

CCRB INVESTIGATIVE RECOMMENDATION

Investigator: Enoch Sowah	Team: Squad #04	CCRB Case #: 201708377	☐ Force ☒ Discourt. ☐ U.S. ☒ Abuse ☐ O.L. ☐ Injury
Incident Date(s) Wednesday, 10/11/2017 4:10 PM	Location of Incident: 1407 Foster Avenue	18 Mo. SOL 4/11/2019	Precinct: 70
Date/Time CV Reported Wed, 10/11/2017 6:05 PM	CV Reported At: CCRB	How CV Reported: On-line website	Date/Time Received at CCRB Wed, 10/11/2017 6:05 PM

Complainant/Victim	Type	Home Address

Witness(es)	Home Address

Subject Officer(s)	Shield	TaxID	Command
1. POF Melike Turk	18525	955604	070 PCT

Witness Officer(s)	Shield No	Tax No	Cmd Name
1. POM Christophe Pierre	02499	962014	070 PCT
2. POM Douglas Godio	03269	954872	070 PCT

Officer(s)	Allegation	Investigator Recommendation
A . POF Melike Turk	Discourtesy: Police Officer Melike Turk spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)	A . Exonerated
B . POF Melike Turk	Abuse: Police Officer Melike Turk threatened to arrest § 87(2)(b)	B . Exonerated
C . POF Melike Turk	Discourtesy: Police Officer Melike Turk acted discourteously toward § 87(2)(b)	C . Unsubstantiated

Case Summary

On October 11, 2017, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB online.

On October 10, 2017, at approximately 4 p.m., PO Melike Turk and PO Christopher Pierre of the 70th Precinct pulled over § 87(2)(b) in front of 1407 Foster Avenue in Brooklyn for vehicle tints. PO Turk said to § 87(2)(b) “Shut the fuck up and give me your license now or you will get arrested,” (Allegation A: Discourtesy, exonerated; Allegation B: Abuse of Authority, exonerated), and “Get the fuck away from me” (Subsumed into Allegation A). PO Turk also threw § 87(2)(b)’s license, registration, and six summonses into § 87(2)(b)’s vehicle (Allegation C: Discourtesy, unsubstantiated).

§ 87(2)(b) was issued five summonses for vehicle tints and an obstructed windshield. He also received a § 87(2)(b). No other summonses or arrests resulted from this incident.

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) recorded portions of the incident on their cell phones (BR05-06)

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Discourtesy: Police Officer Melike Turk spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Melike Turk threatened to arrest § 87(2)(b)

It is not disputed that PO Turk used profanities towards § 87(2)(b) and threatened to arrest him.

On October 11, 2017, at approximately 4 p.m., § 87(2)(b) (BR01) parked his vehicle, a red 2015 Infinity sedan, at a metered parking spot in front of the Key Food supermarket located at 1407 Foster Avenue in Brooklyn. § 87(2)(b) The four windows of § 87(2)(b)’s vehicle are darkly tinted and measure approximately 10% below the legally required limit of 75%.

§ 87(2)(b) exited his vehicle and headed towards the supermarket. He then heard a screeching sound of a vehicle making an abrupt stop. § 87(2)(b) turned and saw a marked SUV pulling up behind his vehicle. § 87(2)(b) assumed the officers were responding to an incident in the vicinity, thus he turned and continued to walk towards the supermarket.

Two police officers, PO Melike Turk and PO Christopher Pierre, exited the vehicle and approached the rear of § 87(2)(b)’s vehicle. § 87(2)(b) recognized PO Turk from previous encounters during which PO Turk issued him summonses for traffic violations. PO Turk yelled and instructed § 87(2)(b) to turn around and provide his license and registration. § 87(2)(b) turned and asked PO Turk why. PO Turk informed him that he was being stopped for vehicle tints. § 87(2)(b) became upset and in a loud tone told PO Turk that he did not understand why he was being stopped for vehicle tints when he was not in his vehicle and his vehicle was legally parked. He then continued to walk towards the supermarket.

