Case Summary

On March 6, 2023, § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB to report the following incident (BR 1).

On January 31, 2023, at approximately 8:40 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was walking on East 156th Street and 3rd Avenue in the Bronx. While he was walking, PO Ernst Celestin and PO Bismal Tineo (40th Precinct) stopped § 87(2)(b). PO Celestin and PO Tineo then grabbed § 87(2)(b), threw him on the floor, ripped his jacket, and frisked him (Allegation A: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated) (Allegation B: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated) (Allegation C: Force, Substantiated) (Allegation D: Force, Unable to Determine) (Allegation E: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated) (Allegation F: Abuse of Authority, Unable to Determine). One of the officers allegedly then took § 87(2)(b) phone from his hand and threw it on the street while § 87(2)(b) was attempting to record the incident (Allegation G: Abuse of Authority, Officer Unidentified). PO Celestin and PO Tineo had not activated their body-worn cameras (BWC) during those actions (Allegation H: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated) (Allegation I: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated). The officers then tried to break § 87(2)(b) phone, prompting § 87(2)(b) to push PO Celestin off of his phone. PO Celestin then picked up § 87(2)(b) and pushed him. (Allegation J: Force, Substantiated). PO Celestin and PO Tineo then activated their BWC's. PO Eduard Lucero and PO Sinaka Javorovac (40th Precinct) arrived and assisted PO Celestin and PO Tineo in handcuffing § 87(2)(b). While handcuffing him, PO Javorovac said, "What's wrong with you? You must be dumb" (Allegation K: Discourtesy, Substantiated). § 87(2)(b) was then taken back to the 40th Precinct stationhouse and was issued a disorderly conduct summons.

§ 87(2)(g), § 87(4-b)

The CCRB received five BWC videos from the NYPD. The investigation also received a cell phone recording from § 87(2)(b) that did not provide any added information pertinent to the case. (BR 2) (BR 3).

On January 31, 2023, § 87(2)(b) was walking on East 156th Street and 3rd Avenue. § 87(2)(b) was the only person on the sidewalk at that time and was facetimeing his friend while walking. At approximately 8:40 p.m., two black, unmarked cars stopped in front of § 87(2)(b). Four uniformed officers, PO Bismal Tineo, PO Ernst Celestin, PO Eduard Lucero and PO Sinaka Javorovac (40th Precinct), ran toward § 87(2)(b). The officers told § 87(2)(b) to stop and in response, § 87(2)(b) took two steps back before he was grabbed by the officers. Once the officers grabbed § 87(2)(b) they threw him on the floor, then picked § 87(2)(b) up off the floor, ripped his jacket open, and began to search him. § 87(2)(b) was attempting to film the incident on his phone, but one of the officers took § 87(2)(b) phone from his hand and threw the phone in the middle of the street. (BR 4).

At the start of PO Celestin's BWC, PO Celestin is sitting in the rear seat of the RMP, on the driver's side and in the beginning of PO Tineo's BWC, PO Tineo is seated in the front passenger seat. At 00:22, PO Celestin approaches a male in a black jacket, with his hood over his head, and blue jeans, identified as § 87(2)(b) walking down the street, on the sidewalk closest to the driver's side of the vehicle (BR 5). At this point, no bulges are visible from the BWC. Once § 87(2)(b) notices PO Celestin, he raises his arms and begins to walk backwards, facing PO Celestin. § 87(2)(b) is holding his phone in his right hand and appears to be filming. At 00:31, PO Celestin follows § 87(2)(b) as § 87(2)(b) continues to walk back, going slightly faster with every step. At 00:34, PO Celestin runs towards § 87(2)(b) and reaches towards § 87(2)(b). From 00:36- 00:42 in PO Tineo's BWC, he follows about 20 feet behind PO Celestin. § 87(2)(b) moves out of the way of PO Celestin and continues to raise his arms in the air. At 00:37, just after § 87(2)(b) averted PO Celestin's attempt to grab him, PO Tineo grabs § 87(2)(b) and forces § 87(2)(b) onto the hood of a blue parked car (BR 6). PO Celestin then assists PO Tineo and up until 00:47, it is not fully clear what is happening as both PO Celestin's and PO Tineo's BWC's are moving. Between the time markers 00:43 to 00:46 in BWC footage involving PO Celestin, his hand can be observed in an open position as he moves it up and down § 87(2)(b) body. During this period, the BWC footage from PO Tineo was not visible, specifically when § 87(2)(b) was being placed against the car. At 00:47, PO Tineo and PO Celestin walk away and a second unmarked RMP stops next to where PO Tineo and PO Celestin originally stopped § 87(2)(b). Because the first minute of the BWC is just a buffer before the officers activated it, there is no audio in this portion of the BWC (BR 5-6).

