Results of Investigation

Video Footage

- § 87(2)(b) provided video footage he filed using his cell phone that partially captured the incident.

Summary of Video Footage

The video is twenty seven seconds long. The male officer, identified in the video by his name and shield as PO Schulman is heard saying, “You get arrested how many times a week?” A male, identified by PO Schulman as § 87(2)(b) is heard saying something illegible in response, and PO Schulman replied, “I’m not talking to you. I am talking to § 87(2)(b).” A female officer, also identified on the video as PO McKnight stood by PO Schulman. PO Schulman continued talking to § 87(2)(b) off camera, who asked PO Schulman why he was arresting him. PO Schulman said that he was not arresting § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) said something illegible to PO Schulman, and PO Schulman responded, “Stop fucking being annoying.” § 87(2)(b) laughed in response.

PO Schulman directed his attention to the person who was filming the incident, known to the CCRB to be § 87(2)(b) and asked him if the cell phone belonged to him. § 87(2)(b) said yes, and PO Schulman asked to see the identification for the telephone. Two seconds before the video ends, a male individual wearing a red baseball cap, a white towel over it and a red t-shirt appears on the video. PO Schulman identified the individual as § 87(2)(b) (encl. 3A).

Civilian Statements

Complainant/Victim: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b) is a § 87(2)(b) black male, who is 5'8" tall, 130 pounds, with black hair and brown eyes. § 87(2)(b)

CCRB Statement

§ 87(2)(b) provided a telephone statement to the CCRB on June 20, 2013 (encl. 5A), and was interviewed at the CCRB on July 2, 2013 (encl. 5B-5C). § 87(2)(g)

On June 15, 2013, at approximately 2:45 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was standing by a convenience store located on § 87(2)(b) between § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) in Staten Island. Prior to arriving at the incident location, § 87(2)(b) his cousin, § 87(2)(b) and his friend, § 87(2)(b) were walking from their friend's house whom they were visiting. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) did not stop or greet anyone on the way to the convenience store.

Upon arrival at the convenience store, § 87(2)(b) met four other individuals, one of who was identified via the CCRB investigation as § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and one of their associates, identified via the CCRB investigation as § 87(2)(b) went into the convenience store where they spent approximately five minutes buying food. When they exited the store, they were standing outside for approximately two minutes. § 87(2)(b) did not greet any passerby and he did not see any of his associates do so. § 87(2)(b) said that they were not yelling or being loud while they were standing for two minutes.

A patrol car with two uniformed police officers pulled up to the group. The two officers, who were identified via the video footage as PO Schulman and PO McKnight, exited the car. PO McKnight ordered the group to stand against the wall. In his telephone statement, § 87(2)(b) said that both officers told only him and § 87(2)(b) to stop. Everyone in the group complied with the instructions and backed up into a wall. The group was facing the officers. PO Schulman was described as a stocky white male in his early thirties, approximately 5'5" tall and with short blond hair. PO McKnight was described as a Hispanic female in her late twenties, who stood approximately 5'3" tall, weighed one hundred and sixty pound and had long black hair. PO Schulman approached § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) repeatedly asked, "What did we do?" PO Schulman responded but § 87(2)(b) could not hear. § 87(2)(b) said that PO Schulman said to § 87(2)(b) something about him getting arrested. PO Schulman then approached § 87(2)(b) and told him that they were looking for him because he fit the description of a perpetrator who was described as a black male wearing grey pants and a white shirt. § 87(2)(b) asked PO Schulman what did he do, and PO Schulman grabbed § 87(2)(b) right arm and attempted to pull it behind his back. § 87(2)(b) pulled away from PO Schulman and kept asking what did he do and why PO Schulman was arresting him. PO Schulman released § 87(2)(b) arm, told him that he was not arresting him and did not pursue § 87(2)(b) further. One of the individuals from the group, whom § 87(2)(b) could not describe, said, "He always does it," referring to PO Schulman. PO Schulman did not respond. PO McKnight stood silently and monitored the rest of the group.

§ 87(2)(b) took out his telephone and began recording the incident. § 87(2)(b) recorded PO Schulman tell § 87(2)(b) that he was not arresting him and then asking § 87(2)(b) to show identification of the telephone. § 87(2)(g) § 87(2)(b) did not remember if PO Schulman said anything else. § 87(2)(b) entered the code to unlock his telephone and proved that the telephone was his.