PO Pierre moved from the rear of § 87(2)(b)’s vehicle and stood in front of the metal rails at the entrance of the supermarket, blocking § 87(2)(b)’s path. PO Pierre instructed § 87(2)(b) to turn back around and face PO Turk. § 87(2)(b) did not. PO Turk then approached § 87(2)(b) and attempted to clip her handcuff on his left hand. § 87(2)(b) immediately moved his hand back and asked PO Turk what she was doing. PO replied, “Shut the fuck up and give me your license now or you will get arrested.” (In his CCRB phone statement (BR02), § 87(2)(b) said PO Turk said to him, “You either get back in your fucking vehicle, give me your license and registration or I am going to fucking arrest you. You choose”).

§ 87(2)(b) told PO Turk to calm down and that there was no need for her to create a scene. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) witnessed the incident, and as the interaction continued some customers of the supermarket and other civilians, none of whom § 87(2)(b) knew, also observed the incident from the sidewalk. PO Turk was loud, combative, and confrontational in her interaction with § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) was generally frustrated and angry at PO Turk, and also occasionally spoke to her in a raised voice. § 87(2)(b)'s frustration and anger towards PO Turk was due to the fact that he had multiple prior interactions with PO Turk. § 87(2)(b) felt PO Turk had targeted him and was harassing him.

§ 87(2)(b) approached his vehicle, opened his front passenger door and retrieved his license from the vehicle's center console. He then handed the license to PO Turk. PO Turk took the license and requested § 87(2)(b)'s registration. § 87(2)(b) could not find his registration inside his vehicle and asked for time to look for it. PO Turk returned to the front passenger seat of the marked vehicle. PO Pierre remained on the sidewalk.

§ 87(2)(b) did not find his registration in his vehicle, but had an electronic copy saved on his cell phone. He went inside the supermarket and printed out a copy of his registration. He returned a few minutes later and approached the front passenger side of the marked vehicle. PO Pierre had returned to the marked vehicle and was seated in the driver's seat. § 87(2)(b) slipped the printed copy of his registration through the front passenger window, which was slightly opened. He also placed his cell phone against the window so the officers could see the electronic copy of the registration that was saved on his phone. PO Turk slightly opened the front passenger door and the door hit § 87(2)(b)'s left waist area. He did not sustain any injuries. § 87(2)(b) angrily asked PO Turk why she hit him with the door and she replied "Get the fuck away from me." § 87(2)(b) moved away from the police vehicle and stood by the rear of his vehicle.

§ 87(2)(g) initially said PO Turk and PO Pierre arrived just as § 87(2)(b) had parked his vehicle and was walking towards the supermarket, and that PO Turk instructed § 87(2)(b) to approach the marked vehicle, which § 87(2)(b) did. PO Turk then began to issue § 87(2)(b) a summons. § 87(2)(b) asked why. § 87(2)(b) however, then § 87(2)(g) said that at the time the officers arrived, § 87(2)(b) was already in the supermarket, and that PO Turk approached and placed a summons on the windshield of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle. § 87(2)(b) immediately went inside the supermarket and informed § 87(2)(b) that he had been issued a summons. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) both exited the supermarket and approached PO Turk, who stood by the rear of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle.

§ 87(2)(b) asked PO Turk why she had issued him a summons, but PO Turk yelled and screamed at § 87(2)(b) though § 87(2)(b) did not recall what she said, except that at some point, PO Turk said to § 87(2)(b) "Stay in your car or I'm going to lock you." § 87(2)(b) refused to enter his vehicle. PO Turk then took out her handcuff and held it in her hands. She again instructed § 87(2)(b) to return to his vehicle lest he be arrested. § 87(2)(b) asked PO Turk why she wanted to arrest § 87(2)(b) but PO Turk instructed him to move back and not interfere. § 87(2)(b) complied and stood by the metal rails that led to the entrance of the supermarket.

