Case Summary

On May 30, 2023, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with IAB via telephone. On June 8, 2023, IAB referred this complaint, with original log number § 87(2)(b), to the CCRB.

On May 29, 2023, at approximately 11:02 PM, Police Officer Yassir Zahroof and Police Officer Latif Hasanbegovic, both of the 122nd Precinct, responded to § 87(2)(b) in Staten Island after a 911 caller witnessed § 87(2)(b) breaking into a yellow taxi. § 87(2)(b) was still in the taxi when the officers arrived and PO Zahroof told § 87(2)(b) to get out of the “fucking” car (Allegation A: Discourtesy, Within NYPD Guidelines). Both PO Hasanbegovic and PO Zahroof used force to remove § 87(2)(b) from the vehicle before placing him in handcuffs (Allegations B & C: Force, Within NYPD Guidelines). An officer allegedly tightened § 87(2)(b) handcuffs (Allegation D: Force, Unfounded). Additional units arrived as backup, including Police Officer Laurene Bove of the 122nd Precinct, who transported § 87(2)(b) to the 122nd Precinct stationhouse.

Later, at approximately 11:10 PM, at the 122nd Precinct stationhouse, PO Bove called § 87(2)(b) a “fucking ass,” after he threw himself to the ground (Allegation E: Discourtesy, Substantiated). Deputy Inspector Timothy Wilson, commanding officer of the 122nd Precinct, approached § 87(2)(b) with a taser in his hand (Allegation F: Abuse of Authority, Unfounded). DI Wilson said, “bullshit,” while speaking to § 87(2)(b) (Allegation G: Discourtesy, Substantiated).

§ 87(2)(b) was taken to § 87(2)(b). While getting him ready for transport, PO Hasanbegovic said, “shit,” twice while speaking to § 87(2)(b) (Allegations H & I: Discourtesy, Substantiated).

On May 30, 2023, at approximately 4:47 AM, Police Officer Daniel Orleans of the 122nd Precinct transported § 87(2)(b) from § 87(2)(b) to the 120th Precinct stationhouse in Staten Island where Sergeant Mark Meyers of the 120th Precinct said, “shit,” multiple times in front of § 87(2)(b) (Allegation J: Discourtesy, Substantiated). PO Orleans told § 87(2)(b) he was “full of shit” (Allegation K: Discourtesy, Substantiated). PO Orleans repeated the word “bitch” when § 87(2)(b) spoke about nurses at the hospital (Allegation L: Discourtesy, Substantiated & Allegation M: Offensive Language, Substantiated).

§ 87(2)(b) was arrested and charged with two counts of criminal mischief, petit larceny, unauthorized use of a vehicle, and criminal possession of a controlled substance (BR 01).

This case was originally assigned to former Investigator Elijah Munro-Ludders and was reassigned to Investigator Nick Venduras on August 9, 2023, upon their departure from the agency.

The NYPD Legal Department provided 19 Body-Worn Camera (BWC) videos in regard to this case (BR 02 – BR 20). The NYPD Strategic Technology Division provided four stationhouse security videos in regard to this case (BR 21 – BR 24). The investigation is not in possession of additional video.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Discourtesy: On May 29, 2023, at § 87(2)(b) in Staten Island, Police Officer Yassir Zahroof spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (B) Force: On May 29, 2023, at § 87(2)(b) in Staten Island, Police Officer Latif Hasanbegovic used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (C) Force: On May 29, 2023, at § 87(2)(b) in Staten Island, Police Officer Yassir Zahroof used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (D) Force: On May 29, 2023, at § 87(2)(b) in Staten Island, an officer tightly handcuffed § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (F) Abuse of Authority: On May 29, 2023, at the 122nd Precinct stationhouse, Deputy Inspector Timothy Wilson threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

§ 87(2)(b) told the CCRB that at the time of the incident he was under the influence of fentanyl and did not remember many details (BR 25). § 87(2)(b) remembered he was asleep in an unknown location when officers, identified by the investigation as PO Hasanbegovic and PO Zahroof, woke him up. § 87(2)(b) realized the officers thought he was committing a crime around the time they asked what he was doing, to which he sarcastically answered he was a repossession agent. The officers then placed him in handcuffs.

