FACTUAL CHARGES

16. On February 25, 2017 at approximately 12:10 a.m., Mr. Ortiz was falsely arrested in the vicinity of Morris Avenue and East 165th Street in the County of Bronx, State of New York.

17. On said date, time and location, defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, approached, stopped, questioned, searched, detained and arrested Mr. Ortiz without reasonable suspicion or probable cause to do so, as Mr. Ortiz had not committed any crime or violation of the law.

18. Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, falsely claimed that they observed video surveillance depicting Mr. Ortiz having a brief conversation with two individuals that defendants suspected to be involved in a recent burglary.

19. Defendants falsely claimed was Mr. Ortiz acting in concert to commit a burglary said individuals, despite not being privy to statements made in any such conversations and being fully aware that no such conversations ever transpired in reality.

20. At no time did Mr. Ortiz ever engage in conversation with other individuals for the purpose of acting in concert with said individuals to commit any crimes or violation of the law.

21. At no time did Mr. Ortiz ever commit a burglary or other crime of violation of the law.

22. As a result of defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, knowingly and intentionally fabricating false observations, Mr. Ortiz was falsely arrested and charged with Burglary in the 3rd Degree and other related charges.

23. Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, were fully aware that Mr. Ortiz did not act in concert with other individuals to commit a burglary, but defendants knowingly and intentionally decided to fabricate said observation to justify an otherwise invalid arrest and to ensure that plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and ultimately convicted.

24. Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, were fully aware that Mr. Ortiz was not observed or otherwise accused of committing any acts in furtherance of the alleged burglary.

25. Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, arrested and maliciously prosecuted Mr. Ortiz, not because he was guilty of any crime, but rather because they sought to utilize his arrest and subsequent prosecution as leverage against the true suspects.

26. Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, therefore attempted to unlawfully coerce Mr. Ortiz into providing false statements against defendants' true suspects, despite being fully aware that Mr. Ortiz was completely innocent and ignorant as to anything related to the alleged burglary.

27. Mr. Ortiz had multiple assaults and batteries committed to his person, including, but not limited to, being placed in handcuffs by defendants, including Jimenez and Blain.

28. Plaintiff was rear handcuffed by defendants, including Jimenez, and Blain, and placed in a NYPD vehicle to be transported to a NYPD precinct or processing location.

29. Upon arrival at said location or while plaintiff was illegally searched, questioned, photographed and fingerprinted by, or at the direction of defendants, including Jimenez, and Blain.

30. Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, intentionally provided said false information that would be likely to influence a jury's decision to prosecutors employed by the District Attorney's Office, so that a criminal prosecution would be initiated against Mr. Ortiz, namely that defendants observed Mr. Ortiz acting in concert with the true suspects, that Mr. Ortiz was acting as a lookout, or that he was somehow criminally complicit in the burglary.

31. Defendant Jimenez was Mr. Ortiz's arresting officer and signed his criminal court complaint under Arrest Number B17610789 and Criminal Docket Number 2017BX008448, knowingly and falsely accusing Mr. Ortiz of Burglary in the 3rd Degree, Petit Larceny, Criminal Possession of Stolen Property, Criminal Trespass, Trespass, all of which defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, knew to be untrue.

32. Mr. Ortiz was arraigned and formally charged with one Burglary in the 3rd Degree and other related charges.

33. At no point did the defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, ever observe Mr. Ortiz ever commit Burglary in the 3rd Degree, Petit Larceny, Criminal Possession of Stolen Property, Criminal Trespass, Trespass or any other crimes or offenses.

34. At no point did the defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, ever observe Mr. Ortiz aid, abet, importune or otherwise render assistance to other individuals who had committed such crimes or offenses.

35. At no point did the defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, ever possess any reason to believe that Mr. Ortiz had committed, acted in concert to commit or conspired to commit and such crimes or violations of the law.

36. At no point were the defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, ever told by any witnesses that Mr. Ortiz committed any crime or violation of the law or that Mr. Ortiz aided, abetted or otherwise acted in concert with others who committed any crime or violation of the law.

37. Mr. Ortiz was held unlawfully in custody over the course of thirty-six (36) hours.

38. As a result of his criminal prosecution, Mr. Ortiz was subjected to various post-arraignment restrictions on his liberty and freedom of movement, as he was compelled to return to court approximately fifteen (15) times over the course of one-year-and six-months to contest the false charges levied against him, including Burglary in the Third Degree and other related charges.

39. On August 13, 2018, all charges against Mr. Ortiz were unconditionally dismissed by Hon. J. Rodriguez III, pursuant to CPL § 160.50, representing a termination of the criminal charges in Mr. Ortiz' favor.

40. Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, did not possess a valid, judicially authorized arrest warrant for Mr. Ortiz.

41. Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, did not possess probable cause or other justification for the arrest or seizure of Mr. Ortiz' person.

42. Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, never possessed probable cause to believe a prosecution would succeed against Plaintiff, or that Plaintiff was guilty of any crime, as defendants were fully aware that any evidence against Plaintiff was either fraudulent or fabricated, including the observation provided by defendants, including Jimenez, and Blain,, in which Mr. Ortiz falsely accused of Burglary in the 3rd Degree, Petit Larceny, Criminal Possession of Stolen Property, Criminal Trespass, Trespass and other related charges.

43. While Plaintiff was unlawfully detained, Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, acting with malice, conveyed the aforementioned false, misleading and incomplete information to prosecutors in order to have Plaintiff prosecuted for Burglary in the 3rd Degree, Petit Larceny, Criminal Possession of Stolen Property, Criminal Trespass, Trespass and other related charges and other related charges.

44. Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, intentionally, knowingly and falsely made said allegations to conceal their otherwise illegal, tortious and sinister acts, namely entering a residence illegally without a search warrant, arresting an individual without probable cause.

45. Defendants, including Jimenez, and Blain, suppressed evidence and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, including the fabrication of false evidence and the gratuitous use of excessive force against plaintiff.

46. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including Jimene and Blain, and John or Jane Does 1-10, were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene when they observed others arresting Plaintiff without probable cause or using excessive force to effectuate his arrest.

47. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, and John or Jane Does 1-10, engaged in fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other actions conducted in bad faith, or failed to intervene when defendants observed others doing so, all in furtherance of Plaintiff's wrongful arrest and subsequent malicious criminal prosecution.

48. Plaintiff asserts that the defendants, including Jimenez and Blain, and John or Jane Does 1-10, who violated plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD, and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD, and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City, and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact their police officers.

49. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD, and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

50. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD, and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to engage in the fabrication or misrepresentation or subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses.. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

51. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

52. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars."

Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

53. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

54. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

55. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

56. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause.

57. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

58. Defendants’ actions, pursuant to plaintiff’s underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff’s civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and City of New York.

59. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD, and City of New York.

60. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

61. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City, and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD, and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Jimenez and Blain, and John or Jane Does 1-10.

62. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of defendants including Jimenez and Blain, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violations of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, violations of New York State law, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.
