Case Summary

On September 13, 2020, § 87(2)(b) made the following complaint to IAB who then referred it to the CCRB on September 28, 2020 and was assigned case number 202006549. The CCRB has no video evidence of this incident.

At the beginning of his scheduled telephone interview on October 6, 2020, § 87(2)(b) initially accepted mediation but then stated he would rather withdraw this complaint. He did not want to proceed with mediation or an investigation, citing he lives out of state and is busy with work. He added he only wanted to file the complaint and did not want to get anyone in trouble. The investigator explained that the process would be remote so there would be no need to travel, but he did not change his mind. § 87(2)(b) has decided to consider the incident a misunderstanding.

§ 87(2)(b) confirmed that this is a voluntary withdrawal and that no member of the NYPD or the CCRB coerced him into doing so. The Withdrawal Complaint letter was emailed to § 87(2)(b) on October 15, 2020 and will be added to the file upon return. The telephone withdrawal conversation is in the recording of the telephone call in IA #19 at timestamp 3:06. Manager Vanessa Rosen reviewed the call and confirmed that it adheres to agency standards. § 87(2)(g)