§ 87(2)(b) showed his unlocked telephone to PO Schulman, who immediately grabbed the telephone and attempted to pull it away. § 87(2)(b) was holding the telephone with his right hand by the base near the home button while PO Schulman held it with both hands and had his two thumbs on the screen. PO Schulman attempted to take it away but § 87(2)(b) did not release the telephone. PO Schulman told § 87(2)(b) to let go of the telephone, and § 87(2)(b) asked why. PO Schulman instructed § 87(2)(b) to let go of the telephone two more times. § 87(2)(b) heard the telephone crack, and PO McKnight also told § 87(2)(b) to release the telephone. § 87(2)(b) complied. In his telephone statement, § 87(2)(b) said that after PO Schulman had the telephone in his possession, he began to squeeze it to the point it made a cracking sound.

PO Schulman examined the telephone by looking at the sides, front and back of the telephone and then returned it to § 87(2)(b). PO Schulman had examined the telephone for approximately two minutes. § 87(2)(b) did not see PO Schulman search the content of the telephone. PO Schulman said that a lot of telephones were stolen from the neighborhood, and § 87(2)(b) said that he was from Brooklyn.

Both officers began walking toward their patrol car when § 87(2)(b) saw that the screen of his telephone was cracked. § 87(2)(b) said that he became “rowdy” by yelling at PO Schulman about the cracked screen on his telephone. Other members of the group also accused PO Schulman of cracking the telephone, and PO Schulman replied that it was already broken. The officers got in their car and drove off. The entire incident lasted approximately ten to fifteen minutes. § 87(2)(b) and his associates did not use profanity when they spoke to the officers. § 87(2)(b) said that his demeanor was “proper” until he saw that his telephone was cracked.

CCRB Statement

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on July 2, 2013 (encl. 6A-6B).

On June 15, 2013, at approximately 2:45 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was standing in front of a convenience store located on § 87(2)(b) between § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) in Staten Island. § 87(2)(b) was with § 87(2)(b) and a group of approximately eight to ten people, some of them were identified via the CCRB investigation as § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). Prior to arriving at the incident location, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were visiting § 87(2)(b)’s cousin, § 87(2)(b) at his house. They all then walked from § 87(2)(b) house to the incident location, where they met the rest of the group who were friends of § 87(2)(b). The walk was approximately two to three blocks, and they did not stop or greet anyone on the way to the convenience store. § 87(2)(b) greeted the members of the group by giving them high-fives, taps and pounds. § 87(2)(b) did not see anything exchanged between § 87(2)(b) and the members of the group. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) did not have any physical contact with any of the members of the group.

After about a minute or two, § 87(2)(b) observed a patrol car drive out of the nearby housing developments. The patrol car turned right and stopped at the next intersection. § 87(2)(b) looked at the officers, and the officers observed the group for approximately fifteen to twenty seconds. The group broke up with § 87(2)(b) and two to three individuals, who were identified via the CCRB investigation as § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) remaining outside, while the rest of the group went into the convenience store. § 87(2)(b) explained that the reason the group broke up was because he believed that the officers could stop and question them if they were in a large group. Two uniformed police officers, identified via the video as PO Schulman and PO McKnight, exited the car. PO Schulman was described as a muscular white or Hispanic male in his late twenties to early thirties, approximately 6'1" tall and with short hair. PO McKnight was a light skinned black female in her middle twenties, approximately 5'5" to 5'6" tall, average built and with long brown hair.

§ 87(2)(b) stood by a wall approximately ten feet away from § 87(2)(b). PO Schulman approached § 87(2)(b) and addressed him by his first name. PO Schulman asked § 87(2)(b) if he knew where the guns were, and § 87(2)(b) said that he had no idea what PO Schulman was talking about. § 87(2)(b)'s pants were sagging and he pulled them up. § 87(2)(b) looked away and when he looked back at § 87(2)(b) he saw § 87(2)(b) with his arms behind his back. § 87(2)(b) did not see PO Schulman make any physical contact with § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) was not in handcuffs. PO Schulman informed § 87(2)(b) that he was not under arrest but needed to be searched. § 87(2)(b) did not respond. The members of the group were just standing and watching the incident. No one was yelling or using profanity towards the officers. However, one individual was asking PO Schulman why he was searching § 87(2)(b) and stated that they were not doing anything illegal. § 87(2)(b) did not see PO Schulman search § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) pulled out his telephone and began recording the incident. PO Schulman changed his attention to § 87(2)(b) and asked if it was his telephone. § 87(2)(b) said yes, and PO Schulman asked him to show the identification for the telephone. § 87(2)(b) entered the unlock code and PO Schulman attempted to take it away from § 87(2)(b) with one hand. PO Schulman did not issue any instructions to § 87(2)(b) prior to grabbing the telephone. § 87(2)(b) heard the telephone crack. § 87(2)(b) jerked his hand back. PO Schulman still held the telephone and § 87(2)(b) relinquished it. PO Schulman examined the telephone for forty five seconds to a minute. § 87(2)(b) was standing quietly watching PO Schulman examine his telephone. § 87(2)(b) saw PO Schulman swipe through the telephone but he did not see what content, if any, PO Schulman was looking at. PO McKnight then told PO Schulman to return the telephone to § 87(2)(b) and PO Schulman complied. Both officers went back to their patrol car when § 87(2)(b) discovered that his telephone was damaged. § 87(2)(b) recorded the officers' names and by the time they drove off.

