughout the incident and denied making any threats either verbally or physically (BR 06).

PO Mota’s statement was generally inconsistent with the BWC footage. At the time of the incident, PO Matos and PO Mota were assigned to patrol the A-Train line for Transit District 3. While at the 168th Street subway station, the officers observed § 87(2)(b) hop the turnstile, then open the emergency door for two other individuals. PO Mota and PO Matos decided to stop § 87(2)(b) to issue him a summons for fare evasion. When the officers approached § 87(2)(b) he became upset. § 87(2)(b) repeatedly refused the officers’ orders to provide his ID, became aggressive, irate, and made a “fighting motion.” Specifically, § 87(2)(b) took off his backpack and sweater in a manner which indicated he was preparing to fight. In response, PO Mota unholstered his taser and pointed it at § 87(2)(b). PO Mota also noted that the officers were outnumbered as well. Based on § 87(2)(b) behavior, PO Mota believed that he could have been under the influence of alcohol or narcotics. He did not smell the odor of alcohol on § 87(2)(b).

While PO Mota’s taser was pointed at § 87(2)(b) he remained noncompliant, refusing to provide his ID after numerous commands, and continued behaving in an aggressive manner. Specifically, § 87(2)(b) flailed his arm, which made contact with PO Matos. PO Mota believed § 87(2)(b) made contact with PO Matos’s forearm near her vest when he extended one of his arms. At that point, § 87(2)(b) was under arrest. PO Mota holstered his taser, approached § 87(2)(b) from the side or from behind, grabbed him, and forcibly took him to the ground. PO Mota did not know why he decided to take § 87(2)(b) to the ground instead of using his taser. PO Mota believed this was the only reasonable action to take in order to gain his compliance. PO Mota did not give him any commands to provide his hands prior to taking him to the ground. Once on the ground, § 87(2)(b) was kicking, spitting, and refusing to give officers his hands. PO Mota stated the officers used “the minimal amount of force” to detain him.

After the first takedown, § 87(2)(b) got up on his own. PO Mota used an additional one or two takedowns on § 87(2)(b) to get him on the ground. PO Mota denied making any contact with § 87(2)(b) neck while performing a takedown and said that he contacted § 87(2)(b) “upper body part,” specifically § 87(2)(b) shoulders and chest. PO Mota was shown the segment of PO Matos’ BWC footage which captured this contact. PO Mota again denied using a chokehold and stated that a chokehold would involve “me stopping § 87(2)(b) breathing.” He also denied contacting § 87(2)(b) neck. Once § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed, he kicked PO Mota in the leg and spit on him. § 87(2)(b) was spitting on officers throughout the incident. PO Mota believed he was spitting to get officers to move away from him. He could not recall the names of any officers who § 87(2)(b) spit on. PO Mota clarified that he felt § 87(2)(b) spit hit his uniform and his hat. He later stated that he was unsure if § 87(2)(b) spit on him while on the ground or if this occurred later in the incident. PO Mota stated that he may have used profanity towards § 87(2)(b) during the incident but that any of these remarks were made “in the heat of the moment.”

PO Mota was played the segment of PO Matos’ BWC footage which captures PO Matos asking him whether § 87(2)(b) spit on him, and PO Mota responding, “No. He was going to do it.” PO Mota stated that § 87(2)(b) did spit on him, though he did not know if that was the moment in which it occurred. PO Mota reviewed the footage two additional times and said he made a statement in Spanish, which he could not clearly hear, and said that while he said “no” to her question about § 87(2)(b) spitting on him, he might have said something else. PO Mota further stated that § 87(2)(b) was placed against the wall face first because he was spitting and because they did not have a face shield. The only way to prevent him from spitting was to place him face first against the wall. PO Mota was asked whether he pushed § 87(2)(b) face against a gate; he denied doing so, saying that the officers were “containing” § 87(2)(b) and that he was moving, and that § 87(2)(b) may have unintentionally moved his head into the wall. PO Mota denied taking any action to push § 87(2)(b) face against a wall. He clarified that he was just restraining and trying to contain § 87(2)(b). He later stated that he may have tried to lead § 87(2)(b) to the ground “in a way,” and that he was just trying to get control of the situation (BR 07).

