Results of Investigation

Civilian Statement(s)

Complainant/Victim: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) at the time of incident, is a § 87(2)(b) black male with black hair and brown eyes.

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on January 7, 2014 (Encl. 8A-B). At approximately 9:22 p.m. on December 19, 2013, § 87(2)(b) was talking to an individual, identified by the investigation as § 87(2)(b) in front of § 87(2)(b)'s building, located at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) stood approximately twenty feet apart, on either side of the front door to § 87(2)(b). There was room for residents to walk between them in order to enter and exit the building. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were speaking at a conversational volume and they did not exchange any objects.

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were speaking for approximately twenty minutes when they observed a marked police van drive by. As the van passed them, it slowed and § 87(2)(b) observed the driver, identified by the investigation as PO Alejandro Valderrama, peer through the window at them. The van proceeded past § 87(2)(b) but came back approximately four minutes later and double parked in front of the building. PO Valderrama and another uniformed police officer, identified as PO Jefferson Garcia, exited the van and approached § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b).

PO Valderrama asked § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) if they lived at the address. § 87(2)(b) replied that § 87(2)(b) lived there, but he did not. PO Valderrama then asked if they had identification on them, and § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) provided their documents to him. PO Valderrama looked at the identification for a few seconds and then informed § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) that he needed to run a check to make sure they were real. PO Valderrama walked to the van and made a call on his cell phone. PO Garcia remained behind with § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). When PO Valderrama walked away, § 87(2)(b) asked PO Garcia what his partner was doing. PO Garcia informed § 87(2)(b) that PO Valderrama was running a warrant check on their identification.

PO Valderrama returned and gave the identification to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). PO Valderrama told them that he could issue them a summons for standing in the doorway of the building. § 87(2)(b) questioned the officer and said that he and § 87(2)(b) were standing inside a gated area. PO Valderrama then said that he was giving them a warning, but that he could issue them a summons. § 87(2)(b) told the officers that they could not issue them a summons because he lived there. The officers then returned to their vehicle and drove away. Neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) were issued summons or arrested as a result of the incident.

Attempts to § 87(2)(b)

In his CCRB statement, § 87(2)(b) referred to the other man present for this incident only as “§ 87(2)(b)” and provided his home address as § 87(2)(b) Brooklyn, NY 11216. A Lexis Nexis search confirmed that § 87(2)(b) lives at this address. This search did not provide any phone numbers for § 87(2)(b). Two letters were sent to § 87(2)(b) on January 24, 2014 and March 21, 2014. These letters were not returned to the CCRB by the US Postal Service.