§ 87(2)(b) did not complain about any force used while officers handcuffed him but did tell the officers his handcuffs were too tight on his right wrist (BR 25). When § 87(2)(b) asked the officers to loosen the handcuffs, they answered the handcuffs were supposed to be that tight, not comfortable. When officers placed § 87(2)(b) into a police vehicle for transport to the 122nd Precinct stationhouse, an unknown officer either physically or “mentally pushed” him in such a way that his handcuffs tightened. § 87(2)(b) did not clarify what “mentally pushed” meant and acknowledged the acceleration of the police vehicle may have tightened the handcuffs. Despite § 87(2)(b) requests to loosen the handcuffs, officers never did.

After arriving at the 122nd Precinct stationhouse, § 87(2)(b) went to the hospital for about nine hours where staff checked his head for injury and psychiatrically evaluated him (BR 25). The officers removed § 87(2)(b) handcuffs only after he was released from the hospital.

§ 87(2)(b) made no other force allegations.

EVENT #§ 87(2)(b) confirms a male witness called 911 at 10:46 PM to report a male in a dark hooded sweatshirt, light colored pants, and a backpack used a stick to break into a yellow taxi (BR 26). A female witness also called 911 at 10:50 PM to report the same incident and said the male subject was still inside the taxi. The first unit to respond, comprised of PO Hasanbegovic and PO Zahroof, arrived at 10:52 PM.

PO Hasanbegovic’s and PO Zahroof’s BWCs show the first portion of the incident in front of § 87(2)(b) and are consistent with each other (BR 02 & BR 03).

At 1:08 of PO Zahroof’s BWC, PO Zahroof exits his vehicle and approaches the parked yellow taxi (BR 03). There is no driver’s side window and broken glass is visible on the ground. At 1:17, PO Zahroof asks § 87(2)(b) who is in the driver’s seat wearing a dark grey hooded sweatshirt and a backpack, to step out twice. § 87(2)(b) looks at PO Zahroof and mumbles what sounds like “What’s going on?” At 1:18, PO Zahroof opens the driver’s side door and PO Hasanbegovic grabs § 87(2)(b) left arm while both officers instruct § 87(2)(b) to exit the vehicle. § 87(2)(b) does not move. At 1:22, after telling § 87(2)(b) to exit the vehicle four times, PO Zahroof tells § 87(2)(b) “Get out of the fucking car.” At 1:24, PO Zahroof grabs § 87(2)(b) left arm and presses it against the taxi while PO Hasanbegovic grabs his other arm.

PO Zahroof and PO Hasanbegovic then pull § 87(2)(b) out of the car by his arms and onto the ground, where they place him in handcuffs.

At 1:58, as PO Zahroof appears to double lock the handcuffs, § 87(2)(b) asks if he can loosen them, but PO Zahroof replies, “No, they’re not meant for comfort.” At no point in the BWC footage obtained by the investigation does any officer appear to tighten § 87(2)(b) handcuffs, there are no clicking sounds indicating the handcuffs get tighter, and § 87(2)(b) never complains that they get tighter.

PO Bove’s BWC captures § 87(2)(b) transport to, and arrival at, the 122nd Precinct stationhouse (BR 05). At 13:36, PO Bove, PO Stam, and § 87(2)(b) arrive at the 122nd Precinct stationhouse. At 14:14, after PO Stam opens the rear driver’s side door, § 87(2)(b) calls PO Bove a “300-pound bitch,” as he exits the vehicle and complains about how tight his handcuffs are. The officers say, “Let’s go,” multiple times. At 14:28, § 87(2)(b) falls to the ground and the officers bring him to his feet at 14:38. At 14:42, § 87(2)(b) says loudly he could kick PO Bove in the face, calls her a “bitch,” and says she is lucky that he does not kick her. At 15:05, while inside the stationhouse, § 87(2)(b) appears to throw himself to the ground, pulling PO Stam forward. He shouts that he needs to go to a hospital because PO Bove pushed him. § 87(2)(b) also tells PO Bove to get away and appears to try to kick her while he is on the floor.

