

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
COUNTY OF NEW YORK

-----X
RUTH HEDIAN, JOANNE CABRERA
and ELIZABETH SANTANA,

Plaintiff(s),

-against-

THE CITY OF NEW YORK,

Defendant(s).
-----X

SUMMONS

INDEX NO.:

Date Purchased:

Plaintiff designates
New York County as the place of trial.

The basis of venue is Plaintiff's residence:

548 West 164th Street
New York, NY 10032

To the above named Defendant(s):

YOU ARE HEREBY SUMMONED to answer the complaint in this action and to serve a copy of your answer, or, if the complaint is not served with this summons, to serve a notice of appearance, on the Plaintiff's Attorney(s) within 20 days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service (or within 30 days after the service is complete if this summons is not personally delivered to you within the State of New York); and in case of your failure to appear or answer, judgment will be taken against you by default for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Dated: New York, New York
May 5, 2014

THE LAW OFFICES OF JESSE BARAB
By: Fabiana Marisa Furgal, Esq.
Attorneys for Plaintiff
519 West 179th Street, 2nd Floor
New York, New York 10033
(212) 781-0633

Defendant's address:

THE CITY OF NEW YORK
One Centre Street
New York, New York 10007

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
COUNTY OF NEW YORK

-----X
RUTH HEDIAN, JOANNE CABRERA,
and ELIZABETH SANTANA,

Index No.:

Plaintiff(s),

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

-against-

THE CITY OF NEW YORK,
Defendant (s).

-----X

Plaintiffs, RUTH HEDIAN, JOANNE CABRERA and ELIZABETH SANTANA, complaining of the defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, by their attorney, JESSE BARAB, ESQ., respectfully state and allege as follows:

1. That at the time of the commencement of this action, Plaintiffs RUTH HEDIAN, JOANNE CABRERA and ELIZABETH SANTANA, resided in the City, County, and State of New York.
2. That the defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, is a municipal corporation within the State of New York.
3. That at all times mentioned herein THE POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK was a department of the defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
4. That heretofore and on the 10th and 13th day of September, 2013, and on the 2nd day of October, 2013, and within ninety (90) days after the claim herein sued upon arose, the plaintiffs caused a Notice of Claim and Intention to Sue, in writing, sworn to by or on behalf of the plaintiff to be served upon and filed with the City of New York which said Notice of Claim set forth the name and post office address of the plaintiffs herein and their attorney, the nature of the claim, the time when, the place where and the manner in which the claim arose, and the items of damage or injuries claimed to have been sustained so far as then practicable.

5. That at least thirty (30) days have elapsed since the demand or claim upon which this action is predicated was presented to the City of New York for adjustment and that it has neglected and/or refused to make adjustment or payment thereof.

6. That a 50H hearing has been held and/or waived by the defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK for all plaintiffs in this action.

7. That this action is commenced within one year and ninety days after the cause of action accrued.

8. That on July 18, 2013 and August 16, 2013 Plaintiff JOANNE CABRERA was falsely arrested at 548 West 164th Street, Apt. 1G, New York, NY 10032 and imprisoned on July 18, 2013 and August 16, 2013 at the 33rd Precinct of THE POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, as well as at other locations.

9. That while imprisoned in one or more of THE POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK's locations, Plaintiff JOANNE CABRERA was deprived of her constitutional rights, among them her right to due process, her right to an attorney, and unlawful seizure.

10. That while imprisoned in one or more of THE POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK's locations, Plaintiff JOANNE CABRERA suffered conversion of her personal property removed from the premises at 548 West 164th Street, Apt. 1G, New York, NY 10032 on August 16, 2013.

11. That on July 18, 2013 and August 16, 2013 Defendants violated Plaintiff JOANNE CABRERA's civil rights and that Plaintiff JOANNE CABRERA was psychologically, verbally and physically abused, she was defamed, she was illegally imprisoned, maliciously prosecuted, even though the Defendants knew or should have known that there was no merit to the continuance of the prosecution and that such prosecution was malicious and that the imprisonments were illegal.

