Plaintiff, LATISHA MALDONADO, by her attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for her Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On April 15, 2023, at approximately 3:05 a.m., Plaintiff, while lawfully in the vicinity of 738 Flatbush Avenue, County of Kings, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, and excessive use of force by the defendant officers. In addition, Plaintiff was subjected to assault, battery, and approximately twenty-two (22) hours in unlawful custody by defendant officers at Kings County Central Bookings before she was arraigned in criminal court, charged with crimes she did not commit, and released on her own recognizance. The charges falsely made against Plaintiff by defendant officers were dismissed and sealed on or around July 26, 2023. Plaintiff was deprived of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and her constitutional, common law, and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, subjected to excessive force, maliciously prosecuted, and passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys against the Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of New York.

3. NYPD Police Officer Jhonny Sinchi, Shield No. 27399, was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. NYPD Police Officer Jhonny Sinchi, Shield No. 27399, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

5. Upon information and belief, NYPD Police Officer Jhonny Sinchi, Shield No. 27399, was at all times relevant herein assigned to the NYPD 70th Precinct.

6. New York City Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One Through Six are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

7. New York City Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One Through Six are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

10. Plaintiff in furtherance of her causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

11. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

12. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

13. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On April 15, 2023, at approximately 3:05 a.m., Plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of 738 Flatbush Avenue in Brooklyn, New York, when the defendant officers unlawfully arrested her absent probable cause or legal justification.

15. At the referenced place and time, Plaintiff was checking out at the counter inside a crowded deli, when defendant officers entered and ordered everyone out of the store.

16. The deli clerk handed Plaintiff her purchased items so that she could leave, at which time she was tackled by defendant officers.

17. The defendant officers, in an aggressive, unjustified, and uncoordinated manner, pushed and pulled Plaintiff's limbs, and dragged her face about the floor of the store.

18. As a result of their actions, immediately apparent were Plaintiff's facial injuries, including rug burn across her face.

19. The defendant officers began to arrest Plaintiff, subjecting her to unlawful pat-down search and tightly restraining her with unreasonably tight metal handcuffs and shackles.

20. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the defendant officers have an objective basis to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

21. At no point did the defendant officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

22. At no point did Plaintiff obstruct any official, lawful governmental function by being a paying patron in the subject establishment.

23. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.

24. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and tightly handcuffed and shackled by the defendant officers without probable cause or legal justification.

25. Thereafter, Plaintiff was transported to the emergency room at Kings County Hospital, where she was examined and treated for her many injuries, which included a sprained ankle, knee and arm pain, and a rug burn on her face.

26. From the hospital, Plaintiff was placed in the back of a police vehicle and transported against her will to Kings County Central Bookings, where she was fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a holding cell.

27. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading, and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime; specifically, Obstructing Governmental Administration, Resisting Arrest, and Disorderly Conduct.

28. In the evening of that day, on or about April 15, 2023, Plaintiff was arraigned in Kings County Criminal Court, charged with crimes she did not commit, and released on her own recognizance.

29. Thereafter, on or about July 26, 2023, all the baseless charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed in their entirety.

30. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably arresting, confining, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.

31. The unlawful arrest, confinement, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological, and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

32. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

33. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

34. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers were unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against her was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by, among other things, tightly handcuffing her and causing physical injury.

35. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

36. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

37. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

38. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

39. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

40. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

41. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

42. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

43. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

44. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

45. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

46. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

47. The individually named defendant officers, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

48. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
False Arrest/False Imprisonment

49. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

50. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

51. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

52. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

53. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

54. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Excessive Force

55. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

56. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, tackling her to the ground and slamming her face into the floor, and dragging her across the floor causing injury, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of her rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

57. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

58. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

59. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff.

60. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

61. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

62. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

63. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

64. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training, and Supervision

65. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

66. The City of New York and its employees, servants, and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train, and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

67. Upon information and belief, the defendant officers had known histories of misconduct or disciplinary complaints, which the City ignored.

68. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

69. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

70. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's constitutional rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

71. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

72. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff suffered serious, debilitating, and permanent emotional and psychological injury, her liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, she was put in fear for her safety, and she was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

73. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

74. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

75. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

76. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

77. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

78. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

79. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

80. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

81. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and a fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

82. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of her constitutional rights.

83. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

84. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

85. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, physical, and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
42 U.S.C. § 1983 and New York State Law
Malicious Prosecution

86. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

87. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York.

88. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

89. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which she was prosecuted.

90. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONAssault

91. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

92. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.

93. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

94. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

95. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

96. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONBattery

97. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

98. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner, tackled her to the ground, pulled her limbs, pressed her face into the floor, and dragged her across the floor, without her consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.

99. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

100. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

101. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

102. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

103. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

104. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

105. The acts of the defendant officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in her person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

106. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing her detention for approximately twenty-two (22) hours in total.

107. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured psychological and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

108. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

109. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

110. The defendant officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in her person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

111. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

112. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, and thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of her rights.

113. By reason of the acts and omissions by the defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured psychological and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

114. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

115. The defendant officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

116. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual defendant officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual defendant officers.

117. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

118. The acts of the defendant officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in her person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

119. The defendant officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing her detention for approximately twenty-two (22) hours in total.

120. By reason of the acts and omissions by defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured psychological and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONCity-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

121. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

122. The defendant officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

123. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual defendant officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual defendant officers.

124. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

125. The defendant officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in her person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

126. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

127. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, and thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of her rights.

128. By reason of the acts and omissions by the defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical, psychological, and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

129. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

130. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:

- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of her person and property;
- ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
- iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against her by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
- v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

131. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, psychological, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

132. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, psychological, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

133. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

134. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, LATISHA MALDONADO, demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 et seq..
