MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF NYPD'S DEVIATION FROM THE DISCIPLINARY SYSTEM PENALTY GUIDELINES

Re: PODS Case Nos. C-033927 & C-034926 regarding Police Officer Kenneth Vega, Tax No. 976462

Date: July 21, 2026

This disciplinary matter was investigated by the Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") which involved allegations that Police Officer Vega spoke discourteously towards an individual, wrongfully used force against the individual, and strip-searched an individual without sufficient legal authority. CCRB has determined that a downward deviation from the Disciplinary System Penalty Guidelines is warranted.

I concur with the downward deviation for the reasons articulated by CCRB in the attached correspondence.

Therefore, the Charges and Specifications in this matter will be dismissed and Police Officer Vega will be issued a Schedule "B" Command Discipline with the forfeiture of ten (10) vacation days, as negotiated by CCRB.

Re: CCRB v. PO Kenneth Vega (CCRB #202311278 and #202404782, Tax #976462, PODS #C-033927 and #C-034926)

Commissioner Tisch:

I write to you regarding the negotiated settlement in the above-referenced case.

The CCRB recommended that Officer Vega receive a dismissal of the Charges and Specifications and imposition of a Command Discipline B with a forfeiture of ten (10) vacation days. This is a downward deviation from the NYPD's Disciplinary Matrix for the charge of an unauthorized/unwarranted Strip Search on case C-034926. The CCRB offered this disposition for the following reasons:

1. PO Vega agreed to take responsibility for his misconduct;
2. PO Vega's lack of any prior NYPD disciplinary history;
3. Officer Vega was relying on information he received from by other police personnel; and
4. The chaotic circumstances surrounding the on-street strip search.

Respectfully submitted,

Andre D. Applewhite