12. That Plaintiff JOANNE CABRERA suffered false arrest, illegal imprisonment, violation of civil and constitutional rights, defamation, assault and battery resulting in pain and suffering, emotional, physical and psychological trauma, damage, to her reputation, conversion of her personal property and impairment to her health.

13. That on July 18, 2013 at about 6:35 a.m., Detective James South (Shield No. 6130) and Sergeant Tirado Nicole of the New York City Police Department broke the door of apartment 1G at 548 West 164th Street, New York, New York 10032, entered without permission and without showing a search warrant, searched the apartment, broke other door(s), arrested and handcuffed claimant.

14. That the police ordered JOANNE CABRERA to lie on the floor on dog urine while claimant was dressed in a short nightgown and no underwear so that her partially naked body including private parts were exposed to view of male police officers/ detectives. Said police officers touched her without her consent. At arraignment, she was released on her own recognizance at about 11 p.m. on July 18, 2013.

15. That on August 16, 2013, once again, Detective James South and Sergeant Tirado Nicole of the New York City Police Department broke the door of apartment 1G at 548 West 164th Street, New York, New York 10032 announcing that "this will not be like the last time".

16. That Detective South then demanded to know who in the apartment had called internal affairs regarding his conduct during the July 18, 2013 search and arrest. A flash grenade was thrown into the apartment as the officers entered.

17. That on August 16, 2013, Detective South and Sergeant Nicole allegedly witnessed JOANNE CABRERA putting items in a nightstand next to a bed in a bedroom at the apartment. They inspected same nightstand and claimed to pull out approximately 4 grams of cocaine that was not previously in the nightstand, and subsequently arrested her for possession of controlled substances. JOANNA CABRERA maintains that she was not in possession of any controlled substances at the time of the trespass of the New York Police Department. Rather, the 4 grams “found” in the nightstand were put there by Detective South and Sergeant Nicole.

18. That on August 16, 2013, the police slammed Plaintiff JOANNA CABRERA against a wall and she suffered multiple bruises as she was being handcuffed by a male officer. Claimant was forced to stand handcuffed with her genitals and buttocks exposed in front of several male officers from the Narcotics Division of the NYPD.

19. That on August 16, 2013, the police confiscated ninety dollars ($90.00) in cash from JOANNE CABRERA but never returned to JOANNE CABRERA her money. Her prisoner property receipt states that “$0.00” was confiscated from her person at the time of her arrest.

20. That when JOANNE CABRERA inquired of Detective South and Sergeant Nicole what had become of her ninety dollars ($90.00), she was informed that she was not a resident of the premises, and therefore not entitled to the return of her money.

21. That JOANNE CABRERA’s Apple I-Phone 5 was confiscated at the scene by Detective South and Sergeant Nicole. JOANNE CABRERA’s prisoner property receipt does not indicate the confiscation of plaintiff’s cell phone, and this property was never returned to

JOANNE CABRERA.

22. That on August 16, 2013 Plaintiff ELIZABETH SANTANA was falsely arrested at 548 West 164th Street, Apt. 1G, New York, NY 10032 and imprisoned on August 16, 2013 at the 33rd Precinct of THE POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, as well as at other locations.

23. That while imprisoned in one or more of THE POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK's locations on August 16, 2013, Plaintiff ELIZABETH SANTANA was deprived of her constitutional rights, among them her right to due process, her right to an attorney, and unlawful seizure.

24. That on August 16, 2013 Defendant violated Plaintiff's civil rights and that Plaintiff, ELIZABETH SANTANA, was psychologically, verbally and physically abused, she was defamed, she was illegally imprisoned, maliciously prosecuted, even though the Defendants knew or should have known that there was no merit to the continuance of the prosecution and that such prosecution was malicious and that the imprisonments were illegal.

