Case Summary

On September 19, 2023, § 87(2)(b) filed the following complaint over the phone with the CCRB processing system.

On September 16, 2023, at approximately 11:30 PM, § 87(2)(b) and three other individuals were standing on the sidewalk, outside of § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan. Police Officers Brian Ramirez, Daniel Estevez, Lewis Lara, Jimmy Infanzon, Mauro Ramosarias, Donald Alexandre, Miguel Iguazgonzalez, Emmanuel Etienne, Ariana Matos, Jose Tavarez, Yamilex Adames, Brian Brittan, David Radziwon, Orlando Valerio, Holger Sarango, Md Almamun, Aleksey Berezovskiy, Fengguang Lin, Ayoub Kamara, Raymond Perez, Arhenis Lopezestevez, Steffano Thomas, Franklin Garrido and Lieutenant Bletcher of the 32nd Precinct responded to the incident location. Sergeants Marni Schwager and Dewan Campbell and Police Officers Karen Zhao, Vicente Perez, Briant Tineo, Mark Rodriguez, and Siwy Made of the Manhattan North Community Response Team also responded to the location. PO Ramirez stopped § 87(2)(b) (Allegation A: Abuse of Authority, Stop- Unable to Determine). § 87(2)(b) walked up to the incident location and PO Estevez allegedly pushed § 87(2)(b) against a wall, punched him in the back of the head and pepper sprayed him (Allegation B and C: Force, Physical Force- Alleged Victim Uncooperative and Allegation D: Force, Pepper Spray- Alleged Victim Uncooperative). PO Ramirez then pushed § 87(2)(b) (Allegation E: Force, Physical Force- Within NYPD Guidelines). During the interaction, Lt. Bletcher searched § 87(2)(b) bag (Allegation F: Abuse of Authority, Search of person- Substantiated). At the end of the interaction, Lt. Bletcher issued § 87(2)(b) a retaliatory summons. (Allegation G: Abuse of Authority, Retaliatory Summons- Substantiated).

The CCRB received 35 body worn camera videos from NYPD Legal in relation to this incident (Board Review 01).

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Brian Ramirez stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (B) Force: Police Officer Daniel Estevez used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (C) Force: Police Officer Daniel Estevez used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (D) Force: Police Officer Daniel Estevez used pepper spray against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (E) Force: Police Officer Brian Ramirez used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (F) Abuse of Authority: Lieutenant Michael Bletcher searched § 87(2)(b) bag.

Allegation (G) Abuse of Authority: Lieutenant Michael Bletcher issued a retaliatory summons to § 87(2)(b)

In § 87(2)(b) CCRB statement he stated the following: On September 16, 2023, at approximately 11:30 PM, § 87(2)(b) was on his phone, standing outside of § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 02). There were three other people approximately ten feet away from him. One person was holding a clear cup of water. Lieutenant Bletcher drove up to where § 87(2)(b) was standing and told § 87(2)(b) to move the car that was parked in front of the hydrant. § 87(2)(b) pulled his car forward so that it was not in front of the fire hydrant. Approximately five minutes later, an unmarked car drove up to where § 87(2)(b) was standing without lights or sirens activated and four officers got out, one of them being PO Ramirez. § 87(2)(b) was approached by PO Ramirez, who said “You were drinking liquor, give me your ID”. PO Ramirez then told him to calm down. § 87(2)(b) stated, “Don’t touch me, I’m not giving you consent to touch me. I was not drinking, and y’all don’t see any cup or have any reason to think I was drinking.” § 87(2)(b) refused to give PO Ramirez his ID. As § 87(2)(b) was speaking to PO

Ramirez, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) brother approached them and asked what was happening to § 87(2)(b). PO Estevez then approached § 87(2)(b) grabbed his hoodie, and slammed him against the wall a few feet away. § 87(2)(b) face and chest hit the wall and PO Estevez then punched § 87(2)(b) in the back of his head. § 87(2)(b) did not hear PO Estevez give any orders before he approached § 87(2)(b). A crowd then began to form across the street by § 87(2)(b) and PO Estevez. As § 87(2)(b) was trying to walk over to § 87(2)(b) and record what was happening, PO Ramirez grabbed him by the chest and told him to calm down. § 87(2)(b) then heard someone in the crowd say "Oh... he maced him!" He looked up and saw PO Estevez with a mace in his hand and § 87(2)(b) with his head in his hands. PO Estevez then maced § 87(2)(b) again. PO Ramirez pushed § 87(2)(b) on the chest and told him to back up. § 87(2)(b) told PO Ramirez to stop touching him and asked Lt. Bletcher, "Are you allowing him to do this?" and the Lieutenant did not respond. § 87(2)(b) said to Officer Ramirez, "You're acting tough" and he responded, "I really am tough." Lt. Bletcher said, "You're getting a ticket for an open container." The Lieutenant then asked Officer Ramirez where § 87(2)(b) ticket was and Officer Ramirez stated, "I didn't see him drinking." Lt. Bletcher pointed to § 87(2)(b) Mercury Milano and stated, "Well, I'm going to give you a ticket for your tints." § 87(2)(b) asked why he didn't give him a ticket earlier when he asked § 87(2)(b) to move his car. Lt. Bletcher said, "Don't worry about it, just give me your license, I'm giving you a ticket now." EMS arrived and § 87(2)(b) was checked because he was having an anxiety attack. § 87(2)(b) was taken to the 32nd Precinct and released with a disorderly conduct summons.