§ 87(2)(b) eventually returned to his vehicle and PO Turk approached his driver side window. She requested his license and registration. § 87(2)(b) provided his license, but could not find his registration. He thus exited the vehicle and proceeded to walk towards the supermarket. PO Turk instructed him to return to his vehicle, but he ignored her. PO Turk took out her handcuffs again and began to follow § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) approached PO Turk and told her to give § 87(2)(b) a minute and that he was going to print a copy of his registration. PO Turk then returned to the police vehicle.

Approximately five minutes, § 87(2)(b) exited the supermarket and approached the front passenger side of the marked vehicle. He then handed PO Turk his registration and then returned to his vehicle. § 87(2)(b) spoke to PO Turk in a normal voice and did yell or scream profanities at her, though he appeared upset that he was being issued a summons. PO Turk did not use any profanities against § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) (BR04) said she was inside the supermarket when § 87(2)(b) informed her that two police officers had stopped § 87(2)(b) just as he parked his vehicle in front of the store. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) came out of the supermarket and saw PO Turk and PO Pierre standing by the rear of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle and were speaking to § 87(2)(b) who was on the sidewalk and approximately five to six feet away from the officers.

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) stood by the entrance to the supermarket, which was approximately 15 to 20 feet away from § 87(2)(b) and the officers, thus she did not hear what the officers said to § 87(2)(b) except that PO Turk kept pointing towards § 87(2)(b)'s trunk and § 87(2)(b) repeatedly said, "I already removed it. Why are you stopping me when my vehicle is already parked?" § 87(2)(b) spoke to PO Turk in a raised voice, which according to § 87(2)(b) was how he normally spoke. PO Turk spoke in a normal voice. PO Pierre stood by PO Turk and did not interact with § 87(2)(b).

PO Turk and § 87(2)(b) spoke for approximately 15 minutes, at which point § 87(2)(b) returned to the supermarket. She did not hear any profanity from either party, nor did she see any of the officers take out their handcuffs and attempt place them on § 87(2)(b). She also did not hear PO Turk make statements about arresting § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) recorded portions of this incident on their cell phones, but they do not capture any of the allegations, though they capture § 87(2)(b) irate and yelling at the officers (BR05-06).

201708377_20171101_1729_DM.mov

201708377_20171101_1726_DM.MP4

The video footage § 87(2)(b) recorded on his cell phone (see aforementioned file labeled 201708377_20171101_1726_DM), shows him seated in the driver's seat of his vehicle, with his windows partially rolled down. At 00:10 seconds, § 87(2)(b) pans the camera towards PO Turk, PO Pierre and two other officers, and yells, "Yo guys, how many cop cars for tint tickets...the harassment never stops with these people." The four officers are standing together by the rear of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle and appear to be speaking with each other, though what they say is not captured in the video. At 00:22 seconds, § 87(2)(b) pans the camera towards himself and yells, "It's delicious and nutritious. I shit money. I have money and don't care about tint tickets." § 87(2)(b) then pans the camera towards his passenger side door and appears to speak to someone who is not captured in video. At 00:36 seconds, § 87(2)(b) tells the unknown individual, "I was outside my car...please record...I might die because they are crazy and have issues. They are little pricks." It is not clear from the video how many individuals are gathered on the sidewalk. The video ends at 00:45 seconds.

The video § 87(2)(b) recorded on her cell phone (see aforementioned file labelled 201708377_20171101_1729_DM), shows approximately six officers standing by the rear of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle. § 87(2)(b) is heard yelling inside his vehicle, though his exact words are indistinguishable. It is not clear from the footage how many civilians are gathered on the sidewalk, though at 00:11 seconds, two civilians are captured observing the incident as they walked past § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle. The video ends at 00:27 seconds.

PO Turk (BR07) said she and PO Pierre were driving on Foster Avenue heading towards Rugby Road when they both observed § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle drive past them, heading westbound on Foster Avenue. § 87(2)(b)'s windows were fully rolled up and his windows were darkly tinted to the extent that both officers could not see inside the vehicle.