PO Celestin and PO Tineo stated that on January 31, 2023, at 9:00 p.m., they observed § 87(2)(b) walking with a heavy bulge in his pocket. PO Tineo said that the bulge was on his right side of his body and that the shape of the bulge resembled a possible firearm. PO Celestin and PO Tineo said that § 87(2)(b) had been looking over his shoulder at the officers prior to being stopped and started saying things like "the fuck you guys looking at? I don't have nothing on me." PO Celestin consulted with the officers in his car and decided to approach § 87(2)(b) about a minute or two after he first noticed him due to the heavy bulge. Upon PO Celestin's approach of § 87(2)(b) PO Celestin and PO Tineo said that § 87(2)(b) began to back pedal, from PO Celestin which made PO Celestin more suspicious because he questioned why a civilian would run away from him. When shown BWC of his approach, timestamp 00:28 to 00:32, PO Celestin was asked to point out where the bulge was on § 87(2)(b) body. PO Celestin was shown frame by frame shots from his BWC and gave conflicting statements as he pointed to the right side of § 87(2)(b) pocket saying that it was weighed down; however, he then pointed to § 87(2)(b) middle to left jacket pocket and said that it looked as if it was weighed down. PO Tineo was shown the same section of PO Celestin's footage and was unable to point to a clear spot with a bulge. PO Tineo was then shown his BWC as he followed about 20 feet behind PO Celestin, and he stated that he was too far away to point out a bulge. PO Celestin was telling § 87(2)(b) to stop, and PO Tineo told § 87(2)(b) to stop running. Meanwhile, PO Celestin said that § 87(2)(b) was being irate and yelling. PO Tineo was of the belief that § 87(2)(b) was going to run away so he grabbed § 87(2)(b) and placed him against a parked car on the street along with PO Celestin. PO Tineo added that he was at a level 2 suspicion at the time because of the alleged bulge on § 87(2)(b) person and when § 87(2)(b) attempted to run, his suspicion was elevated to level 3. PO Celestin and PO Tineo said that § 87(2)(b) was not considered under arrest at this point and that § 87(2)(b) was actively resisting and flailing his arms.

PO Celestin said that because § 87(2)(b) was moving around too much, he was unable to determine what was in § 87(2)(b) pocket, so he and PO Tineo decided § 87(2)(b) was not worth the trouble and walked away without conducting a frisk. PO Tineo believed that PO Celestin frisked § 87(2)(b) who then pushed PO Celestin in response to the frisk. PO Celestin thought he had activated his BWC upon approaching § 87(2)(b) but later realized that his BWC was not on and immediately activated it. PO Tineo said that his BWC was not activated upon his initial approach of § 87(2)(b) because at the moment, he was just thinking about § 87(2)(b) running away. (BR 7-8)

According to People v. Jones, 164 A.D. 3d 1363, if a defendant has an unremarkable bulge in their right jacket pocket, leans to the right, and walked away from the officer without following their commands to stop, this does not justify a reasonable suspicion of specific criminal behavior. A protruding pocket in a jacket is not a strong indicator of criminality and as noted by the Court of Appeals, a pocket bulge, unlike one at the waistband, “could be caused by any number of innocuous objects” (BR 9).

As per the NYPD Patrol Guide 212-11, entitled Investigative Encounters: Request for Information, Common Law Right of Inquiry and Level 3 Stop, when someone’s movement is temporarily restricted, it is classified as a Level III encounter or Terry Stop which requires a reasonable suspicion that the person is involved in or about to commit a felony or Penal Law misdemeanor. Reasonable suspicion is an objective standard; hence, the subjective intentions or motives of the officer makes the stop irrelevant (BR 10).

In People v. De Bour, 40 N.Y.2d 210, the court determined that officers may frisk an individual if they reasonably suspect that the individual is armed (BR 11).

Per People v. Gonzalez, 39 N.Y.2d 122, all consents to search must be a free and unconstrained choice. Official coercion, even if deviously subtle, nullifies apparent consent (BR 12).

NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01, entitled Force Guidelines, states that force may be used when it is reasonable to ensure the safety of a member of the service or a third person, or otherwise protect life, or when it is reasonable to place a person in custody or to prevent escape from custody. In all circumstances, any application or use of force must be reasonable under the circumstances. All members of the service at a police incident must use reasonable force, employ less lethal alternatives, and prioritize de-escalation, whenever possible. If the force used is unreasonable under the circumstances, it will be deemed excessive and in violation of Department policy (BR 13).

NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 212-123, entitled Use of Body Worn Cameras, defines police action as any police service, as well as law enforcement or investigative activity. The procedure mandates that all officers must activate their BWC prior to engaging in any police action and to record any public interactions that escalate to become adversarial (BR 14).

§ 87(2)(g) BWC does not show a clear bulge in § 87(2)(b) pocket, and the officers were unclear about what they believed the bulge to be when they were shown BWC. § 87(2)(g)

As seen in said footage, § 87(2)(b) is wearing a heavy jacket, with a fur hood over his head, and jeans, yet no noticeable bulges or distinctive shapes are discernible on either side. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegations A and B be closed as Substantiated.

Although § 87(2)(b) alleged that PO Celestin and PO Tineo had thrown him onto the ground during the initial stop, there is no recorded evidence in the body-worn camera (BWC) footage of § 87(2)(b) being thrown to the ground at that moment, as PO Tineo promptly guided him to the car. However, PO Tineo acknowledged grabbing § 87(2)(b) to prevent him from running away and the BWC corroborates this. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) PO Celestin's and PO Tineo's BWC could not capture if PO Celestin grabbed § 87(2)(b) since the footage was not discernible at the moment of the stop. § 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegation C be closed as Substantiated. § 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegation D be closed as Unable to Determine.

PO Tineo and PO Celestin placed § 87(2)(b) against the parked car for no more than 10 seconds before walking away from him. § 87(2)(g)

BWC footage showed him moving his hand up and down § 87(2)(b) body. This frisk is depicted in PO Celestin's BWC, as PO Celestin moved his open-palmed hand around § 87(2)(b) body once he was placed against the car. § 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegation E be closed as Substantiated. PO Tineo's BWC and testimony did not yield enough certainty as to whether he was involved in frisking § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegation F be closed as Unable to Determine.

§ 87(2)(g) As PO Celestin and PO Tineo's BWC's were rapidly moving due to the initial stop, BWC footage did not show an officer reaching for § 87(2)(b) phone at any point. § 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegation G be closed as Officer Unidentified.

As evidenced in their BWC, PO Celestin and PO Tineo failed to activate their BWC upon their initial approach of § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegations H and I be closed as Substantiated.

Allegation (J) Force: Police Officer Ernst Celestin used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (K) Discourtesy: Police Officer Sinaka Javorovac spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) said that after PO Celestin and PO Tineo attempted to frisk him, they then walked away from § 87(2)(b) towards the street, and tried to break § 87(2)(b) phone by stepping on it. § 87(2)(b) said to PO Ernst Celestin, "Yo, get off my phone," and then § 87(2)(b) pushed PO Celestin off his phone. In response, PO Celestin then turned around, picked § 87(2)(b) up, and threw him against a parked car on the street. Meanwhile, another officer said to § 87(2)(b) "now you're going to jail, fuck that." § 87(2)(b) was then arrested and taken to the 40th Precinct (BR 4).

As a result of this incident, § 87(2)(b) was issued a summons for Disorderly Conduct which was issued by PO Bismal Tineo. The summons reads "at TPO, the undersigned observed the deft on a public sidewalk with intent to cause disruption act in a violent and threatening manner towards officers by pushing officers." (BR 15)

In the TRI prepared by PO Tineo, he writes that the type of force used against MOS was “active resistance, pushing/shoving.” For type of force used by MOS, PO Tineo writes “wrestling/grappling” and for the reason for force, PO Tineo writes “overcome resistance or aggression” (BR 16).

In the TRI entered by Sgt. Mayky Santo, for the details of incident he writes “at TPO, while officers were conducting an investigation for possible possession of a weapon, subject did flee from police, push officers, and resisted arrest by tucking his arms under his front torso and refusing to be handcuffed. Results negative. Subject RMA at the 40 pct desk. BWC available” (BR 17).

