Plaintiff ANTHONY FRAZIER, by his attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On May 8th, 2019, at approximately 8:00 p.m., plaintiff ANTHONY FRAZIER, was subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. In addition, Plaintiff was imprisoned for approximately nine (9) months by the defendant officers, causing him to suffer significant loss of earnings as well as mental and emotional injury. Plaintiff was denied the right to due process and a fair trial for false charges of conspiracy to commit murder, which were dismissed and sealed on or around October 14, 2020. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, subjected to excessive force, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, maliciously prosecuted, and denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff ANTHONY FRAZIER is a resident of the state of New York.

3. NYPD DETECTIVE JEAN SEDER, SHIELD NO. 4928, is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. NYPD DETECTIVE JEAN SEDER, SHIELD NO. 4928, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 75th Precinct.

5. NYPD DETECTIVE JEAN SEDER, SHIELD NO. 4928, is being sued in their individual and official capacities.

6. NYPD POLICE OFFICERS JOHN DOE NUMBERS 1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

7. NYPD POLICE OFFICERS JOHN DOE NUMBERS 1-10 were at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 75th Precinct.

8. NYPD POLICE OFFICERS JOHN DOE NUMBERS 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

11. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

12. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on March 5, 2021.

13. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

14. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

15. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

16. On May 8th, 2019, at approximately 8:00 P.M., Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by the NYPD and brought to Kings County, New York, without probable cause or legal justification.

17. At the time of the relevant incident(s), Plaintiff was employed as a contractor with a construction company.

18. On March 19, 2019, approximately two months prior to the arrest relevant herein, the Plaintiff was in a bodega located near the intersection of Cleveland Street and New Lots Avenue, County of Kings, New York, where he was discussing a possible construction expansion job.

19. While inside the bodega, Plaintiff observed some young men running past the windows outside, but thought nothing of it.

20. A short time thereafter, the Plaintiff heard shots fired, and people in the vicinity began to scatter. The Plaintiff left the bodega.

21. Almost two (2) months later, on May 8, 2019, the Plaintiff was in Harrisburg, PA for a different construction job when approximately five (5) NYPD officers descended upon him and began to arrest him.

22. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

23. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested, handcuffed, and subjected to unlawful pat-down search by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

24. At no point did Plaintiff resist arrest or become combative with defendant officers.

25. The Defendant Officers then placed the plaintiff in the back of a police vehicle and transported him against his will from Harrisburg, PA back to the NYPD 75th Precinct in Kings County, New York, where he was unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a holding cell.

26. The Plaintiff asked on what grounds he was being arrested, and he was informed that he was being charged with Conspiracy to Commit Murder pertaining to the events of March 19, 2019.

27. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

28. The defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

29. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that the plaintiff was guilty of Conspiracy to Commit Murder, Manslaughter in the First Degree, and Assault in the First Degree.

30. Shortly thereafter, Plaintiff was remanded to Rikers Island Correctional Facility to await trial.

31. Plaintiff was forced to be incarcerated at Rikers during the Covid-19 Pandemic.

32. Plaintiff's criminal defense counsel made a motion to inspect and dismiss the Grand Jury Minutes for Improprieties in the Grand Jury by the District Attorneys Office.

33. On January 10, 2020, Honorable Judge Vincent M. Del Giudice granted Defense Counsel's motion, released Plaintiff after 8 months unlawfully in custody.

34. The Judge's decision focused on the bodega video surveillance, and said that mere presence at the scene of a crime does not mean someone had the culpable mental state, and noted that Plaintiff is 20 years older than any of the participants in the crime, and there is nothing to indicate they knew each other.

35. The Judge was so appalled at the Grand Jury presentation that Plaintiff was released directly from Court.

36. Thereafter, on or around October 14, 2020, all charges against the plaintiff were dismissed and sealed.

37. Plaintiff lost income for all of the relevant time he was unlawfully incarcerated.

38. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, using excessive force, falsely arresting and imprisoning, humiliating, and denying Plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial.

39. The unlawful search, seizure, use of excessive force, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of Plaintiff's right to a fair trial by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

40. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 39 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

41. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

42. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

43. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 42 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

44. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

45. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

46. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

47. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

48. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to financial, emotional, and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

49. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 48 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

50. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning, and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

51. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

52. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

53. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

54. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

55. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 54 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

56. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

57. Defendants lacked probable cause to search Plaintiff.

58. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

59. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

60. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

61. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

62. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 61 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein

63. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

64. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

65. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

66. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff ANTHONY FRAZIER, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

67. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff ANTHONY FRAZIER sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

68. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

69. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

70. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

71. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 70 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

72. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, descending upon him in another state and handcuffing him, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

73. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

74. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 73 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

75. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

76. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

77. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for the charges for which he was prosecuted.

78. The prosecution and criminal proceedings caused Plaintiff to be unlawfully imprisoned for eight (8) months, and thereafter terminated in the plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

79. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

80. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

81. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to financial, emotional, and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

82. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 81 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

83. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff, ANTHONY FRAZIER.

84. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

85. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

86. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

87. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

88. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

89. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 88 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

90. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

91. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

92. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 91 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

93. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

94. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

95. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to unlawful search and other physical constraints.

96. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

97. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

98. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

99. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

100. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff ANTHONY FRAZIER demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