§ 87(2)(b) phone number was received from § 87(2)(b). On the first call on October 4, 2023, Inv. Bhadauria attempted to contact § 87(2)(b). Inv. Bhadauria introduced the CCRB as a city agency that investigates police misconduct and the call abruptly ended. On the second call on October 10, 2023, Inv. Bhadauria contacted § 87(2)(b) and as Inv. Bhadauria introduced herself, the call abruptly ended. On October 25, 2023, Inv. Bhadauria contacted § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) stated he was busy at that moment and asked if Inv. Bhadauria could call at around 12 on October 26, 2024. On October 26, 2024, Inv. Bhadauria contacted § 87(2)(b). The call rang through to voicemail and Inv. Bhadauria left a message asking for a call back. On November 29, 2023, at 11:59 AM, Inv. Bhadauria spoke to § 87(2)(b) who agreed to give a statement on November 29, 2023, at 2 P.M. § 87(2)(b) was called twice and failed to appear for his scheduled interview.

The CCRB received a warrant audit for § 87(2)(b) on the incident date (Board Review 03). PO Lara ran a warrant search for § 87(2)(b) on 23:35:15 and PO Adames ran a warrant search for § 87(2)(b) on 23:46:39.

On Lt. Bletcher's BWC, at the 0:55 minute mark, Lt. Bletcher gets out of the car. Officer Ramirez states, "ID man" and begins to touch § 87(2)(b) arm (Board Review 04). § 87(2)(b) states to stop touching him. At 1:25, PO Ramirez states, "You're out here drinking." § 87(2)(b) turns to Lt. Bletcher and states, "You just pulled up- I didn't have no cup." At 1:32, there is some type of noise in the background and § 87(2)(b) walks forwards and says, "Yo that's my brother." Lt. Bletcher grabs § 87(2)(b) elbow and pulls him back and tells him to relax. At 1:44, Lt. Bletcher walks to where § 87(2)(b) is and tells other civilians to step back. At 2:14, Lt. Bletcher turns to § 87(2)(b) who is pushed up against a handrail on the sidewalk, pulls on his sweatshirt, and states, "Put your hands behind your back bro." Multiple civilians state, "Why are you spraying him though." At 2:25, § 87(2)(b) begins coughing. As Lt. Bletcher commands § 87(2)(b) to put his hands behind his back, § 87(2)(b) bends over the handrail and there is a noise of liquid splashing against the ground. At 2:46, there is a voice in the background stating, "He has my bag!" Lt. Bletcher continues to tell them to relax. At 2:57, someone states, "I just need my bag bro." Lt. Bletcher states, "I'm going to give it back to you, relax." The voice states "I just need my bag bro." Lt. Bletcher states he's going to give it back. Lt. Bletcher then returns to where § 87(2)(b) is standing. At 3:47 § 87(2)(b) states, "I never had nothing to drink. I wasn't drinking at all." Lt. Belcher: "He said he saw you drinking brother." § 87(2)(b) responds, "How? I'm standing right here, where? I'm asking you, when you pulled past, did you see me with a cup?" Lt. Bletcher states no. At 4:22, Lt. Bletcher states, "He said he saw you drinking, we need your ID brother." § 87(2)(b) gives his ID to Lt. Bletcher, who gives it to PO Adames/ it is unclear what Lt. Bletcher is doing with the bag. § 87(2)(b) states that there is nothing in the bag." An individual asks Lt. Bletcher why he is searching the bag. Lt. Bletcher states, "I didn't search the bag, I just felt the bag." Lt. Bletcher then asks the individual if he has ID saying it's his bag. At 6:17, Lt. Bletcher tells § 87(2)(b) that he cannot leave. At 9:01, § 87(2)(b) asked if he could have his bag back. Lt. Bletcher asked if he received a summons and § 87(2)(b) says that he didn't. Lt. Bletcher asks if the bag is § 87(2)(b) or the other individual's bag. § 87(2)(b) states that it is his bag and that the other individual is his brother. Lt. Bletcher asks PO Adames if § 87(2)(b) received a summons and she states no. Lt. Bletcher states that § 87(2)(b) is getting a summons. § 87(2)(b) asked what he is getting a summons for. Lt. Bletcher states that it will say it on the summons. At 10:23, Lt. Bletcher hands the bag to the other individual because he "said it was his bag". § 87(2)(b) records officers who are standing in the street. At 13:55, Lt. Bletcher states, "Y'all good, 98 bro, we good." § 87(2)(b) continues recording the officers and states, "Yeah, y'all can go now. We ain't gonna do nothing. Y'all ain't going to get to beat no black people up tonight. Y'all good, y'all straight. I'm just getting you all on camera" At the 23:55:06 real time stamp, Lt. Bletcher states, "That's your car right?" When § 87(2)(b) says yes, Lt. Bletcher says "Tinted windows too?". Lt. Bletcher asks for § 87(2)(b) license again, which § 87(2)(b) gives. At 14:50, a civilian states, "Lieutenant, don't do that." Lt. Bletcher stated, "Your man was talking crazy bro." § 87(2)(b) and Lt. Bletcher walk to where his car is. § 87(2)(b) gives Lt. Bletcher his car's registration. At 16:23 PO Lara walks up to Lt. Bletcher and states the license is valid. Lt. Bletcher states, "Yeah, I know. But tints, tints, tints, tints." PO Lara says OK and a summons is issued for tinted windows.