At 15:30, DI Wilson, holding a Taser, approaches § 87(2)(b) (BR 05). DI Wilson tells § 87(2)(b) to stop and assures him he will go to the hospital. § 87(2)(b) remains on the floor shouting at officers. While DI Wilson holds his Taser during this portion of the incident, at no point does he point it at § 87(2)(b) nor does he verbally threaten § 87(2)(b) with it.

PO Bove’s BWC does not show when DI Wilson walks away from § 87(2)(b) but BWC by Desk Sergeant Yesenia Gomez of the 122nd Precinct shows DI Wilson approaching § 87(2)(b) at 1:18 and returning to the desk area at 3:46 (BR 12). While her BWC does not always show DI Wilson, whenever he is shown, his Taser is pointed away from § 87(2)(b).

PO Hasanbegovic stated that when he saw the taxi and broken glass on the street, as well as § 87(2)(b) inside the vehicle which was severely damaged and “ripped up,” he determined to arrest § 87(2)(b) (BR 27). The officers told § 87(2)(b) to get out of the taxi multiple times, but § 87(2)(b) did not appear to understand them and stayed inside. PO Hasanbegovic believed § 87(2)(b) was under the influence of some substance based on his slurred speech, his apparent inability to understand the officers’ instructions, and his noncompliance.

Since this job was a possible car theft, and since § 87(2)(b) was not complying with the officers’ instructions, PO Hasanbegovic was concerned that § 87(2)(b) could hotwire the vehicle and drive away, creating a dangerous situation (BR 27). Due to these concerns, PO Hasanbegovic and PO Zahroof pulled § 87(2)(b) out of the taxi by his arms onto the ground and placed him in handcuffs. PO Hasanbegovic never tightened the handcuffs, nor did he observe PO Zahroof do anything similar.

PO Zahroof’s statement was generally consistent with PO Hasanbegovic’s with some additional details (BR 28). Because the taxi had a silent hybrid engine, PO Zahroof could not tell if the vehicle was on or off and at one point, he thought § 87(2)(b) might drive away. While removing § 87(2)(b) from the vehicle, PO Zahroof bent § 87(2)(b) arm as a tactical maneuver to keep control of § 87(2)(b) arm so he could not close the door on them, which could cause officers injury, and to prevent § 87(2)(b) from trying to punch or strike the officers. At no point did PO Zahroof tighten § 87(2)(b) handcuffs, nor did he observe PO Zahroof do anything similar.

PO Zahroof said he used the word, “fucking,” while instructing § 87(2)(b) out of the vehicle to emphasize how serious he was as he had already given these directions two or three times and § 87(2)(b) was noncompliant and incoherent (BR 28). PO Zahroof did not intend to insult § 87(2)(b) personally.

DI Wilson stated that he was behind the 122nd Precinct Stationhouse’s command desk when he heard § 87(2)(b) yelling near a door that he could not see from his angle (BR 29). Wanting to ensure the safety of his officers, DI Wilson left the desk area and picked up a Taser to be prepared for whatever was happening. As he walked around the desk toward the commotion, DI Wilson saw the handcuffed § 87(2)(b) on the floor kicking, continually moving, and screaming at officers. DI Wilson considered § 87(2)(b) combative, loud, “out of control,” and “out of line.” DI Wilson did not know why § 87(2)(b) was on the floor but after seeing him, DI Wilson determined the taser was not necessary. DI Wilson never pointed the Taser at § 87(2)(b). DI Wilson stated since he did not have a Taser holster, he kept it in his hand, which was the safest place for it at the time.

According to the “Mission, Vision, and Values of the New York Police Department” found in the Patrol Guide, officers are to maintain a higher standard of integrity than is generally expected of others, respect the dignity of each individual, and render services with courtesy and civility (BR 32).

In DCT Case #79627/04, the court ruled that when a police officer uses an otherwise impolite word during a stressful street encounter where that officer is attempting to maintain control of the situation, the police officer’s verbal slip does not rise to the level of actionable misconduct (BR 33).