25. That Plaintiff ELIZABETH SANTANA suffered false arrest, illegal imprisonment, violation of civil and constitutional rights, defamation, assault and battery, and property damage resulting in pain and suffering, emotional, physical and psychological trauma, damage to her reputation and to her personal property, and impairment to her health.

26. That on August 16, 2013, Detective James South and Sergeant Nicole Tirado of the New York City Police Department broke the door of apartment 1G at 548 West 164th Street, New York, New York 10032, where ELIZABETH SANTANA was spending the night, announcing that "this will not be like the last time". A flash grenade was thrown into the apartment at this time.

27. That Det. South and Sgt. Tirado then entered the apartment without permission and without showing a search warrant, searched the apartment, broke other door(s), arrested and handcuffed ELIZABETH SANTANA. ELIZABETH SANTANA was then held in a van outside of the apartment for several hours, and then brought to central booking where she was fingerprinted and had her picture taken.

28. That on August 16, 2013, at central booking in Manhattan, ELIZABETH SANTANA repeatedly asked why she was being detained and was told by an Officer Sosa to “not worry about it”, her “big mouth is what got her in trouble in the first place”, and that if she did not shut up, “I will tell them you’re pregnant, and crazy, and you’ll end up in Bellevue”.

29. That several hours later, ELIZABETH SANTANA was finally released without explanation of the reason for her arrest and subsequent detention on August 16, 2013.

30. That on July 18, 2013, Plaintiff RUTH HEDIAN suffered damage to her personal property and/or personal property was unlawfully removed from her home at 548 West 164th Street, Apt. 1G, New York, NY 10032 pursuant to an unlawful search conducted by THE POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

31. That on August 16, 2013 Plaintiff RUTH HEDIAN was assaulted at her home at 548 West 164th Street, Apt. 1G, New York, NY 10032 by Defendants and suffered damage to her personal property and/or personal property was unlawfully removed from her home at 548 West 164th Street, Apt. 1G, New York, NY 10032 pursuant to an unlawful search conducted by THE POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

32. That Plaintiff RUTH HEDIAN was deprived of her constitutional right protecting her from unlawful search and seizure on July 18, 2013 and August 16, 2013.

33. That on August 16, 2013 Defendants violated Plaintiff's civil rights and that Plaintiff RUTH HEDIAN was psychologically and verbally abused, and she was defamed.

34. That Plaintiff RUTH HEDIAN suffered violations of civil and constitutional rights, defamation, assault resulting in pain and suffering, emotional, physical and psychological trauma, damage, to her reputation and her personal property, loss of personal property and impairment to her health.

35. That on July 18, 2013 at about 6:35 a.m., Detective James South (Shield No. 6130) and Sergeant Nicole Tirado of the New York City Police Department broke the door of claimant's apartment 1G at 548 West 164th Street, New York, New York 10032, entered without permission and without showing a search warrant, searched RUTH HEDIAN's apartment, and broke other door(s). Det. South and Sgt. Tirado ransacked RUTH HEDIAN's apartment leaving it in complete disarray. At 7:45 a.m., RUTH HEDIAN spoke on the phone with Detective James South who informed her that "[n]othing has happened yet, no one is hurt. You need to come pick up the dogs."

36. That on July 18, 2013, RUTH HEDIAN returned to her said apartment at 10 a.m. She was immediately confronted by several narcotics officers who demanded to know her identity as they shoved a warrant so close to her face she was unable to read the text on the page. Plaintiff RUTH HEDIAN urinated on the spot from fright, as the officers in her home screamed at her and ransacked her apartment.

37. That on July 18, 2013, the New York City Police Department officers and/or detectives took $3,800 of RUTH HEDIAN's cash from her apartment. The officers/detectives did not note this confiscation, and did not give RUTH HEDIAN any voucher nor other written receipt therefore. The monies have not been returned to RUTH HEDIAN to date. RUTH HEDIAN filed a report with Internal Affairs regarding this theft on or about July 20, 2013. RUTH HEDIAN continues to communicate with Sergeant Freas from Internal Affairs regarding the investigation of this matter.

