Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On June 12, 2021, at approximately 5:00 p.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of Pacific Street between Kingston Avenue and Brooklyn Avenue, County of Kings, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

16. At the aforementioned place and time, Plaintiff was driving on Pacific Street headed toward his cousin's house, for whom he had just picked up some medicine from a nearby pharmacy.

17. The plaintiff observed several marked and unmarked NYPD vehicles flashing their lights behind him and pulled his vehicle to the side of the road.

18. Several defendant officers in plain clothes approached the plaintiff's vehicle and immediately accused him of making a drug sale, which Plaintiff vehemently denied.

19. It was at this point that the defendant officers began to arrest the plaintiff, tightly restraining him with metal handcuffs.

20. While Plaintiff was in handcuffs, defendant officers subjected the plaintiff to unlawful pat-down search and searched the vehicle as well.

21. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

22. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

23. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.

24. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by the defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, placed in the back of an NYPD vehicle, and transported to the 77th Precinct against his will.

25. Upon his arrival at the 77th Precinct, the Plaintiff was unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a holding cell.

26. Plaintiff kept asking the Defendant Officers why he was in custody, what drugs they are claiming he sold, and they kept him, "Don't worry about it."

27. After over 10 hours at the 77 Precinct, the plaintiff was questioned by defendant officers and was finally informed that he had been arrested for attempted murder; again, the plaintiff adamantly denied any knowledge of or involvement in this crime.

28. Shortly thereafter, the plaintiff was transported to Kings County Central Bookings, where he was again processed and placed in a holding cell.

29. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

30. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Criminal Possession of a Firearm, Assault, and Attempted Murder.

31. After approximately 12 hours in custody at Central Bookings, the plaintiff appeared in criminal court, was charged with crimes he did not commit, his bail was set at $50,000.

32. Plaintiff was able to make bail after approximately two (2) days.

33. The plaintiff made approximately four (4) additional court appearances pertaining to these false charges.

34. On or about January 13, 2022, all charges against the plaintiff were dismissed and sealed.

35. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably arresting, confining, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