PO Matos’ statement was somewhat inconsistent with the BWC footage. PO Matos stated she made the decision to stop § 87(2)(b) as she had observed him hop the turnstile. PO Matos and PO Mota asked § 87(2)(b) for his ID, however he refused to provide it. The officers asked numerous times for his ID, however, each time he refused to provide it, and cursed at the officers. She did not recall what he said or yelled specifically. While asking for his ID, § 87(2)(b) took off his sweatshirt and backpack. This indicated to PO Matos that § 87(2)(b) was ready “to do something belligerent.” In response to this, PO Mota took out his taser and pointed it at § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) continued to cause a scene by cursing at the officers and refusing to provide his ID. PO Mota took § 87(2)(b) to the ground from behind. PO Mota did not indicate to PO Matos that he was going to take § 87(2)(b) down to the ground. PO Matos did not recall if she or any other officer told § 87(2)(b) to put his arms behind his back, nor did she recall if she or any other officer told § 87(2)(b) that he was under arrest before PO Mota took him down to the ground. Aside from requesting § 87(2)(b) ID, the officers did not give him any other commands.

After PO Mota brought § 87(2)(b) to the ground, § 87(2)(b) resisted being handcuffed by pulling his arms away from officers. § 87(2)(b) was laying on his side, yelling, cursing, kicking and spitting at the officers. § 87(2)(b) was also threatening officers, though PO Matos did not recall what he said. PO Matos later stated that she did not recall exactly at what point § 87(2)(b) was spitting, whether it was before § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed or after, nor did she recall whether he spat at PO Mota. § 87(2)(b) did not spit at PO Matos. Multiple additional officers arrived and assisted in handcuffing § 87(2)(b). During this process, § 87(2)(b) stepped on PO Matos. PO Matos did not recall whether § 87(2)(b) was able to get back onto his feet prior to being handcuffed, nor did she recall whether PO Mota took § 87(2)(b) to the ground again. She did not see PO Mota utilize a chokehold at any point. When asked whether she saw PO Mota’s arm around § 87(2)(b) neck at any point, she said that PO Mota took § 87(2)(b) down from behind at which point § 87(2)(b) moved his body around a lot. When asked if she saw PO Mota push § 87(2)(b) head against a gate, she said that after § 87(2)(b) had been stood up, PO Mota “moved § 87(2)(b) head to the left” because § 87(2)(b) was spitting. She did not recall seeing § 87(2)(b) spitting, though PO Mota told her § 87(2)(b) was spitting. She did not recall whether PO Mota said if § 87(2)(b) spit on him. PO Matos, who was shown her BWC footage before the interview, reviewed the footage again. She acknowledged asking PO Mota whether § 87(2)(b) spit on him and that he responded “No.” PO Matos stated that she and PO Mota both realized after the incident that § 87(2)(b) was on their hats. PO Matos stated again that she did not see § 87(2)(b) spit at any officer during the incident (BR 08).

The Threat Resistance and Injury report prepared by Captain Robert Rios of Transit District 3 states, “At TPO subject was observed entering through an exit gate of the transit system at 168th Street/St. Nicholas Avenue without lawful payment of fare. Subject was then asked to produce identification. Subject was uncompliant and then started taking his belongings off and started clenching his fists in an aggressive manner toward the officers. Additional officers were then requested to location. Officer then used a tactical takedown technique to guide subject to the floor. Additional officers arrived and subject was taken into custody without further incident. Subject did appear to be intoxicated.” A note at the bottom of the narrative reads, “Upon viewing BWC footage, the officer was observed using a possible choke hold and therefore I recommend IAB conducts a further investigation” (BR 09).

Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01 states that officers may use force when it is reasonable to ensure the safety of a member of service or a third person, or otherwise protect life or when it is reasonable to place a person in custody or prevent their escape from custody. In all situations, the application of force must be reasonable under the circumstances. Officers are categorically prohibited from using chokeholds, which are defined as “any pressure to the throat or windpipe, which may prevent or hinder breathing or reduce intake of air” (BR 10).