PO Pierre made a U-turn and activated the marked vehicle's emergency lights. § 87(2)(b) pulled into a parking spot in front of the Key Food supermarket and exited his vehicle. PO Pierre pulled up behind § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle. PO Turk through the vehicle's loud speakers instructed § 87(2)(b) approximately 10 times to remain in his vehicle, but § 87(2)(b) ignored her, walked onto the sidewalk, and stood by his front passenger door. PO Turk at this time recognized § 87(2)(b) from a number of prior encounters where § 87(2)(b) always acted belligerently and ultimately received summonses for vehicle plate covers.

PO Turk exited her vehicle and stood by the rear of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle. She informed § 87(2)(b) that officers were conducting a car stop and again instructed § 87(2)(b) approximately 10 more times to return to his vehicle. Each time, § 87(2)(b) refused and kept yelling and asking why he was being stopped. PO Turk repeatedly informed § 87(2)(b) that he was being stopped for vehicle tints and that he needed to return to his vehicle and provide his license and vehicle documents. § 87(2)(b) became irate, combative and yelled profanities towards PO Turk. PO Turk did not recall exactly what § 87(2)(b) said, except that he at some point called her "a pig and a bitch." § 87(2)(b) also took out his cell phone and began to record the officers and himself. He approached PO Turk and yelled into the camera, "I shit money and can pay these entire fucking tints [tickets]."

After exhausting all attempts to get § 87(2)(b) to cooperate, PO Turk yelled and said to § 87(2)(b) "I am asking you one more time, give me your license and insurance card. If you keep refusing, you'll get arrested." PO Turk did not recall using profanities against § 87(2)(b) but said it was possible she might have said to him, "Shut the fuck up and give me your [fucking] license or you will get arrested." PO Turk might have used profanities against § 87(2)(b) because she was upset and frustrated with how § 87(2)(b) was behaving and creating a scene in what should have been a routine vehicle stop. § 87(2)(b)'s behavior caused a crowd of approximately five to six people to gather, and as the incident continued the crowd grew to approximately 15 to 20 people, the majority of whom stood on the sidewalk and observed the interaction. PO Turk could have arrested § 87(2)(b) for obstruction of governmental administration and disorderly conduct for his failure to comply with multiple requests to return to his vehicle and provide his vehicle documents, as well as for making unreasonable noise. PO Turk used her discretion not to arrest § 87(2)(b) and opted to issue him summonses for § 87(2)(b) and illegal tints instead.

Approximately 10 to 15 minutes later, § 87(2)(b) provided his license, but failed to return to his vehicle. PO Turk requested his registration and insurance card and again instructed him to return to his vehicle. § 87(2)(b) slightly entered his front passenger side and appeared to look for his registration and insurance card. PO Turk returned to the front passenger seat of the marked vehicle and requested a summons officer with a tint meter to the scene. PO Pierre was seated in the driver's seat, though PO Turk did not recall whether or not he ever exited the vehicle. Approximately two minutes later, PO Douglas Godio and his partner, whose name PO Turk did not recall, arrived at the scene and tested § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle for tints. The test confirmed that § 87(2)(b)'s tints were illegal.

§ 87(2)(b) at some point left his vehicle and entered the supermarket. PO Turk did not know why § 87(2)(b) entered the supermarket, and although he was not allowed to leave the scene of the vehicle stop, PO Turk did not stop him from entering the supermarket because she knew doing so would exacerbate the already prolonged interaction. Approximately five to 10 minutes later, § 87(2)(b) exited the supermarket and approached the marked vehicle. PO Turk rolled down the front passenger window, at which point § 87(2)(b) threw his registration and insurance card into the vehicle. PO Turk ignored § 87(2)(b) and rolled her window back up, though not fully.

§ 87(2)(b) remained by the marked vehicle and continued to yell and record the officers. PO Turk instructed § 87(2)(b) multiple times to return to his vehicle, but he completely ignored her and continued to record on his cell phone. Two other officers from the 70th Precinct, who were driving through the vicinity and had seen the officers, pulled up to find out what was going on. PO Turk attempted to exit her vehicle and speak to the two arriving officers, whose names she did not recall, but was unable to because § 87(2)(b) stood closely by her door. She instructed § 87(2)(b) multiple times to “get the hell away [from her door] and return to his vehicle,” but § 87(2)(b) ignored her and continued to record. PO Turk did not recall using any profanities against § 87(2)(b) but said it was possible she might have said to him, “Get the fuck away from me,” or used the word “fuck” in some context. PO Turk said she might have used the profanity because she was upset that § 87(2)(b) was noncompliant with any of her commands. § 87(2)(b) eventually moved away from the door and PO Turk exited the vehicle and spoke to the two arriving officers.