On PO Matos' BWC, at the 2:35 minute mark, the blue bag is seen beside § 87(2)(b) PO Matos is seen instructing civilians to step away from the arrest location. At 2:50, an individual states, "I dropped my bag, can I pick my bag up." He is seen bending down and the arm of Lt. Bletcher is also seen. The individual states, "Let me get my bag, he has my bag" and PO Matos instructs him to let go. At the 5:00 minute mark, Lt. Bletcher is seen opening a blue drawstring bag and looking inside (Board Review 05).

On PO Ramirez's BWC (Board Review 06), at 1:00, he approaches the group and states, "I'm just giving you a heads up. You're out here drinking. Let me see your ID. Let me see your ID. I'm seeing cups over here; I'm seeing open containers. Let me see your ID's. Listen you're out here drinking, you got loud music." § 87(2)(b) stated, "You just walked up on me bro." PO Ramirez states, "Sir, sir, sir, I'm telling you, honestly you're out here drinking." § 87(2)(b) states, "I'm not drinking." PO Ramirez states, "We just saw you down the block. ID. ID." § 87(2)(b) begins walking and PO Ramirez grabs his forearm and states, "Sir, sir, you're being-" § 87(2)(b) states, "Can you not touch me? Don't touch me bro." § 87(2)(b) is then near the crowd. § 87(2)(b) repeats not to touch him. PO Ramirez states, "Let me see your ID. This will be the last warning I give you." At 1:53, § 87(2)(b) is pushed back by what appears to be two officers. § 87(2)(b) moves forwards and at 2:05, PO Ramirez grabs both of § 87(2)(b) hands and pushes him backwards. § 87(2)(b) tells PO Ramirez to stop touching him and PO Ramirez tells § 87(2)(b) to relax. He continues to push § 87(2)(b) backwards until 2:30, where he pushes § 87(2)(b) back a final time and lets go of his arms.

Lieutenant Bletcher stated, in his CCRB interview, that he and his partner, PO Infanzon, were driving on West 141 Street, when he observed a vehicle parked in front a hydrant, as well as different groups of 3 to 4 people congregating on the block, with one of the groups playing loud music (Board Review 07). Lt. Bletcher drove around the block and called for back-up before approaching the people on the block, because he feared the people might become hostile once officers approached. After calling for back-up, Lt. Bletcher, PO Infanzon, PO Ramirez and PO Matos approached the group playing the loud music, of which he believed that the driver of the vehicle parked by the hydrant, § 87(2)(b) was a part of. Lt. Belcher explained to § 87(2)(b) that he was stopping him because of his vehicle. While Lt. Belcher was talking with § 87(2)(b) something happened between § 87(2)(b) and other officers, causing a commotion, but he did not see the actions of § 87(2)(b) or the officers. While this was happening, Lt. Bletcher observed a bag on the ground and picked it up. He did not know who the bag belonged to. Multiple people claimed the bag belonged to them. Lt. Bletcher patted the bag down to see if it contained a weapon and also looked inside to find identification to verify whose bag it was. In regard to the summons he issued § 87(2)(b) for tints, Lt. Bletcher explained that he made the decision to issue the summons for the tints, once the situation had calmed down after the commotion with § 87(2)(b) Lt. Bletcher did not know why he stated “your man was talking crazy bro” when a civilian asked him why he was issuing § 87(2)(b) a summons.