By the time PO Zahroof used the word “fucking” with § 87(2)(b) was under arrest for breaking into the taxi and had ignored multiple instructions to exit the taxi. § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation A be closed as Within NYPD Guidelines.

Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01 states that the primary duty of all members of the service is to protect human life, including the lives of individuals being placed in police custody (BR 30). It states that force may be used when it is reasonable to ensure the safety of a member of service or a third person, or otherwise protect life, or when it is reasonable to place a person in custody or to prevent escape from custody.

Patrol Guide Procedure 221-08 provides guidance on the use of conducted electrical weapons, generally referred to as tasers (BR 31). It says a taser should only be used against persons who are actively resisting, exhibiting active aggression, or to prevent individuals from physically injuring themselves or other people present. A taser should be regarded as a possible alternative to force and restraint, where practical, and the use of a taser is prohibited in situations that do not require the use of physical force. A taser should never be used on a rear-cuffed prisoner.

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) was unable or unwilling to follow PO Zahroof's and PO Hasanbegovic's multiple commands to exit the vehicle he had broken into and damaged. § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended Allegations B and C be closed as Within NYPD Guidelines.

There is no BWC footage showing any officer tightening § 87(2)(b) handcuffs, nor are there any clicking sounds to indicate the handcuffs tightened once PO Zahroof placed them on § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(g) It is therefore recommended that Allegation D be closed as Unfounded.

§ 87(2)(g) loud and unruly § 87(2)(b) was inside the stationhouse, as evidenced by his loud, profanity-laced language, and that he threw himself to the ground, § 87(2)(g). BWC confirms that DI Wilson, as per his statement, never pointed his Taser at the rear-cuffed § 87(2)(b) nor did he verbally threaten to use it on § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(g) BWC captures DI Wilson's uniform, the investigation credits DI Wilson's explanation that he did not have a Taser holster on his belt. § 87(2)(g) It is therefore recommended that Allegation F be closed as Unfounded.

Allegation (E) Discourtesy: On May 29, 2023, at the 122nd Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Laurene Bove spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (G) Discourtesy: On May 29, 2023, at the 122nd Precinct stationhouse, Deputy Inspector Timothy Wilson spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (H) Discourtesy: On May 29, 2023, at the 122nd Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Latif Hasanbegovic spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (I) Discourtesy: On May 29, 2023, at the 122nd Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Latif Hasanbegovic spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (J) Discourtesy: On May 30, 2023, at the 120th Precinct stationhouse, Sergeant Mark Meyers spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (K) Discourtesy: On May 30, 2023, at the 120th Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Daniel Orleans spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (L) Discourtesy: On May 30, 2023, at the 120th Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Daniel Orleans spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (M) Offensive Language: On May 30, 2023, at the 120th Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Daniel Orleans made remarks to § 87(2)(b) based upon the gender of an individual.

§ 87(2)(b) said officers "verbally abused" him by saying something he did not think was appropriate, which made him uncomfortable, but he could not elaborate further (BR 25).

At 15:18 of PO Bove's BWC, while § 87(2)(b) is shouting on the stationhouse floor that PO Bove pushed him, PO Bove says, "fucking ass," quietly to herself after he appears to try to kick her (BR 05). § 87(2)(b) is moving erratically on the ground, but only his upper body is shown. At 15:59, when § 87(2)(b) tells DI Wilson he was repossessing the taxi, DI Wilson responds with, "Bullshit." § 87(2)(b) replies, "Bullshit?"

In PO Hasanbegovic's BWC at 6:20, PO Hasanbegovic says he does not want to "cut § 87(2)(b) shit," in reference to the strings in § 87(2)(b) sweatshirt (BR 14). At 13:04, PO Hasanbegovic tells § 87(2)(b) to lift his leg up to adjust his leg shackles. At 13:12, PO Hasanbegovic says § 87(2)(b) is "making my shit difficult."