§ 87(2)(g) PO Pierre said § 87(2)(b) returned to the driver’s seat of his vehicle when PO Godio arrived and that he complied with PO Godio’s request when he measured § 87(2)(b)’s vehicle for vehicle tints. § 87(2)(b)’s window tints measured at 4% light transmittance.

§ 87(2)(b) exited his vehicle after his tints were measured and walked towards the supermarket. PO Turk instructed him to return to his vehicle, but § 87(2)(b) ignored her. PO Turk said to § 87(2)(b) “Get back in your car now or I could arrest you.” § 87(2)(b) replied, “Fuck you,” and entered the supermarket. PO Pierre did not recall whether or not PO Turk used any profanities when she instructed § 87(2)(b) to return to his vehicle, but said it was possible she might have used the word “fuck” in some context.

§ 87(2)(b) exited the supermarket some minutes later and was “acting like a child.” § 87(2)(b) paced back and forth, flared his arms, stomped his feet and yelled excessively. Some customers of the supermarket and other civilians in the vicinity stood on the sidewalk and watched § 87(2)(b). PO Turk approached § 87(2)(b) on the sidewalk and informed him that if he did not stop yelling and making a scene, he would receive a § 87(2)(b) summons in addition to the vehicle tints summonses he was already being issued. § 87(2)(b) ignored PO Turk and continued yelling and screaming, though PO Pierre did not recall what he said.

PO Turk and PO Pierre returned to their marked vehicle and sat in the driver and front passenger seats respectively. They both then began to issue § 87(2)(b) summonses for § 87(2)(b) and vehicle tints. While issuing the summonses, § 87(2)(b) approached the driver side window and threw his registration into the marked vehicle. § 87(2)(b) remained by the driver side door and appeared to record on his cell phone. PO Turk shook her head and instructed § 87(2)(b) to return to his vehicle, which he refused. PO Turk then rolled up her window and continued to write her summonses.

At some point PO Turk attempted to exit her vehicle and asked § 87(2)(b) to move away from the door, but he stood by the door and did not move. PO Turk then said to § 87(2)(b) “Get the fuck away from me,” opened the driver side door, and exited the vehicle. PO Pierre did not know whether or not the door made contact with § 87(2)(b) and said PO Turk used the profanity because she had become frustrated with how § 87(2)(b) was behaving.

A person is guilty of obstruction of governmental administration when he intentionally obstructs, impairs, prevents or attempts to prevent a public servant from performing an official function, by means of intimidation, physical force or interference, or by means of any independently unlawful act. NYS Penal Law § 195.05 (BR 14) A person is guilty of disorderly conduct when, with intent to cause public inconvenience, annoyance, or alarm, or recklessly creating a risk thereof: engages in fighting or in violent, tumultuous, or threatening behavior; makes unreasonable noise; uses abusive or obscene language or makes an obscene gesture in public place; without lawful authority disturbs any lawful assembly or meeting of persons; obstructs vehicular or pedestrian traffic; congregates with other persons in a public space and refuses to comply a lawful order of the police to disperse; or creates a hazardous or physical offensive condition by any act which serves no legitimate purpose. NYS Penal Law § 240.20 (BR15)

In People v Forbes, 283 A.D. 2d 92 (2001) (BR16), the court held that it was lawful for officers to require civilians to exit or remain inside their vehicle during a lawful vehicle stop. The court opined that requiring a civilian to remain inside their vehicle is minimal intrusion of their free movement based on preserving safety, and as such permissible. Officers, thus have the discretion to decide if ensuring safety is better served by having the civilian remain inside the vehicle or not, and that the potential danger is minimized when the officers command is unquestioned.