38. That on August 16, 2013, once again, Detective James South and Sergeant Nicole Tirado of the New York City Police Department broke the door of apartment 1G at 548 West 164th Street, New York, New York 10032 announcing that “this will not be like the last time”. Detective South then demanded to know who in the apartment had called Internal Affairs regarding his conduct during the July 18, 2013 search and arrest. A flash grenade was thrown into the apartment at this time.

39. That on August 16, 2013 Det. South and Sgt. Tirado entered without permission and without showing a search warrant, searched the apartment, broke other door(s), and fixtures in the apartment. The toilet bowl was removed from the bathroom by the officers and broken over RUTH HEDIAN’s bed.

40. That on August 16, 2013, photographs were collected from around RUTH HEDIAN’s apartment by the New York City Police Department and put under the pile of urine and feces on claimant’s bed where the toilet was broken. RUTH HEDIAN believes this act was intended as a threat of future harassment or harm by Detective South and Sergeant Tirado.

41. That on August 16, 2013 the officers/detectives took $1,200 of RUTH HEDIAN’s cash and $40 of RUTH HEDIAN’s son’s money. The officers did not give a voucher or other receipt for the money, and have never returned RUTH HEDIAN’s monies to her or to her son to date.

RUTH HEDIAN continues to communicate with Sergeant Freas from Internal Affairs, regarding the investigation of this matter.

42. The police officer agents of defendant at all times acted under color of state law in denying plaintiff's rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

43. At the time of commencement of this action, plaintiffs RUTH HEDIAN, JOANNE CABRERA and ELIZABETH SANTANA resided in the City and State of New York, county of New York.

44. That Defendant City operates and governs the New York City Police Department pursuant to the laws of the State of New York.

45. That at all times pertinent hereto, the police officers involved in this incident were employed by the New York City Police Department.

46. That all police officers were acting as police officers and detectives in the scope of their employment for Defendant City.

47. That at the time of the alleged incident and at all times pertinent hereto, Defendant's agents acted under color of law, of a statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage.

48. That on or about December 31, 2013, Plaintiff JOANNE CABRERA appeared for a 50-H hearing and that all conditions precedent to the commencement of the within action have been fulfilled.

49. That on or about November 13, 2013, Plaintiff RUTH HEDIAN appeared for a 50-H hearing and that all conditions precedent to the commencement of the within action have been fulfilled.

50. That on or about October 10, 2013, Plaintiff ELIZABETH SANTANA appeared for a 50-H hearing and that all conditions precedent to the commencement of the within action have been fulfilled.

51. That Defendant's agents acted with actual malice toward Plaintiffs and with willful and wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for the statutory and constitutional rights of Plaintiffs.

52. That Defendant's agents constitute unreasonable and excessive use of force, deprivation of liberty and punishment without due process of law.

53. That as a direct and proximate result of the acts and omissions of defendants, Plaintiffs were mentally and physically sick, suffering insomnia, nightmares, anxiety and continue to feel pain and was forced to suffer pain and mental cruelty, was deprived of their physical liberty, and were forced to incur medical and legal expenses.

COUNT I: VIOLATION OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS UNDER §1983

54. Plaintiffs incorporate herein by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 53.

55. The intentional entry into plaintiffs' apartment without consent, handcuffing of plaintiffs JOANNE CABRERA and ELIZABETH SANTANA, detention of all Plaintiffs, and intimidation of Plaintiffs violated the rights of Plaintiffs as guaranteed by the First, Fourth, Fifth, and Eighth Amendments to the United States Constitution and such misconduct constituted a departure from the evolving standards of decency that mark the progress of a maturing society.

56. The intentional entry into said apartment, the touching of the plaintiffs, unconsented to search of the apartment, handcuffing of JOANNE CABRERA and ELIZABETH SANTANA, was done with actual malice toward Plaintiffs and with willful and wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for the constitutional rights of Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs are thus entitled to exemplary damages.

COUNT II: VIOLATION OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS TO COUNSEL & DUE PROCESS

57. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 56.

