MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF NYPD'S DEVIATION FROM THE DISCIPLINARY SYSTEM PENALTY GUIDELINES

Re: Disciplinary Case No. 2024-30464 (PODS Case No. C-031112) regarding Sergeant John Pedersen, Tax No. 951026

Date: July 1, 2026

This disciplinary matter was investigated by the Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") which involved allegations that Sergeant Pedersen was offensive and discourteous towards an individual by donning an unsanctioned patch on his Department uniform. CCRB has determined that a downward deviation from the Disciplinary System Penalty Guidelines is warranted.

I concur with the downward deviation for the reasons articulated by CCRB in the attached correspondence.

Therefore, the Charges and Specifications in this matter will be dismissed and Sergeant Pedersen will receive Training, as negotiated by CCRB.

Re: CCRB v. Sgt. John Pedersen (Tax Reg. 951026, CCRB Case No. 202208688)

Commissioner Tisch:

Sergeant Pedersen is the sole respondent in the disciplinary proceedings arising from CCRB Case No. 202208688. Sgt. Pedersen accepted the substantiation of the charges (1) Discourtesy and (2) Offensive Language. In return the CCRB recommended NYPD Imposed Training.

This is a deviation from the NYPD's Discipline Matrix, as it relates to the charge for Offensive Language.

The mitigated penalty for Offensive language is forfeiture of one (1) day.

There were no aggravating factors in this case. The factor that led to CCRB's recommendation of a deviated penalty was: (1) the discourtesy and offensive act arose out of the same incident.

CCRB determined that NYPD imposed training was appropriate under the circumstances.

Respectfully submitted,

Andre D. Applewhite