In his second of three BWCs, PO Orleans, who escorted § 87(2)(b) to the hospital and then to the 120th Precinct stationhouse at approximately 4:47 AM the next day, recorded a conversation between Sgt. Meyers and § 87(2)(b) inside the 120th Precinct stationhouse (BR 17). At 22:15, as he explains to § 87(2)(b) that PO Orleans is searching him for safety, Sgt. Meyers says, "People do stupid shit," and repeats that phrase at 22:23. Then, in response to an inaudible statement from § 87(2)(b) Sgt. Meyers says, "Shit happens." At 23:39, as PO Orleans begins to lead § 87(2)(b) away from the desk, Sgt. Meyers asks, "He's been ok? He's been calm and shit?"

Later, while waiting to go into the fingerprinting room, § 87(2)(b) and PO Orleans talks about what happened at the hospital (BR 17). § 87(2)(b) who is calm and at times makes jokes, says he does not believe anything that PO Orleans says. At 32:20, PO Orleans laughs and says § 87(2)(b) is, "full of shit." At 33:00, PO Orleans explains that § 87(2)(b) was rude to female nurses. § 87(2)(b) says they are "wannabe doctors," and then calls one of them a "fat bitch." PO Orleans responds, "There was no fat bitch," at 33:04.

All of the subject officers stated that they did not intend to insult § 87(2)(b) with their vocabulary (BR 27 – BR 29, BR 34 – BR 36).

PO Bove explained that she called § 87(2)(b) a "fucking ass," quietly because he threw himself to the stationhouse floor and because he tried to kick her while on the ground (BR 34).

DI Wilson said he mirrored § 87(2)(b) language when he used the word, "bullshit," to show he knew § 87(2)(b) was not telling the truth about being a repossession agent (BR 29).

PO Hasanbegovic explained he was somewhat annoyed and frustrated with § 87(2)(b) intoxication and belligerence, and the word, "shit," slipped out (BR 27).

Sgt. Meyers said, "Stupid shit," and, "Shit happens," in reference to people acting improperly in the cells, like bringing in contraband or weapons or attempting self-harm (BR 35). Sgt. Meyers asked if § 87(2)(b) had been "calm and shit," to level with § 87(2)(b) and keep him calm while explaining the process. Sgt. Meyers believed this tactic worked as § 87(2)(b) seemed to understand and went through the process smoothly.

PO Orleans thought he had an amiable interaction with § 87(2)(b) and explained he said § 87(2)(b) was "full of shit," in a friendly conversational way to mean he thought § 87(2)(b) was not being fully truthful (BR 36). PO Orleans did not recall saying, "There was no fat bitch," but acknowledged he saw it on BWC. He explained he only repeated what § 87(2)(b) said when talking about the insulted nurses that PO Orleans knew. PO Orleans did not mean to offend anyone with his use of profanities while he tried to keep the interaction calm and congenial.

The "Mission, Vision, and Values of the New York City Police Department" section of the Patrol Guide requires officers to maintain a higher standard of integrity than is generally expected of others, respect the dignity of each individual, and render services with courtesy and civility (BR 32).

Even though PO Bove spoke quietly when she called § 87(2)(b) a “fucking ass,” this comment was still audible on BWC § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation E be closed as Substantiated.

It is undisputed that DI Wilson said “Bullshit,” and PO Hasanbegovic, Sgt. Meyers, and PO Orleans said, “Shit,” either in front of, or to, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegations G to K be closed as Substantiated.

§ 87(2)(g) although § 87(2)(b) said it first, § 87(2)(g) PO Orleans repeated it back to § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegations L and M be closed as Substantiated.

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- This is the first CCRB complaint to which § 87(2)(b) has been a party (BR 37).
- Deputy Inspector Timothy Wilson has been a member of service for 24 years and has been the subject in eight CCRB complaints and 12 allegations, one of which was substantiated:
 - 202006683 involved a substantiated allegation of a forcible removal to the hospital against DI Wilson. The Board recommended Command Discipline A and the NYPD imposed no penalty. § 87(2)(g)
- Sergeant Mark Meyers has been a member of service for ten years and has been the subject in three CCRB complaints and three allegations, none of which were substantiated.
- Police Officer Yassir Zahroof has been a member of service for seven years and has been the subject in four CCRB complaints and 11 allegations, none of which were substantiated.