58. The police improperly and deliberately entered apartment 1G and handcuffed JOANNE CABRERA and ELIZABETH SANTANA.

59. This policy and practice of Defendant City encouraged and caused constitutional violations by police officers, including the violation of plaintiffs' constitutional rights by the police officers described in the foregoing paragraphs.

60. That at all times pertinent hereto, the supervisors who supervised the Defendant officers who unlawfully violated Plaintiff's rights encourage and tolerate the policies and practices described in the foregoing paragraphs.

61. That Defendant City refused adequately to train, direct, supervise, or control Defendant officers so as to prevent the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights.

62. That at all times pertinent hereto, Defendant's agents were acting within the scope of their employment and pursuant to the aforementioned policies and practices of Defendant City. These policies and practices were enforced by Defendant City and its employee supervisors, and were the moving force, proximate cause, or affirmative link behind the conduct causing Plaintiffs' injuries. Defendant City is therefore liable for the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights by its police officers all in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

COUNT III: ASSAULT AND BATTERY

63. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 62.

64. That as a proximate result of the assault and battery committed by Defendant's agents, Plaintiffs have sustained permanent injuries and has incurred medical bills and other expenses. These injuries have caused and will continue to cause Plaintiff great pain and suffering, both mental and physical.

65. That the intentional conduct towards Plaintiff by Defendant's agents while Plaintiff was in his care and custody was done with actual malice toward Plaintiff and with willful and wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for human life and the rights of Plaintiff as a civilian in the public population. Plaintiff is thus entitled to exemplary damages.

COUNTY V: INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

66. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 65.

67. That Defendant's agents intentional abuse of Plaintiffs' constitutional rights to be free from unlawful searches and seizures in their home and right to be free from false imprisonment and assault and battery while detained all abused Plaintiffs in a manner that was extreme, outrageous, and unjustified, and caused Plaintiffs to suffer physical and emotional distress.

68. That the intentional abuse of Plaintiffs was unjustified and done with actual malice and wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for human life and the rights of plaintiff. Plaintiff is thus entitled to exemplary damages.

COUNT V: NEGLIGENCE

69. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 68.

70. That Defendant's agents, while acting as agents and employees for Defendant City in their capacity as police officers for Defendant City, owed a duty to Plaintiffs to perform their police duties without the use of intimidation, coercion and verbal and physical abuse and their conduct as set forth herein and refusing to abide by plaintiffs' constitutional rights, when Plaintiffs were unarmed, one of them was a minor child and did not pose a threat of death or grievous bodily injury to Defendants or others constitutes negligence.

71. That as a proximate result of Defendants' negligence, Plaintiffs have sustained permanent injuries and have incurred medical bills and other expenses. These injuries have caused and will continue to cause plaintiffs pain and suffering, both mental and physical.

72. At all times of the alleged incident, Defendant's agents were acting within the scope of their employment as officers of the Defendant City Police Department.

73. That Defendant City is liable for compensatory damages under the doctrine of respondeat superior for the negligence of defendants committed within the scope of their employment.

COUNT VI: NEGLIGENCE

74. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 73.

75. That Defendant City owed a duty to Plaintiffs to train and supervise and otherwise control its police officers in the use of coercion, intimidation, violation of constitutional guarantees and other matters incidental to the exercise of police functions.

76. That Defendant City failed to provide adequate training, supervision, and control of Defendant's agents involved in the obtaining and execution of this search warrant which failure constitutes negligence.

77. That as a proximate result of Defendant City's negligent failure to provide adequate training, supervision, and control of said police officers, Plaintiffs have sustained permanent injuries and they have incurred and will continue to incur medical bills and other expenses. These injuries have caused and will continue to cause plaintiffs pain and suffering, both mental and physical.

78. That Defendant City's failure to provide adequate training and supervision to its police officers constitutes a willful and wanton indifference and deliberate disregard for human life and the rights of private citizens, including Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs are thus entitled to exemplary damages.

