Case Summary

On April 21, 2016, § 87(2)(b) filed the following complaint by phone with IAB, generating original log number 16-14268. The CCRB received the complaint on May 2, 2016.

On March 29, 2016, § 87(2)(b) had a discussion with the doorman of his building at § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan regarding the doorman's refusal to call the police after a woman had been chased inside of the building with a knife. The doorman called the police and reported that § 87(2)(b) was harassing him. Police Officer ShreeGanesh Meade of the Midtown North Precinct responded to § 87(2)(b)'s apartment and asked § 87(2)(b) whether he had harassed the doorman. PO Meade allegedly leaned onto § 87(2)(b)'s door in an attempt to break the surveillance camera off his door (Allegation A).

On April 21, 2016, § 87(2)(b) drove northbound on § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan with his wife, § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) stopped at a red light between § 87(2)(b) and recognized PO Meade standing approximately ten feet away from his vehicle. After the light turned green, § 87(2)(b) continued driving on § 87(2)(b). He turned left on § 87(2)(b) and drove towards his garage. § 87(2)(b) entered the garage and heard a car screech behind him as he waited for the garage door to close. § 87(2)(b) looked through his mirror and saw a marked RMP with its lights engaged. § 87(2)(b) rolled down his window and heard screaming. § 87(2)(b) speculated that PO Meade allegedly yelled, "Go fuck yourself," "I'll get you next time," "I'll get you," "fuck you," or "I'll get you motherfucker" (Allegation B).

No video was obtained related to this incident.

Mediation, Civil and Criminal Histories

- This case was deemed unsuitable for mediation § 87(2)(b) .
- On August 1, a notice of claim inquiry was submitted to the New York City comptroller's office. The response will be added to the case file upon receipt. (BR01)
- [§ 87(2)(b)] [§§ 86(1)(3)&(4)] [§ 87(2)(c)]

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- § 87(2)(b) has filed five complaints with the CCRB § 87(2)(b)
- PO Meade has been a member of service for six years and has 20 other CCRB allegations, with no substantiated allegations. Four previous allegations of discourtesy were closed as complainant uncooperative or unsubstantiated. (See officer history)

Potential Issues

- The undersigned investigator was unable to get in contact with § 87(2)(b) to obtain a statement in regards to the incident.

- § 87(2)(b) said had video footage of the March incident and would provide it to the CCRB; however, he failed to provide it despite repeated attempts by the investigator to remind him to do so.
- § 87(2)(b) referenced a conversation with the doorman of his building stating that digital footage is kept indefinitely. On June 14, 2016, the undersigned investigator contacted a representative from § 87(2)(b) who stated that video footage is only stored for ten days.

Allegation A – Abuse of Authority: On March 29, 2016, at § 87(2)(b), Police Officer ShreeGanesh Meade interfered with § 87(2)(b)'s use of a recording device.

According to § 87(2)(b) during the March incident, PO Meade went to his apartment to ask whether he had threatened the doorman of his building or tried to intimidate him. § 87(2)(b) denied that he did. § 87(2)(b) claimed to have a surveillance camera outside his apartment and alleged that PO Meade leaned onto § 87(2)(b)'s door in an attempt to break the camera off of the door.

§ 87(2)(b) also refused to provide the CCRB with the footage that was captured from his camera during the incident.

PO Meade stated that he did not notice any surveillance cameras outside of § 87(2)(b)'s apartment door. He denied that he leaned into a camera on the door or attempted to break the camera off of the door. PO Meade recounted that he rang § 87(2)(b)'s doorbell and waited for § 87(2)(b) to open the door. PO Meade placed his hands on the door and leaned into the door to listen for any yelling or screaming inside of the apartment to make sure that he and the other officers were safe. PO Meade also recounted that § 87(2)(b) pointed at the doorbell during their conversation and told him that he was being recorded. He stated that he never covered § 87(2)(b)'s cameras.

Therefore, it is recommended that Allegation A be closed as unsubstantiated.

Allegation B –Discourtesy: On April 21, 2016, at § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan, Police Officer ShreeGanesh Meade spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

According to § 87(2)(b) during the April incident, he recounted that he drove northbound on § 87(2)(b) and was instructed to stop briefly by a fireman on § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) then continued driving and stopped at a red light on § 87(2)(b) where he recognized PO Meade standing on a corner. § 87(2)(b) also stated that there was fire activity between § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) stated that § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) told him that PO Meade was looking at him. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) turned towards PO Meade and confirmed that PO Meade was looking at him. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) drove northbound on § 87(2)(b) towards § 87(2)(b) and made a left turn on § 87(2)(b). He reduced his speed and looked through his rearview mirror to ensure that no cars were behind his vehicle. § 87(2)(b) opened his garage door and entered the garage. He heard a car screech as he waited for the garage door to close. § 87(2)(b) looked through the mirror and saw a marked sedan RMP with its lights engaged. He could not see whether or not PO Meade was in the vehicle because the lights were bright. § 87(2)(b) speculated that PO Meade recognized his truck from a previous incident where he had stopped him and then got into a marked RMP and followed him home. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) then heard someone yelling. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) rolled down his window and heard an unidentified individual screaming. He initially stated that he heard an individual yelling, “Go fuck yourself,” “I’ll get you next time,” or “I’ll get you.” § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) later stated that he heard, “Fuck you” and “I’ll get you motherfucker.” § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) stated that he would be able to recognize PO Meade’s voice. However, he could not recognize the person yelling because the yelling was irate. § 87(2)(b) concluded that PO Meade was the officer yelling at him because of their history and because they had just seen each other. During his phone statement, § 87(2)(b) stated that he called IAB immediately after the incident had occurred. During his sworn statement, § 87(2)(b) stated that he spoke to the doorman of his building and asked about the cameras in the building and then visited the stationhouse to file a UF-61 against PO Meade.

PO Meade stated that he had not seen or interacted with § 87(2)(b) since the March incident. He denied the discourtesy allegations.

§ 87(2)(g) PO Meade noted in his memo book that he responded to an alarm of fire at 7:43 p.m. at § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

. Therefore, it is recommended that Allegation B be closed as unsubstantiated.