PO Ramirez stated in his CCRB interview, that he responded to Lt. Belcher’s call of people drinking in the vicinity of 141 Street and Lenox Avenue (Board Review 08). When PO Ramirez arrived on the scene, he observed a group of three people, including § 87(2)(b). A male began pouring alcohol into multiple plastic cups, so PO Ramirez made the decision to approach the group and asked them for their IDs because they were drinking in public. § 87(2)(b) refused to provide his ID. While PO Ramirez was interacting with this group, there was an altercation between some officers and another individual, but PO Ramirez did not see what was happening. § 87(2)(b) tried to walk toward the alteration. PO Ramirez told § 87(2)(b) to back up and held onto his arms and walked him away from the altercation. § 87(2)(b) held up his hands to try to fight and PO Ramirez held onto his wrists. PO Ramirez was still investigating § 87(2)(b) for drinking and § 87(2)(b) was not free to leave. Afterwards, § 87(2)(b) provided his ID to another officer on scene. PO Ramirez told PO Matos, another officer on scene, to issue open container summonses to the three people who initially saw drinking and believed that § 87(2)(b) was issued a summons for an open container.

New York Criminal Procedure Law §140.10, states that a police officer may arrest a person for any offense which they have reasonable cause to believe such person has committed such offense in their presence (Board Review 09).

New York City Administrative Code § 10-125 B states that no person shall drink or consume an alcoholic beverage, or possess, with intent to drink or consume, an open container containing an alcoholic beverage in any public place except at a block party, feast or similar function for which a permit has been obtained (Board Review 10).

Patrol Guide 221-01, Force Guidelines, (Board Review 11) defines excessive force to be “Use of force deemed by the investigating supervisor as greater than that which a reasonable officer, in the same, situation, would use under the circumstances that existed and were known to the MOS at the time force was used.” Additionally, members of the service will use de-escalation techniques to gain voluntary compliance from a subject to reduce the necessity to use force.

NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 212-11, Investigative Encounters (Board Review 12), states, “A police officer cannot ‘frisk’ a bag or item of personal property unless the officer has a reasonable suspicion that the person is armed and dangerous and the bag or item could contain a weapon and is within the person’s reach.”. At which point, if an officer feels an object and reasonably suspects it is a weapon or dangerous instrument, they may enter the pocket/interior portion to remove the object.

In People v. Ramirez-Portoreal 88 N.Y.2d 99 (Board Review 13), officers boarded a bus, asked the defendant whether a bag was his, and when he denied ownership, officers searched the bag and found heroin and marijuana. Courts ruled to suppress evidence found in the bag, stating that “Property is deemed abandoned when the expectation of privacy in the object or place search has been given up by voluntarily or knowingly discarding the property” and finding that the People did not meet the burden of establishing the waiver of constitutional protection for the bag.

The New York City Police Department Disciplinary System and Penalty Guidelines notes in regard to abuse of authority, that that misconduct includes abuse of enforcement action such as an arrest or summons for which there is a lawful basis, however, but for the officer's improper motive, enforcement action would not have been taken (Board Review 14). DCT Disciplinary Case No. 80514/04, a member of the NYPD forfeited ten vacation days and received reinstruction regarding the Department's Courtesy, Professionalism, and Respect policy for issuing summonses as a weapon of retaliation against a complainant who used profanity towards him. The officer was found to have "allowed his personal feelings to cloud his judgment as an officer of the law" (Board Review 15).

§ 87(2)(g) is therefore recommended that Allegation A be closed as Unable to Determine.

§ 87(2)(g) BWC does not show the entirety of the incident and § 87(2)(b) did not witness what had happened, § 87(2)(g). It is therefore recommended that Allegations B, C, and D be closed as Victim Uncooperative.

BWC shows § 87(2)(b) moving forwards, towards § 87(2)(b) while PO Ramirez directs him to get back. § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation E be closed as Within NYPD Guidelines.

BWC shows, while officers are instructing civilians to step away from § 87(2)(b) arrest, an individual approaches and asks to retrieve a blue bag, which is seen next to § 87(2)(b) Lt. Bletcher reached for the bag at the same time as the individual and PO Matos instructed the individual to let the bag go. Lt. Bletcher then frisked the bag and did not feel anything that could have been a weapon. He continued to open the bag and look inside to see if there was an identification of the owner of the bag. He did not find any identification in the bag. After Lt. Bletcher concluded the search, he returned the bag to the individual who initially claimed ownership thus confirming that the bag was not abandoned property. § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation F be closed as Substantiated.

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) car had unlawfully tinted windows. § 87(2)(g)

BWC shows that Lt. Bletcher stopped § 87(2)(b) at the beginning of the incident, had received his ID, and had given § 87(2)(b) his ID back before the incident ended. Only once § 87(2)(b) made the comment about officers not being able to beat up black people, did Lt. Bletcher ask for his ID the second time. Warrant audits also show that § 87(2)(b) was checked twice for warrants before this point. § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation G be closed as Substantiated.