The CCRB was unable to obtain a statement from § 87(2)(b). A search of Lexis Nexis on August 12, 2013, did not disclose any telephone numbers for § 87(2)(b) and did not yield any matching results (encl. 16A). On February 3, 2014, a please call letter was sent to § 87(2)(b) at the address listed in PO Schulman's memo book (encl. 17A). An individual who introduced himself only as § 87(2)(b) asked to call back after 1:00 p.m. in order to speak to his boss § 87(2)(b). A call was later placed to § 87(2)(b) who did not know anything about the incident. § 87(2)(b) said that he would talk to his employees to see if they saw the incident and agreed to call back in a couple of days with the results. On August 12, 2013, Inv. Sazonov, Inv. Schiavo and Inv. PO Schulman approached the four males and asked if the cell phone was his property, referring to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) at first refused to acknowledge the officers. Stop, Question and Frisk Reports

PO Schulman noted that he observed § 87(2)(b) for approximately five minutes before the stop and explained the reason for the stop afterwards. PO Schulman indicated that he placed his hands on § 87(2)(b) because § 87(2)(b) reached for a suspected weapon. PO Schulman also indicated that no summons was issued to § 87(2)(b) that § 87(2)(b) was not frisked or searched and no weapons were found on § 87(2)(b). In the additional circumstances and factors for the stop, PO Schulman indicated that § 87(2)(b) was associating with persons known for their criminal activity, his proximity to the crime location, that he matched the description of the suspect from the victim of the cell phone theft, that § 87(2)(b) made evasive, false or inconsistent responses to his questions and changed direction at the sight of the officers.

CCRB Statement

PO Schulman was interviewed at the CCRB on October 9, 2013 (encl. 7H-7J).

On June 16, 2013, at approximately 3:40 p.m., PO Schulman and his partner, PO Kimberly McKnight, were patrolling the vicinity of § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) in Staten Island. Approximately forty minutes earlier, PO Schulman and PO McKnight had a pick-up of petit larceny of an iPhone with the description of the perpetrators. PO Schulman could not say whether there was a description of the iPhone provided. The victim of the larceny informed the officers that there were three to four black male perpetrators, one of them wore a red hat and had braces.

PO Schulman observed a group of individuals, known to the CCRB as § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) who fit the description provided by the victim of petit larceny. The group was standing in the vicinity of § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) which is approximately one block away from where the larceny was committed. § 87(2)(b) had a cell phone and § 87(2)(b) wore a red hat and later PO Schulman saw that he had braces as well. The other two members of the group, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were black males. PO Schulman was on the corner of § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) when he observed the group standing by a delicatessen. PO Schulman did not remember for how long he observed the group. The group split when they observed the officers: § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) went into a delicatessen while § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) proceeded to walk away. PO Schulman said that PO Schulman stated that he was giving this information based upon his memo book entries and not his independent recollection.

PO Schulman did not remember how long § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were in the delicatessen before they exited. PO Schulman decided to approach the group because they matched the description of the perpetrators. When § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) exited the delicatessen, they met up with § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) who were approximately twenty feet away from the delicatessen. PO Schulman did not remember what § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were doing other than walking away from his direction.

Upon approaching the group, PO Schulman and PO McKnight exited their vehicle and identified themselves as police officers. PO Schulman did not remember the exact command he was issuing to the group other than stop. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) ignored and “shrugged off” the officers. PO Schulman heard the group say something but he did not remember the specifics. PO Schulman did not remember whether PO McKnight was also giving any instructions. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) stopped and placed themselves against a wall.

PO Schulman first approached § 87(2)(b) because he wore a red hat and had braces. PO Schulman did not remember whether § 87(2)(b) clothes were baggy. PO Schulman knew § 87(2)(b) because he arrested him in the past. § 87(2)(b) placed his hands in his pants, and PO Schulman asked § 87(2)(b) multiple times to keep them out. § 87(2)(b) was placing his whole hand in his groin area.