Patrol Guide Procedure 221-08 states that Conducted Energy Weapons should only be used against those who are actively resisting, exhibiting active aggression, or to prevent individuals from physically injuring themselves or others. Active resistance is defined as physically evasive movements to defeat a member of service’s attempt to control, including bracing, tensing, pushing, or verbally signaling an intent to avoid being taken into custody (BR 11).

An officer’s use of an impolite word during a stressful street encounter where that officer is attempting to gain control of the situation does not constitute misconduct (DAO-DCT Case #201818951) (BR 12).

BWC footage shows that PO Matos and PO Mota stop § 87(2)(b) for fare evasion, and that he § 87(2)(g) refuses to comply with repeated orders from the officers to produce his identification. § 87(2)(b) then quickly takes off his backpack and sweater § 87(2)(g) PO Mota § 87(2)(g) puffing out his chest and pushing it against § 87(2)(b) and his decision to point his taser at § 87(2)(b) so quickly after stopping him, § 87(2)(g) It is therefore recommended that Allegation A be closed as Substantiated.

BWC footage shows that shortly after pointing his taser at § 87(2)(b) PO Mota holsters it, grabs § 87(2)(b) from behind and throws him to the ground § 87(2)(g) Prior to this point, neither PO Mota nor PO Matos tell § 87(2)(b) that he is under arrest, nor do they give him any orders to put his hands behind his back. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) It is therefore recommended that Allegation B be closed as Substantiated.

BWC footage shows that once § 87(2)(b) is on the ground, he resists officers by attempting to pull away from them and not complying with orders to put his hands behind his back. The footage shows that once § 87(2)(b) is back on his feet, PO Mota wraps his forearm around § 87(2)(b) neck and pulls him backwards to the ground. § 87(2)(g)

the footage shows that PO Mota does make contact with and apply pressure to § 87(2)(b) neck in order to bring him to the ground. § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation C be closed as Substantiated.

BWC footage shows that once § 87(2)(b) is on the ground again, he continues resisting officers by trying to pull away from them. While trying to restrain § 87(2)(b) PO Mota states, “Give me your fucking ID.” § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation D be closed as Within NYPD Guidelines.

BWC footage shows that after officers handcuff § 87(2)(b) they lift him to his feet and hold him face first against a security gate. During this time, § 87(2)(b) threatens to spit on PO Mota, though it does not appear that he does so. In response § 87(2)(b) threat, PO Mota pushes § 87(2)(b) head into the security gate and pushes him to the ground. § 87(2)(g)

Furthermore, the footage shows that after PO Mota pushes § 87(2)(b) to the ground, PO Mota tells PO Matos, “I’m not going to let him spit on me.” PO Matos then asks if § 87(2)(b) spit on PO Mota, to which he responds that he did not, but he was going to.

§ 87(2)(g) It is therefore recommended that Allegation E be closed as Substantiated.

Allegation F – Untruthful Statement: On September 10, 2024, at 100 Church Street in Manhattan, Police Officer Jeffrey Mota provided a false official statement to the CCRB.

PO Mota was shown BWC footage of the incident prior to the interview. Beginning at 20:00 of his CCRB interview, PO Mota denied making any contact with § 87(2)(b) neck or using a chokehold against him. PO Mota was shown BWC footage again during the interview. At approximately 26:00 of his CCRB interview, he again denied making any contact with § 87(2)(b) neck or using a chokehold against him, instead stating that he contacted § 87(2)(b) upper body, specifically his chest and shoulders.

Patrol Guide Procedure 203-08 defines a material fact as “a significant fact that a reasonable person would recognize as relevant to, or affecting, the subject matter of the issue at hand, including any foreseeable consequences, or establishment of the elements of some proscribed conduct. It is a fact that is essential to the determination of the issue and the suppression, omission, or alteration of such fact would reasonably result in a different decision or outcome. A material fact may be distinguished from an insignificant, trivial, or unimportant detail. A false official statement is defined as “an intentional statement that a member of service knows to be untrue, which is material to the outcome of an investigation, proceeding, or other matter in connection with which the statement is made”

§ 87(2)(g)

Despite twice reviewing BWC footage of himself wrapping his forearm around § 87(2)(b) neck, PO Mota repeatedly denied making any contact with § 87(2)(b) neck, instead stating that he made contact with his chest and shoulders.

§ 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation F be closed as Substantiated.
