THE DISCIPLINARY SYSTEM PENALTY GUIDELINES

Re: Disciplinary Case No. 2024-31626 / PODS Case No. C-030576 regarding Police Officer Brenden Rogers, Tax No. 972920

Date: April 24, 2026

This disciplinary matter was investigated by the Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") which involved allegations that Police Officer Rogers threatened to remove an individual to the hospital without sufficient legal authority, used offensive language, and was discourteous towards the individual. CCRB has determined that a downward deviation from the Disciplinary System Penalty Guidelines is warranted.

I concur with the downward deviation for the reasons articulated by CCRB in the attached correspondence.

Therefore, the Charges and Specifications in this matter will be dismissed and Police Officer Rogers will receive Training, as negotiated by CCRB.

Re: CCRB v. PO Brenden Rogers (CCRB #202303246, Tax #972920, DADS #2024-31626)

Commissioner Tisch:

I write to you regarding the negotiated settlement in the above-referenced case.

The CCRB has recommended that Officer Brenden Rogers receive a disposition of training in this matter. This is a downward deviation from the NYPD's Disciplinary Matrix for the charge of Offensive Language. The CCRB recommended this disposition for the following reasons:

1. Officer Rogers' accountability.
2. Officer Rogers' lack of disciplinary history.

Respectfully submitted,

Andre D. Applewhite
