Case Summary

On May 10, 2014 at 6:10 a.m., multiple officers assigned to Narcotics Borough Brooklyn South entered and searched § 87(2)(b)'s three-story home, located at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn, pursuant to a valid search warrant (Allegation A). While lying in bed, § 87(2)(b) was awoken to Det. Edward McBride of Narcotics Borough Brooklyn South placing his forearm into his neck and windpipe, restricting his breathing (Allegations B and C). Det. McBride then threw § 87(2)(b) to the floor, placed his knee into his back and punched him in his right eye once (Allegation D). Next, an officer, who remains unidentified, removed his helmet and hit § 87(2)(b) in his right eye (Allegation E), which caused a laceration under his right eyebrow.

Subsequently, § 87(2)(b) attempted to flee the residence through a rear door, however an officer, identified via investigation as Det. Noel Lawrence of Narcotics Borough Brooklyn South, met § 87(2)(b) outside of the home, pointed his gun towards him (Allegation F) and told him to "Get the fuck back up (Allegation G).” Next, officers who remain unidentified punched § 87(2)(b) in the back of the head upon reentering the residence (Allegation H).

An officer who remains unidentified then hit § 87(2)(b) with a shield and threw him to the floor (Allegation I). § 87(2)(b) then felt a foot on his back, his ankle was stepped on and he was handcuffed (within Allegation H).

While near the prisoner van, an officer who remains unidentified told § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) "I don't give a fuck about your feelings (Allegation J).” All three civilians were brought to the 67th Precinct stationhouse, where their arrests were processed.

Identification of Subject Officers

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) described the officer who removed his helmet and hit him in the right eye with it as a black man, taller than 5'10" tall, with a big build and a short Caesar haircut. According to the Search Warrant Plan, Det. Tearle Connell was assigned to Bunker #2 and wore a bunker shield and heavy vest; Det. Joseph was assigned to Bunker security #2 and wore a heavy vest and helmet. Det. Connell is a § 87(2)(b) black man; Det. Joseph is a § 87(2)(b) black man. The pedigree information for both of these officers somewhat corresponds to the physical description that § 87(2)(b) provided for this subject officer. Both officers stated that they wore helmets and they denied using the alleged force. § 87(2)(g)

Det. Lawrence admitted to interacting with § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

While Det. McBride and Det. Corso stated that they apprehended § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) was unable to provide a physical description of the officers who allegedly used force against him.

Allegation H includes § 87(2)(b)'s allegation that he felt a foot in his back and his ankle was stepped on, by an officer whom he did not see. Additionally, § 87(2)(b) could not provide a physical description for the officer who allegedly hit him with a shield. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) stated that an officer, who remains unidentified, told them "I don't give a fuck about your feelings." § 87(2)(b) named Det. McBride as the alleged subject officer of this allegation and described him as a white man in his 50s, 5'7" tall, with a heavy build and was plain clothed. The description that § 87(2)(b) provided of Det. McBride closely corresponds to the pedigree information listed on his NYPD Single Officer Photograph, which notes that he is a white man, § 87(2)(b), with a heavy build and § 87(2)(b).

the description of Det. McBride: a black man, with short black hair, 5'7"-5'8" tall, in his late thirties, with an average build and plain clothed. § 87(2)(g)

On April 3, 2015, the undersigned investigator received a letter from § 87(2)(b) of the New York City Fire Department, which indicated that the Ambulance Call Report completed in connection with this incident was unable to be located (encl.