In PO Eduard Lucero’s BWC, he initially operates the RMP and at the time of his arrival, which was at 00:47, he opens the driver’s door of his RMP. After opening the door, in the top left corner of the footage, PO Celestin and PO Lucero can be seen walking away from § 87(2)(b) follows behind the officers and appears to bend down to pick up his phone. As § 87(2)(b) bends down, he extends both of his arms and shoves PO Celestin in a forward motion (BR 18). At 00:52, PO Lucero is fully out of the car and PO Celestin turns around, extends both of his arms, and pushes § 87(2)(b) causing both of his arms to fling in the air. § 87(2)(b) then falls on the ground, landing on the right side of his body. At 1:01, § 87(2)(b) is then placed against the parked blue car on the street. From 00:59 to 1:15 of PO Tineo’s BWC, there appears to be a struggle between § 87(2)(b) and the officers on scene once he is placed against the parked car, as the BWC rapidly moves around with footage that is not visible, which is consistent with all the officers BWC’s at this time. During this struggle, § 87(2)(b) can be heard saying “under, under what?” At 1:15, PO Tineo’s BWC becomes visible, however, and the camera seems to be positioned pointing towards the sky. The officers can be heard telling § 87(2)(b) to give them his hands. At 1:16, an officer can be heard telling § 87(2)(b) “You’re going to get hurt.” § 87(2)(b) appears to be getting handcuffed at this time as an officer can be heard saying at 1:25, “who got cuffs?” At 1:30, the BWC is still pointed upwards, capturing only the sky, and an officer can be heard saying “what’s wrong with you? You must be dumb, bro. What’s wrong with you?” At 1:48, PO Tineo holsters his BWC back on his persons and § 87(2)(b) can be seen placed against the car, handcuffed (BR 18).

In PO Celestin’s BWC, as he is walking away from § 87(2)(b) at 00:50, he turns around, facing § 87(2)(b) walks towards § 87(2)(b) extends both of his arms and pushes § 87(2)(b) onto the ground. PO Celestin then walks away and around at 00:56, § 87(2)(b) is on the ground being helped up by PO Tineo. PO Tineo then places him against a parked blue car on the street, and PO Celestin then activates his BWC (BR 5). PO Tineo’s BWC does not show PO Celestin pushing § 87(2)(b) as he too was walking at that moment; however, PO Tineo’s BWC does show him helping § 87(2)(b) off the ground at 00:59, which was when he activated his BWC, and places him against the parked blue car on the street (BR 6).

PO Celestin stated that as he walked away from the scene, he felt § 87(2)(b) push him with both hands, causing him to stumble forward. In response, PO Celestin pushed § 87(2)(b) who then slipped and fell. PO Celestin used force because he believed § 87(2)(b) was trying to bring him to the ground and wanted to establish distance between them. (BR 7).

PO Sinaka Javorovac testified that on the night of the incident, he was in a separate unmarked patrol car with PO Lucero operating the vehicle, when he witnessed through his rear-view mirror PO Celestin, PO Tineo, and PO Stephen Oswald interacting with § 87(2)(b) prompting them to approach to assist the officer. PO Javorovac said that as he approached the scene, he saw § 87(2)(b) push PO Oswald (BWC shows it was actually PO Celestin) from inside his car; however, when asked to point this out on BWC, PO Javorovac said that the angle obstructed the BWC from capturing this footage. Once PO Javorovac exited his vehicle, he saw § 87(2)(b) on the ground; however, he did not observe how § 87(2)(b) got on the ground and at that point, considered § 87(2)(b) under arrest for disorderly conduct for pushing an officer. PO Javorovac then assisted the officers on scene in handcuffing § 87(2)(b) and at 1:08 of his BWC, PO Javorovac confirmed that he told § 87(2)(b) “Yo bro, you’re going to get hurt.” After this, at 1:20, PO Javorovac admittedly told § 87(2)(b) “What’s wrong with you, you must be dumb.” PO Javorovac said that he did not intend on disrespecting § 87(2)(b) and that § 87(2)(b) pushing an officer prompted him to say this (BR 19).

NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01, entitled Force Guidelines, states that force may be used when it is reasonable to ensure the safety of a member of the service or a third person, or otherwise protect life. All members of service at a police incident must employ less lethal alternatives and prioritize de-escalation, whenever possible. In determining whether the use of force is reasonable, members of service should consider the severity of the crime, actions taken by the subject, immediate perceived threat, and the number of subjects in comparison to the number of MOS (BR 13).

NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 200-02, The Mission, Vision, and Values of the New York City Police Department, states that members of service must maintain a higher standard of integrity than is generally expected of others because so much is expected of them and must respect the dignity of each individual and render our services with courtesy and civility (BR 20).

PO Lucero's BWC shows that PO Celestin was walking away from the scene when § 87(2)(b) made contact with PO Celestin as he picked up his phone from the ground. PO Celestin's immediate reaction was to push § 87(2)(b) to the ground and then walk away from § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation J be closed as Substantiated.

While PO Javorovac stated that he had no intent to disrespect § 87(2)(b) asking a civilian "what's wrong with you," and calling a civilian, "dumb," § 87(2)(g) it is recommended that Allegation K be closed as Substantiated.