Officers must be courteous and respectful in the interaction with the public. Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09 (BR09). The use of profanity during stressful street encounters does not constitute misconduct. In prior disciplinary cases, tribunals have found that the use of profanity towards belligerent, difficult, and screaming individuals who are causing a crowd to gather does not constitute misconduct. Disciplinary Case No. 2013-10143 (BR10)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegations A and B be closed as exonerated.

Allegation (C) Discourtesy: Police Officer Melike Turk acted discourteously towards

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) (BR01) said while he stood by the rear of his vehicle, he was surrounded by approximately five to six officers, all of whom instructed him to return to his vehicle. § 87(2)(b) returned to his vehicle and one of the officers, whose name § 87(2)(b) did not know, used a tint meter to measure his vehicle tints. The officer then informed § 87(2)(b) that he had illegal tints and an obstructed windshield, and that he was possibly going to receive summonses for the obstructed windshield and illegal tints. The officer then walked back and approached PO Turk and PO Pierre's vehicle.

Approximately five minutes later, PO Turk approached the driver side of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle and tossed § 87(2)(b)'s license, registration, and six summonses into § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle. PO Turk never offered to hand § 87(2)(b) the summonses, nor did § 87(2)(b) ever refuse to take the summonses. PO Turk then walked back to her vehicle and together with the other officers left the scene.

§ 87(2)(b) (BR03) and § 87(2)(b) (BR04) both corroborated § 87(2)(g) that additional officers arrived at the scene and surrounded § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle, but said § 87(2)(b) was inside his vehicle when the additional officers arrived. A few minutes later, either PO Turk or PO Pierre approached § 87(2)(b)'s driver side and handed him what appeared to be summonses. § 87(2)(b) took the summonses from the hands of the officer and exited his vehicle. All the officers returned to their vehicles and left the scene. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) did not see PO Turk or any other officer throw the summonses into § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle.

The video footage (BR05-06) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) recorded did not capture this allegation.

PO Turk (BR07) said after she exited her vehicle to speak to the two arriving officers, PO Godio approached § 87(2)(b) and asked him to return to his vehicle, which he did. Approximately five minutes later, PO Pierre gave § 87(2)(b) five VTL summonses he had issued. PO Turk also issued § 87(2)(b) a § 87(2)(b). Both officers then approached the driver side of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle and PO Turk tried to give § 87(2)(b) the summonses, but § 87(2)(b) did not stretch forth his hands to receive the summonses. PO Turk again told § 87(2)(b) to take the summonses, at which point § 87(2)(b) opened his palm. PO Turk then dropped the summonses into § 87(2)(b)'s palm and returned to her vehicle. All the officers then left the location. PO Turk never threw or tossed the summonses into § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle.

PO Pierre (BR08) corroborated PO Turk's account, adding that when PO Turk attempted to hand § 87(2)(b) the summonses, § 87(2)(b) looked at PO Turk and "smirked." PO Turk again asked § 87(2)(b) to take the summonses, but § 87(2)(b) did not stretch forth his hands to receive them. PO Turk then dropped the summonses on § 87(2)(b)'s lap and the officers returned to their vehicle. PO Turk never threw the summonses into § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle, nor did § 87(2)(b) at any point attempt to take the summonses from the officers.

§ 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation C be closed as unsubstantiated.

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- This is § 87(2)(b)'s first complaint with the CCRB (BR11)
- PO Turk has been a member of service for four years and has no prior complaints against her.

Mediation, Civil and Criminal Histories

- This case was unsuitable for mediation, § 87(2)(g)
- A FOIL request was sent to the NYC Comptroller on December 18, 2017, for any Notice of Claim filed in regards to this incident. The results of the request will be added to the case file upon receipt (BR12).
- [§ 87(2)(b)] [§§ 86(1)(3)&(4)] [§ 87(2)(c)]

Squad No.: _____

Investigator: _____
Signature Print Title & Name Date

Squad Leader: _____
Signature Print Title & Name Date

Reviewer: _____
Signature Print Title & Name Date