COUNT VII: MALICIOUS ABUSE OF PROCESS, FALSE ARREST, AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

79. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 78.

80. That Defendant's agents used the criminal process against Plaintiffs in order to falsely arrest two of them of which they were not guilty.

81. That Defendant's agents falsely arrested, handcuffed and falsely imprisoned Plaintiff Dejesus and falsely arrested and imprisoned the other three plaintiffs without cause.

82. That as a proximate result of this malicious abuse of process, false arrest, and false imprisonment, Plaintiffs suffered the damages as aforesaid.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request that this Court enter judgment against the Defendants and award the following amounts:

- a. Judgment in favor of each of the plaintiffs in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of all lower courts;
- b. Exemplary damages in favor of Plaintiff;
- c. Costs of this action, including reasonable attorney fees to the Plaintiff pursuant to The Civil Rights Attorney's Fees Awards Act of 1976, 42 U.S.C. §1988 (1976); and
- d. Such other and further relief as the court may deem appropriate.

Dated: New York, New York
May 5, 2014

THE LAW OFFICES OF JESSIE BARAB
By: Fabiana Marisa Furgal, Esq.
Attorneys for Plaintiffs
519 West 179th Street, 2nd Floor
New York, New York 10033
(212) 781-0633

STATE OF NEW YORK)
)
COUNTY OF NEW YORK) ss.:

RUTH HEDIAN, the plaintiff in the foregoing action, being duly sworn, depose and say as follows:

That I am the plaintiff in the foregoing action and reside in the City, County, and State of
New York.

That I have read the foregoing Complaint and know the contents thereof; that the same is true to my own knowledge except as to the matters therein stated to be alleged upon information and belief and that as to those matters I believe them to be true.

RUTH HEDIAN

Sworn to before me this
7 day of May 2014

NOTARY PUBLIC

DANIA HENRIQUEZ
NOTARY PUBLIC-STATE OF NEW YORK
No. 01HF6200182
Qualified in New York County
My Commission Expires February 02, 2017

STATE OF NEW YORK)
)
COUNTY OF NEW YORK) ss.:

JOANNE CABRERA, the plaintiff in the foregoing action, being duly sworn, depose and say as follows:

That I am the plaintiff in the foregoing action and reside in the City, County, and State of New York.

That I have read the foregoing Complaint and know the contents thereof; that the same is true to my own knowledge except as to the matters therein stated to be alleged upon information and belief and that as to those matters I believe them to be true.

JOANNE CABRERA

Sworn to before me this
7 day of May 2014

NOTARY PUBLIC

DANIA HENRIQUEZ
NOTARY PUBLIC-STATE OF NEW YORK
No. 01HE6200182
Qualified in New York County
My Commission Expires February 02, 2017

STATE OF NEW YORK)
)
COUNTY OF NEW YORK) ss.:

ELIZABETH SANTANA, the plaintiff in the foregoing action, being duly sworn, depose and say as follows:

That I am the plaintiff in the foregoing action and reside in the City, County, and State of
New York.

That I have read the foregoing Complaint and know the contents thereof; that the same is true to my own knowledge except as to the matters therein stated to be alleged upon information and belief and that as to those matters I believe them to be true.

ELIZABETH SANTANA

Sworn to before me this
9 day of May 2014

NOTARY PUBLIC

DANIA HENRIQUEZ
NOTARY PUBLIC-STATE OF NEW YORK
No. 01HE6200182
Qualified in New York County
My Commission Expires February 02, 2017

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
COUNTY OF NEW YORK

RUTH HEDIAN, JOANNE CABRERA and ELIZABETH SANTANA,

Plaintiff(s),

-against-

THE CITY OF NEW YORK,

Defendant(s).

SUMMONS AND VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JESSE BARAB, ESQ.

Attorney for the Plaintiffs

RUTH HEDIAN, JOANNE CABRERA and ELIZABETH SANTANA

Office and address

519 West 179th Street, 2nd Floor

New York, New York 10033

(212) 781-0633
